A number of Mosierites are in town today for the purpose of attending the trial of Wm. Watson, which was postponed.

The Tygh Hill grade, that was reported badly damaged by the recent cloud burst, has been repaired at a small expense, and is in fine condition for travel.

Rev. Mr. Aleridge's lecture last night was of unusual interest. Tonight he is booked for a humorous effort. He is an earnest and entertaining speaker and a capital story teller.

Day Brothers are advertising for two first class rock foremen. It is supposed from this that their services are required for the direction of the work in laying up the rock walls in the canal.

The price of wheat is going to be better shortly. Every authority says so. Badstreet says so; Orange Judd Farmer says so; the New York Sun says so. To be sure it will go up—there is no place lower for it to go.

The Harney company of the Oregon National Guard was organized last Monday evening by Col. Mitchell. A. W. Gawan was elected captain; S. E. Joy, first lieutenant, and H. E. Thomson, second lieutenant.—Harney Times.

Miss Booth, the daughter of the Rev. Chas. Booth of Newport, Oregon, a trained kindergarten, expects to open a kindergarden in this city, on or about the 25th inst. Further particulars may be obtained of Rev. E. D. Sutcliffe.

An editor out west who sends his paper out to "time subscribers" sends a bill each year. When a second bill is sent and there is no response he takes it for granted that the subscriber is dead, and publishes an "obituary notice" in his columns.

A pelican measuring a little over eight feet from tip to tip, was killed on Mr. John C. Luce's ranch in the John Day country Saturday. The bird lit down in the alfalfa field near the house, and getting its wings wet, was unable to rise readily, and the women and children killed it.

Wednesday morning the surrounding mountains were dressed in a coat of newly fallen snow, which, however, has all disappeared. In Fox valley it is said that the snow measured three inches at the postoffice. Greenhorn is white, and will remain so for the remainder of the year.—Long Creek Eagle, Sept. 15th.

The revival continues at the Christian church with unabated interest. The audiences are large and attentive. Twenty accessions to the church to date, with probability of many others to follow. Subject tonight, "Adoption." Baptism will be administered immediately after the sermon.

A waterspout occurred at, or near, the mouth of Antelope creek, a branch of Crooked river above town, says the Prineville News, on Wednesday of last week, and the water washed enough rocks and debris down the canyon and into the bed of the river to completely blockade or dam up the channel.

Of Mr. Chas. D. Kellogg, who will give a concert for the benefit of the Epworth League on Saturday, Sept. 23d, in the M. E. church, the Jamestown News says: "The grandest and best of all was the bird warbling of Mr. Kellogg. This was a great surprise and delight to the audience. It was surpassingly beautiful and seemed incredible that human vocal organs could produce such an exact imitation of bird notes."

The State Insurance Company of Salem and the Farmers and Merchants Insurance Company of Albany have withdrawn from the Pacific Insurance Union. The union's purpose was to compel the alliance of all companies and make a trust of the whole thing. The two Oregon companies deserve the heartiest congratulations for the independent course adopted, and the alliance should not be by Oregonians whose motto is "down with trusts."

In his lecture last night Rev. Mr. Aleridge spoke of the heroism displayed by Walter French in refusing to take brandy as a stimulant while lying so low as to be in great danger without it. The boy patient thought so much of his pledge and his word that he would not violate it at whatever cost. He was finally overpersuaded through the maturer logic of the doctor, who convinced him it was only medicine.

According to the returns of the assessors the total valuation of Washington is $280,511,203. King county has the highest valuation, $54,211,229; next is Pierce, with $45,841,492; Spokane, $38,086,067; Whitman, $19,757,639; Whatcom, $12,924,944; Walla Walla, $10,939,020. In Whitman the railroads are assessed at $10,000 per mile, nearly double the rate fixed by the Walla Walla board of equalization. Columbia county is valued at $4,002,186; Franklin, $983,680; Garfield, $1,581,236; Asotin, $583,420; Adams, $1,744,733.—Walla Walla Union.

The Fossil Journal says: "The Gilman-French Land and Live Stock company has sold 1,000 head of beef cattle to the American Dressed Beef Co. of Portland and Troutdale. The cattle are to be delivered in three separate lots of a train load each at Heppner. The boys started to Heppner Saturday with the first shipment of 340 head, which were received at the Prairie ranch of the company by Hank Putnam. Mr. Putnam will return next Monday to receive the second train load. The price paid was 2 1/2 c for steers and 1 3/4 for cows, which will average $30 for the former and about $18 for the latter."

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

Can a Fence Be Torn Down?

