Hundred Thousand People Rush Into the Cherokee Strip.

CRIME AND ACCIDENT FOLLOW.

Cowboys, in a Fruitless Effort to Turn Aside the Homeseekers, Set the Prairie Afire.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Sept. 16 .- One hundred thousand people settled upon signal was given, and the great race began. As far as the eye could reach in either direction could be seen men mounted, in wagons, and on foot, closely packed together, making a solid column 200 feet or more wide in the middle, and tapering away to a mere streak of black in the distance. Confusion reigned everywhere. So closely were the contestants packed together, the start was hazardous. Horsemen were unseated, wagons overthrown and pedestrians prostrated in the mad rush. James H. Hill, of Kingborn, N. J., was shot and instantly killed by a soldier at the southwest corner of the Chiloco reservation. He started into the strip before the signal was given. The soldiers warned ders and they fired upon him. He had $500 and it was turned over to the sheriff. In the race many men were injured and some killed. Of the latter, two other shot through the head. Many dead horses are on the prairie. Four new townsites have populations estimated at 5.000 each. Others boast populations ranging from 1,000 to 3,000. Every desirable claim has at least one claimant, and many have two or four. Contests, of course, will be numerous. water, O. T., and Arkansas City, Kan. dried up the streams, and those who are forced to endure suffering.

at the National Capital. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8, 1893. Special Correspondence of THE CHRONICLE-1

It is quite evident that the senators who represent the administration in the fight for the repeal of the Sherman law will not listen to anything looking to a compromise. If one is brought about it will be without their consent. The course Mr. Voorhees is pursuing in not attempting to restrict senators in their right to discuss the measure to their full satisfaction, but insisting that there shall be no gaps in the discussion to waste time, is approved of by all the the Cherokee strip today.
