NO. 24 WRECKED.

Eleven Freight Cars Left the Track and Twenty Horses Killed.

The freight train wreck, mention of which was made yesterday in THE CHRONICLE, occurred at 1 o'clock p. m. about a mile and a half this side of Blacklocks. A boulder coming down from the mountain side, struck a rail and broke it, but in such a manner as not to be noticed by the engineer. The engine passed over safely, but the car behind left the track, and the following ones piled upon and around it, eleven of them leaving the track, which were wrecked or badly splintered. One of the cars contained twenty-four head of horses, shipped by Mr. J. R. Winter of Prineville yesterday morning, mentioned in THE CHRONICLE as having left for Indiana. The car containing the horses was turned bottom side up and twenty out of the twenty-four were killed.

Train hands have been working at the scene of the wreck all night and a wrecking crew left this morning with a large number of extra men to assist in clearing it up. The passenger train was delayed about two hours, at which time the track was fixed sufficiently good to pass. At this time there were yet seven freight cars off the track. The wrecked train was No. 24, east-bound.

CROPS AND WEATHER.

Fruit, Hay, Grain and Produce Throughout Oregon.

The Oregon state weather bureau, in co-operation with the weather bureau of the United States department of agriculture, the central office of which is in Portland, has issued the following crop and weather bulletin for the week ending September 12th, 1893:

EASTERN OREGON.

WEATHER—Showery weather has continued since the 5th of September. Thunder storms occurred in the mountainous districts; they are generally attended by hail. The mean temperature of the week was 61 degrees, which is six degrees below the normal. There was a deficiency of sunshine and the rainfall averaged 0.55 of an inch, which is largely in excess of the normal. The dense smoke, caused by numerous forest fires, has disappeared and the atmosphere is once more pure and healthful.

CROPS—Threshing has temporarily ceased owing to the dampness of the straw. There remains considerable work for the headers in sections where the grain was sown late. Growing crops have received great benefits by the rain. Vegetables have been especially benefited. Pastures have improved so that the prospect for sufficient grass on the range is good. Stock are fat and beef cattle are plentiful. There appears to be less damage done to fruit than was first estimated. Tender plants were injured by a frost which occurred on the 5th. The second crop of alfalfa has been secured, and farmers are prepared to enter the winter season with well filled barns.

SEPTEMBER SHORTS.

City and County News Notes of Minor Importance.

The season opened drear and chill.
At this we did not murmur.
But when the "skooter" with his bill Came later in the summer Was there complaint. But to the skies, That clear, unclouded over us rise, They're gone up. "Those pesky flies."

The meetings at the Christian church are gaining in interest, and the church membership.

Walter Norman celebrated his 16th birthday by a party at the residence of his parents last night. The entertainment, consisted of music, games, lunch, etc., and the usual good time was had.

The subject of the sermon at the Christian church tonight is: "The Evidence of Pardon, or The Knowledge of the Remission of Sins." If you fail to hear every other sermon, don't fail to hear this one.

A tale never loses anything by travel.
A few weeks ago THE CHRONICLE told of a dog driving away a couple of wags. The Wallowa Chieftain has it: Another water spaniel drove two wags away from Sam Klein's store at the Dalles.

Mr. Kellogg and his art, it seemed every day could not tire. The beautiful and thrilling notes he uttered, seemed hardly possible for any man to produce.—Brooklyn Standard. Mr.
Kellogg will give a concert in the M. E. church, Sept. 23d. You should not fail to hear him.

A Vancouver paper says that rival papers were endeavoring to spike their nose before the run. This is untrue.
The visitors were nicely treated and they were kind enough to say so. Because a newspaper reports a sporting event is no reason why it should adopt the bluff, bluster and vulgarity of an exclusive police news publication.

A gentleman recently from Australia, informs us that the expense of raising wool in Australia is nearly nothing and that Australia wool can be laid down in Boston at a profit to the producer at 7½ cents per pound. When that can be done at the extremely low price named, what is to become of America's wool industry? It must have protection or go to the wall.

Malarial Diseases.

Twice a Week.

Hard times does not deter THE CHRON-ICLE from being enterprising. Believing that the readers of its weekly edition would be better served by sending out the news printed in the early part of the week, it now issues the weekly in two parts, so that the people will get them Wednesdays and Saturdays. It is virtually a semi-weekly, and is almost double the value of a weekly alone.
That our efforts to please are appreciated is shown by the already increased number of subscribers. Some of the features are:

A low price for the paper.
A concise and full market report.
Washington correspondence.
Country correspondence.
Itemized Oregon news.
Itemized world's news.
Full local news.
Valuable hints to the producers.
Home advertisements.

The last named are valuable to anyone who will make them so, and should be read by all with whom the saving of money is an object. A careful weekly perusal of the advertisements in THE CHRONICLE will save many times the cost of the paper in the course of a year.
As long as the rule of supply and demand holds good, so long will advertisements be valuable and the shrewd profit by reading them.

THE CHRONICLE is only $1.50 a year, a bit a month, and no family in Wasco county can afford to be without it.
Subscribe now and get four months' subscription free. Do not wait if you do not happen to have the money.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

The state fair is in session at Salem.
Oregon's hop crop will reach 40,000 bales.

Considerable apprehension exists around Independence over hop lice.

It is estimated that at least 100,000 more bushels of wheat and oats will be stored at Independence this year than last.

A. W. Furman, of Trail-creek precinct, Jackson county, committed suicide one day last week while in a fit of despondency by taking a dose of strychnine.

Colonel Robert A. Miller, register of the Oregon City land office, and Mrs.
Sarella G. Grubbs, late superintendent of the Salem schools, were married Monday morning at the home of the bride's parents at Waldo hills.

A lone highwayman held up the Ager-Klamath Falls stage on the 10th, and robbed three passengers of $600. The driver was not molested. He also cut open the registered mail pouches and secured their contents. There is no clue to the highwayman.

B. S. Fague, who left here last month for the world's fair and the meteorological congress, to be absent a few weeks, has been ordered from Chicago to Washington city for two months' special duty on synoptic charting. His family have left to join him, stopping off at Chicago en route. They will all return to Portland the latter part of November.—Oregonian.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results.

Mr. Ezra Sexton of Wasco, Sherman county, is in the city today and states the wet spell has not injured the grain, and that the yield about Gordon ridge is much larger than anticipated and better in quality.

Mr. W. N. Wiley returned last evening from his sheep camp in the mountains, and he informs us that the rain has been steady until yesterday morning, and that on the higher altitudes there was a light fall of snow.

The operation on Walter French yesterday was successfully performed. He is making a stubborn fight for his life, and if nature will soon commence her healthful healing process the plucky little fellow will come out victor.

We understand Mr. John Hampshire has resigned his position as purser of the steamer Regulator and will take his leave on Saturday. Mr. Hampshire is a very popular young man, and his presence in the steamer office will be missed by the travelling public.

A Fiend Still at Large.

A Spokane special says: George Mu-loch, charged with criminal assault upon his daughter, is still a fugitive.
Officers got on his trail last night and ran him into the mountains east of the city. Muloch's son, who aided him to escape by driving him in a buggy out of the city, was found returning last night, having taken blankets and food to his father. He was made to confess his hiding place, and the officers quickly formed a circle, and now claim they have him rounded up in the timber.
The officers are moving with precaution, as Muloch is well armed and it is known that he will fight desperately before he will submit to arrest. Up to a late hour Muloch had not been captured.