The case of the State vs. Wm. Watson for unlawfully tearing down a fence was continued until Thursday, to enable defendant time enough to secure his witnesses and gather information relative to the road involved. The facts are that the fence in question has been repeatedly torn down by some party or parties, which has been the source of great annoyance to the owner thereof, Mr. J. H. Mosier, who has been compelled to hunt stock far into the mountains which escaped from the field. An interesting point to be decided is as to whether such fence and road were legally entitled to exist, and if so or if not whether anyone has the right to tear it down. The case seems to partake more of a neighborhood quarrel than any actual criminal intent on the part of defendant, whose good character is above reproach.

SAYINGS AND DOINGS.

"I tell my boy," said a father, "that I don't care what calling he takes up, but that he does want to be able to do whatever he undertakes to do better, if possible, than anybody else."

"The profit of books," says a wise man, "is according to the sensibility of the reader. The profoundest thought or passion sleeps as in a mine, until an equal mind and heart finds and publishes it."

The secret of keeping young Mr. Jules Simon declares to be intellectual work, and in proof of this theory points to the fact that the members of the French institute are largely hearty and healthy octogenarians.

It is said of "Sojer" Flynn that his first appearance as a presiding officer was at a meeting called to arrange for a Fourth of July celebration, and that he put the question thus: "All youse that's exposed to the Fourth of July plaze say aye, yes or no."

MARKET REPORT.

Confidence Being Restored—Country Produce, Poultry and Grain.

THURSDAY, September 19th.—Business in the past few days has remained quiet and not so satisfactory as expected. There is, however, a feeling of confidence among business men of an early improvement and activity in trade. General merchandise quotations are unchanged save in coffees and rice, which have experienced an advance recently.

Country produce continues to arrive freely and prices are steady, with a downward tendency in some kinds. Fruits, such as will suffer exporting, are in fair inquiry at last quotations, excepting peaches, which have declined and are now quoted at 60 to 75 cents per box.

The market supply of eggs is somewhat shorter and has an upward tendency, although present quotations are unchanged.

Poultry is in fair demand for export, and spring chickens are quoted at $2 to $2.50 per dozen. Old fowls, $3 to $3.50 per dozen. Ducks and geese are out of the market and no quotations are given. Turkeys are in fair demand at 10 cents per pound. Only a few have been offered at that price.

The wheat market is quite unsettled, and has a slight tendency to advance above quotations of today, which are 47 to 48 cents per bushel.

In San Francisco a steady advance on future deliveries continues, for December delivery $1.19 3/4, and $1.30 1/2 per cental. The Portland market is sluggish and comparatively empty, although some wheat is arriving daily from Eastern Oregon and Washington. The surplus of America, according to Bradstreet, will become exhausted in seven weeks, if the present export to the United Kingdom continues unabated. The great grain centers of the east, in view of the present condition, are anticipating an advance in all cereals on futures.

A Truly Pioneer Woman.

Mrs. Ezra Warren, accompanied by her son and his wife, visited her sister, Mrs. Wm. Wigle, and her daughter, Mrs. Joe Crooks, this week. Mrs. Warren came to Crook county with her husband, now deceased, in 1872, and resided here about three years. Her present home is near Brownsville.

It was our good pleasure to meet and converse with Mrs. Warren. The old lady is remarkably intellectual, and an excellent conversationalist. Her history is no doubt familiar to nearly all people in Oregon. She is now 57 years of age. At the age of ten years she was a member of the mission school at Walla Walla, and was an eye witness to the massacre that took place there on the 27th of November, 1847. In this Indian butchery the great Dr. Whitman fell, and his brave, heroic wife was also a victim of the tomahawk. Mrs. Warren, with 51 others, was taken prisoner, and they were in captivity three weeks. They were ransomed by Hudson Bay Company officers, prominent among whom was Capt. Ogden. After their rescue they were taken down the Columbia river in small open boats in mid-winter, and their sufferings were necessarily terrible.

At that time the subject of these remarks was Miss Spaulding. Her mother and Mrs. Whitman were the first white women to tread upon the soil of Oregon. These truly pioneer woman crossed the plains in 1836. Mrs. Warren is master of the native tongue of the Nez Perces tribe of Indians. She was born at Lapwai, Idaho, not far from the present town of Lewiston, and she is now the oldest living white child born on this side of the Rocky mountains.—Prineville News.

A Good Word.

Mr. J. J. KELL, Sharpshooter, Pa., Dear Sir:—I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia, (which seemed to baffle the efforts of some of our best physicians) you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules. Gratefully Yours, Mrs. E. B. HOLMES, Montrose, Pa.
