YOU DON'T KNOW

what a comfort it is to have ready at hand a remedy that never fails to relieve Constipation, and that, without pain or discomfort; and almost immediately cures headaches, and dispels every symptom of Dyspepsia. Such a remedy is found in Simmons Liver Regulator—not a sweetened compound to nauseate, or an intoxicating beverage to cultivate an alcoholic appetite, but a medicine pleasant to the taste, and perfectly harmless when given to the smallest child. S. L. R. never disappoints. It possesses the virtues and perfections of a reliable remedy of the kind endorsed by eminent physicians.

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to those you receive annually in reference to your valuable medicine. I consider Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine on the market. I have prescribed it with excellent results."
W. F. PARK, M. D., Tracy City, Tenn.

THE Daily Evening Chronicle is recognized as essentially the home paper for the Dalles City folks. This is not a bad reputation. Some 2,000 of our best citizens watch the columns of this daily for the slightest local news. It succeeds in pleasing the field, and hence grows in popularity and importance. Take it awhile, you who don't try some of its premium offers.

DEATH ON THE RAILS

World's Fair Trains Crash Into Each Other.

EIGHT KILLED, FOURTEEN INJURED
Many of the Wounded, It is Thought, Will Die—List of the Dead.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Last night, owing to the heavy world's fair travel, the south-bound "Big Four" express left here in two sections. At Manteno, 60 miles south, the first section stopped for water just beyond a curve. The second section followed close behind and crashed into the standing train at a high rate of speed before the flagman could get back far enough to give warning. Fortunately the last car of the first section was empty, else no one in it would have been left alive, as it was crushed into kindling wood. The next two cars were sleepers and the force of the impact drove them into two day coaches in front, which, owing to their lighter construction, were crushed. These two cars were filled with passengers. The citizens of Manteno lent all the assistance possible toward rescuing the wounded and removing the dead. The worst hurt were taken to the neighboring houses. Others were brought to this city and taken to St. Luke's hospital.

Following is a list of the dead as reported at the Big Four headquarters here: Emil Kimmel, Dayton, O.; J. W. Powell, New Vienna, O.; L. L. Sweet, Louisville, Ky.; David Jackson, Carmel, O.; Minnie Duvers, Lower Albany, Ind. Two men and one woman unidentified.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Democratic Tactics in Congress—The Chinese Exclusion Bill.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15th, 1893. Special Correspondence of THE CHRONICLE.

It is calculated to make a man rub his eyes and ask himself whether this is 1853 or 1893 when he hears the democratic arguments advanced in favor of the bill which has been reported to the house, providing for the removal of every vestige of federal control over congressional and presidential elections. By the way, the title of this bill should read "a bill to perpetuate democratic control of the southern states, and of the states of New York, Massachusetts and Illinois, through the hoodlum element in the cities of New York, Chicago and Boston," for that is its real object. The arguments in favor of the bill are practically the same as those advanced in the fifties in favor of secession. The author of the bill—Representative Tucker, of Virginia—has the audacity to say that the federal government has no right to "supervise the elections of the state's representatives in congress." Since when did the states have any representatives in congress? If representatives are state officials, what did the framers of the constitution of the United States mean by this: "The times, places, and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations," and by this: "Each house (of congress) shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members?" The senate has within a short time exercised its authority under the last quoted clause, by refusing to seat senators appointed by the governors of three states, and it was done, too, by the votes of democratic senators, acting under the direct order of the president; but when was the democratic party ever consistent in anything? The claim that federal supervision of elections is unconstitutional is a false one and no one knows it any better than the democrats who have the effrontery to make it, in the hope of blinding the ignorant.

The administration is dealing with the Geary anti-Chinese law in its usual wibbly-wobbly style. It started out with a flourish of trumpets a few days ago by announcing that the law was to be enforced. When the new Chinese minister called at the department of state to file the formal protest of his government against enforcing the law and to put in a few words himself in the same line, he was informed by Secretary Gresham that the operation of the law would be suspended until congress took some action relating thereto. Two bills have been introduced in the house, both modifying the law, and one of them is said by some people to have the approbation of the administration, although others say that Representative McCreary, of Kentucky, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, is at work upon a new Chinese bill which is to be backed by the administration. Very naturally these things are a little confusing. Your correspondent sought enlightenment from Representative Geary, of California, who, acting with the other senators and representatives from the Pacific coast, is credited with having secured the positive promise, a few days ago, that the law bearing his name should be enforced. Mr. Geary appeared to be very much disgusted, and when asked what was going to be done, said: "I don't know, and nobody else seems to; when I go to one department I am told one thing, and when I reach the next one the story is radically different."

Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, has introduced a bill providing for an appropriation of $10,000 for a national dedication of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Park, which embraces the ground upon which one of the most memorable battles of the war was fought. The dedicatory ceremonies are to be held on the 17th and 18th of October, 1894, and it is proposed to invite the survivors of both armies to join therein.

"Whom the gods will destroy they first make mad" is an ancient maxim, applicable to Mr. Cleveland just now. He is mad at the obstinate senators who in spite of his commands and entreaties and the influence of the financial world, brought to bear by petitions and the personal presence of representatives of the board of trade in all the large cities, still refuse to vote for the Voorhees repeal bill. The birth of his baby and the good condition of mother and daughter having relieved his mind of family cares, he will now devote his attention to the senate. He started in by sending for Senator Voorhees and giving him a raking down because the bill had not been passed, this being the date that Voorhees had set as the outside limit for the passage of the bill. The bill has not passed, and what is more, there is no immediate prospect of its being passed. It is now stated that the great test of endurance between the friends and opponents of the bill is to begin next week. The silver men still express confidence of their ability to prevent a vote, and their opponents are not so confident of winning as they were.

The Salutary Effects

of Simmons Liver Regulator upon the system, prostrated by long suffering with dyspepsia, and kindred diseases, is without a precedent. Its tonic, and alterative effects are wonderful.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kan.) Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial but to let our readers know what is good to keep handy in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

CROPS AND WEATHER.

Fruit, Hay, Grain and Produce Throughout Oregon.

The Oregon state weather bureau, in co-operation with the weather bureau of the United States department of agriculture, the central office of which is in Portland, has issued the following crop and weather bulletin for the week ending Sept. 19th, 1893:

EASTERN OREGON.
Weather—Heavy rains occurred on the first three days of the week, which were followed on Thursday and Friday by light, and in exposed places, killing frosts. The temperature became much warmer toward the decline of the week, averaging 56 degrees. The sunshine was below the average. All forest fires have ceased and the air has again become pure, healthful and exhilarating.

Crops—Farmers in the Columbia and Walla Walla valleys have not entirely finished their harvest, and there is considerable wheat to thresh in some localities. The heavy rains damaged standing grain, also grain shocks; but the rains were much needed to assist fruit in maturing and start new growth of root crops. Vegetables and pastures are improving. Streams have begun to flow anew, and stock is reaping the benefit of the above conditions and improving thereby. Farmers are prepared to enter winter season. Hay is abundant. Some farmers are fallowing and preparing to sow the fall wheat crop.

Owing to the advanced condition of farm work and maturity of crops, the weekly crop report will be discontinued from this date. It will be resumed in the spring of 1894.

NEWS NOTES.

The forest fires in Wisconsin have been extinguished by the heavy rains.

A man and four women were suffocated in a fire in a pastry-cook shop in Whitechapel, London, yesterday.

The position of President Peixoto is desperate. No doubt is entertained in Rio of the success of the revolution and the restoration of the monarchy.

News is just received from Harrison township, twelve miles from Washington, Ind., that Denson Wrattan and family, six in all, were murdered last night.

W. H. Thomas, a prominent lawyer and well known republican, committed suicide at his residence in Garvanza, Calif., by means of morphine. He has long been a sufferer from consumption, and the suicide is attributed to a desire for relief from pain.

Fireman Liberty has given up $30,000 of the money taken by the robbers from the Mineral Range train. He says he had the other $40,000, but some of his confederates made away with it. It is doubtful if it is recovered. Eight more arrests have been made.

The most daring mine robbery ever committed in Colorado occurred at the Little Johnnie mine, near Leadville. Two masked men bound and gagged the watchman. They then began carrying off the ore, which was in sacks, to a team. They secured 14 sacks, valued at over $20,000. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

In the senate yesterday Dubois of Idaho declared that the anti-repeal men would oppose the passage of the repeal bill by availing themselves of every advantage afforded them under the rules and usages of the senate. Voorhees retorted by giving notice that he would tomorrow move for longer and more nearly continuous sessions, so the situation in the senate appears to resolve itself into a mere question of endurance.

When you're languid and dull in the spring of the year,
When stomach and liver are all out of gear,
When you're stupid at morn and fevish at night,
And nothing gives relish and nothing goes right,
Don't try any nostrum, elixir, or pill—
"Golden Medical Discovery" just fills the bill.

The surest and best of all remedies for all disorders of the liver, stomach and blood, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
