SEPTEMBER SHORTS.

City and County News Notes of Minor Importance.

Circuit court will convene at Condon on Monday.

Mr. F. A. Seufert brings news of the drowning of an unknown Indian boy in the river near his cannery.

Catalogues of the county fair may be obtained of the secretary, Mr. J. O.
Mack, or at THE CHRONICLE office.

Wm. Taylor brought in some fine Hungarian and silver prunes yesterday, as a sample of the entire orchard, which is located in the edge of the city. There are twelve large prunes the size of a turkey egg clustered within a space of six inches.

What is beginning to move in a small way. Several loads were brought in to the warehouses and mill today from both sides of the river. Some was sold, bringing 47 and 48 cents per bushel, but we understand most of it was put on storage.

W. A. Kirby has presented THE CHRONICLE force with a beautiful basket of fruit, or rather a basket of beautiful fruit. Its artistic arrangement would make a good subject for an oil painting, but the force agrees that the fruit itself is its best imitation.

Wm. Joss, the insane man brought from Hood River on last night's Regulator, was taken to the asylum this morning by Sheriff Ward. Dr. Brosius was the examining physician and he was adjudged insane before Judge Blakeley's court this morning.

Messrs. Hubbard and Whealdon, who have always had a secret desire to stab each other, though outwardly the best of friends, have adjusted their political differences, and now Damon and Pythias are nowhere. Hubbard is a Cleveland democrat and Whealdon is a republican, a distinction without a difference.

Mr. Kellogg played, sang, whistled or warbled a "Gavotte" by Smith. He did as probably no other man in the world can do. He had in his throat a lark, a canary, a mocking bird and a piccolo, where he concealed them we do not know, but we heard them all.
He is a good singer, too, but the birds fairly took his song away from him and made the audience crazy.—New York Daily Herald.

cord attached. Reward if left at this

E. W. Wilhelm's Property.

The heirs of E. W. Wilhelm filed an agreement in the clerk's office today, whereby each receives a share of the property of deceased, without the employment of an administrator or other legal means to that end. In consideration of such agreement, Josephine Wilhelm, the widow of E. W. Wilhelm, waives her dower rights, as do the others whatever rights they may claim as heirs.
The division is as follows:

Josephine Wilhelm, a certain note and mortgage given by F. W. L. Skibbe and wife to Ernest Wilhelm, dated July 1st, 1890, for $2,360.

Catharine McQuinn, a daughter, lots 4, 5, 16 and 17 in block 11, Thompson's addition to Dalles City.

William Wilhelm, a son, a note and mortgage given by Wm. E. Miller to E.
W. Wilhelm, June 16th, 1890, for $1,058.90.

T. A. Wilhelm, a son, ne¹/₄ section 12, township 1 north, range 14 east, W. M., containing 160 acres.

H. J. Wilhelm, a son, sw¹/₄ ne¹/₄, se¹/₄ nw¹/₄, ne¹/₄ sw¹/₄ and nw¹/₄ se¹/₄, section 32, township 2 north, range 13 east W.
M.; 160 acres.

Birthday Party.

A birthday party was given Miss Clara Davis last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Judge Bradshaw.
The time was very pleasantly passed with games, music and feasting. Mrs.
Bradshaw honored her niece by some exquisite piano selections, and the lunch was enjoyed as only youth can. Those present were Misses Pearl Williams, Pearl Butler, Georgia Sampson, Alice Enery, Eva Heppner, Lizzie Sampson, Bertie Glenn, Edna Glenn, Clara Davis, and Ray Logan, Willie Crossen, Ralph Rowland, Willie Fredden, Gus Bonn, Joe Bonn, Freas Saunders, Charlie Fritz, John Weigle and Victor Marden.

Points on Women.

The woman doesn't live who can Fold a letter straight, Pour half a cup of coffee, Cut her nails with a penknife, Return a borrowed lead-pencil, Stick to the point in argument, Or keep her hands off the driver's arm if the horses shy.

Wapinitia Grain—Mysterious Tourists.

Mr. R. A. Laughlin of Wapinitia is in the city today and we acknowledge a call. He reports the heading about done and threshing well under way. In every instance the yield has exceeded estimates and the quality is first-class in that section.

Several parties who were out in the mountains this summer outing think they have discovered coal on the western slope of the range. How extensive and how good the quality is, they were unable to determine. Some prospectors passed Wapinitia a few days ago who had come on the Barlow road from the west. They were equipped with shovels, picks, etc., loaded on a wheelbarrow, and said their objective point was near Mt. Jefferson. They were reticent about further movements.

Snipoleon and Wellington Fight a Draw.

We hail with delight indications of an approaching conclusion to the extended serial which has been running during the heated term in The Dalles Times-Mountaineer and the Albany Democrat with reference to the comparative ignorance of each on the financial question.
The appearance of the successive chapters has been eagerly awaited by the two editors interested. Now there will be space for something people want to read about.—Oregonian.

in his section.

ANOTHER SAWMILL.

The Rowe Lumbering Company of Southern Oregon to Locate Here.

We understand that Mr. Rowe, of the Rowe Lumbering Company, was in the city yesterday and examined several localities for a mill site. The one selected is near the mouth of Mill creek, on the west, for their saw and planing mill and sash and door factory. As far as the definite location is concerned we were unable to get at the facts. Although there may be some truth in the report, the company have already put in logging teams, etc. between this point and the Cascades. A representative informed us that The Dalles is the point selected to erect buildings, etc.
The company will supply the mills through the medium of steam barges and tow the logs.

m. worship and a sermon. Sunday vited.

A Fight With Rattlers.

In the window of Schumacher's gun store, on third street, is displayed a box of rattlers taken from the tails of a large number of snakes found in a den on the south fork of the Walla Walla river, the capture of which came near being fatal to Edward Burch, while hunting on the mountains above what is known as the Elbow, Mr. Burch wounded a large brown bear, which immediately showed fight and a race for life was the result.
Burch ran through the brush and over rocks down the steep mountain side, and finally, bruised and tired, he sat down to take breath. Suddenly the dreaded warning of a rattlesnake made him jump to his feet; then another and another, until the rocks were swarming with snakes all around him. He proceeded to fight his way out and killed fifteen, not, however, without being bitten on the leg by one huge monster which he had stepped upon. He went to the nearest house and was given remedies, from whence he was taken to Remedies, where he now lies very ill from the effects of the bite. The rattlers were afterward cut off from the dead snakes and a portion of them sent to Walter Schumacher in this city.—Statenman.

INDUSTRIAL POINTS.

The annual manufacture in Europe at the present time, according to the latest statistics, is something like 1,- 850,000 square yards of looking-glass.

Two basket mills at Dover, Del., turned out 9,000 peach baskets per day during the summer. The work is done with great ease, rapidity and precision.
The fastest basket maker in the Dover mills makes from 250 to 300 baskets per day. He is paid one cent per basket.

Mrs. HARRIET STRONG, of Whittier, Cal., last year imported pampas grass from South America to the ranch and raised 3,000,000 plumes. These make handsome decorations. One million of these were sent to the world's fair.
She has exported over 650,000 to Europe.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kan.) Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial but to let our readers know what is good to keep handy in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good."
