A NOTED MISSION IN LONDON.

Pounded by Frederick Charrington, Who

Did Not Fear to Be Disinherited. The other Sunday night at the Charrington mission, which is held in a long, narrow room, double galleried all around, the coughing (from the for was more like Fourth of July with congiomerate firecrackers, church bells and cannonading than one would conceive as possible issuing from a merely human assembly, says a London correspondent of the Hartford Courant. Just a word about this Charrington mission, which is a feature of the east end. Frederick Charrington belongs to a wealthy family of brewers. About seventeen years ago he began to do a sort of street missionary work in East London, near his father's brewery. His father threatened to disinherit him, but finally left him a share, though not a full share, in the business. Once, on being taunted on the street with wearing the blue ribbon-"what does it cost you to wear that ribbon?"-he was able to reply "A hundred thousand dollars." He sold out his interest in the brewery to his brothers and built in Mile End read the great assembly hall, which had been projected but never begun by Keith-Falconer. Every Sunday night three thousand or more people gather at the evangelistic service of the mission, and its fellowship society, with the constant rengious educational and entertainment work centering at the great assembly hall, makes it a power for good in a district which contains a number of powers for evil.

THE TERM "YANKEE." Various Theories Which Have Been Advanced as to Its Origin.

The theories which have been advanced as to the origin of the name Yankees are numerous. According to Thierny, it was a corruption of Jakin. a diminutive of John, which was a nickname given by the Dutch colonists of New York to their neighbors in the Connecticut settlements.

In a history of the American war written by Dr. William Gordon and published in 1789 was another theory. Dr. Gordon said that it was a cant word in Cambridge, Mass., as early as 1713, used to denote especial excellence -as a Yankee good horse. Yankee good cider, etc. He supposed that it was originally a byword in the college. and being taken by the students into parts of the country gradually obtained general currency in New England, and est length came to be taken up in other parts of the country and applied to New Englanders as a term of slight reproach.

Anbury, an English writer, says that it is derived from a Cherokee wordeankee-which signifies coward and slave. This epithet was bestowed upon the inhabitants of New England by the Virginians for not assisting them in a war with the Cherokees. The most probable theory, however, is that advanced by Mr. Heckewelder-that the Indians in endeavoring to pro-nounce the word English, or Anglais, made it Yengees or Yangees and this originated the term.

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera mor- October 10th, 1893, bus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that allment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scary. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhora Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial but to let our readers know what is good From TERMINAL or INTERIOR Points to keep handy in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Wasco County.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the kead of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Grook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hance it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.

The Daily Chronicle is published every evening in the week Sundays excepted at $6.00 per annum. The Weekly Comments Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
