Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:
S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, MR. & MRS. J. F. FORD.
If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.
Sold under a positive guarantee.

YOU DON'T KNOW what a comfort it is to have ready at hand a remedy that never fails to relieve Constipation, and that, without pain or discomfort, and almost immediately cures headaches, and dispels every symptom of Dyspepsia. Such a remedy is found in Simmons Liver Regulator—not a sweetened compound to nauseate, or an intoxicating beverage to cultivate an alcoholic appetite, but a medicine pleasant to the taste, and perfectly harmless when given to the smallest child. S. L. R. never disappoints. It possesses the virtues and perfections of a reliable remedy of the kind endorsed by eminent physicians.

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to those you receive annually in reference to your valuable medicine. I consider Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine on the market. I have prescribed it with excellent results."
W. F. PARK, M. D., Tracy City, Tenn.

THE Dalles Evening Chronicle is recognized as an essentially the home paper for the Dalles City folks. This is not a bad reputation. Some 2,500 of our best citizens watch the columns of this paper daily for the latest local news. It succeeds in gaining the field, and hence grows in popularity and importance. Take it while you don't, try some of its premium offers.

IT WAS SMALL POX
The Blunder of a Smart Medical Instructor in New York.
ELEVEN NEW CASES REPORTED
Rio in a State of Siege--The Gilmour Murder Mystery--Substitute for the Exclusion Bill.

New York, Sept. 21.—Eleven new cases of small-pox were reported to the health officer from various parts of the city yesterday. A blunder that amounts almost to crime has been committed in clinic, and by it the seed has been sown that may yet bear a disastrous crop. The list of today's victims is headed by two young doctors. It was their coming down with the disease in one day, within a few hours of each other, that exposed the blunder. The Vanderbilt clinic, in West Fifty-ninth street, was the scene of it. September 4th, James McGowan, a laborer, went to the dispensary and asked to be examined. Suspicious blotches colored the skin. An expert in skin diseases, attached to the clinic, saw him and concluded that he had before him a fine case of chicken-pox. He did not make it his business to find out that the house from which McGowan came had been the scene of persistent cases of small-pox, with which the health officers are struggling yet. He took the man in before the clinic of young doctors and paraded him as a typical case of chicken-pox. The doctors were interested. They looked at the blotches on the man's skin, and felt of them, listened to the expert's exposition of the difference between the shot-like feeling of small-pox pustules under the skin, and the more solid touch of the harmless chicken-pox. It was very instructive, and altogether a rare chance. There were 20 to 30 doctors, and they all took their turn at the fine exhibit. Among them were Drs. Richards and Norris. Today those two are lying ill with the small-pox. That is what the exhibit turned out to be when it got into the hands of the health officers. How many more of the young doctors will follow these, there is no telling.

THE SITUATION AT RIO.
A Furious Bombardment Is Hourly Expected.
LONDON, Sept. 21.—Private advices from Rio Janeiro say a furious bombardment is expected hourly.
The only reason the bombardment has not commenced is that yesterday negotiations between the rebels and the government were undertaken at the instance of foreign powers and foreign warships who wished to save the city from destruction. It is not believed they will amount to anything; in fact, it is believed the government is merely prolonging them to allow the non-combatants to get away and the merchants to save goods.

The statements of yesterday are confirmed from several sources. An attempt of the Brazilian minister to belittle the rebellion is not accepted with any credence in London. The people of Rio admit the rebellion has progressed to such an extent that it is better to let the city fall into the hands of the insurgents than to be shelled. The rebels at Rio are in communication with the insurgents in the south, and all are acting in unison. After success at Santos they propose to attack Porto Alegre and Rio Grande do Sul. In fact, the insurgent vessels, it is said, have already started on that errand. There is no doubt the rebels are meeting with success. In fact, a report that they have occupied Rio is in circulation here this morning.

The New Exclusion Bill.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The committee on foreign affairs today considered the McCrea substitute for the Everett bill, extending the time of registration for the Chinese. Discussion developed the fact that every member favored the extension of time six months, with the possible exception of Geary. The latter gave notice he would offer an amendment providing for identification by means of photographs. The committee adjourned without action, but there is doubt at the next meeting the bill will be favorably reported.

The Gilmour Murder Mystery.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The police authorities claim to have evidence enough to insure the conviction of Dr. West for the murder of Addie Gilmour. One of the strong features will be the admission that he made to her father. The deceased girl's parents reside in Portland, Or. The first intimation they had was received on the overland train in their recent trip from there to this city. All attempts to interview Dr. West this morning failed.

Annie Staley, Dr. West's mistress, was arrested today, charged with being an accessory to the murder of Addie Gilmour. The police say the Staley woman saw West perform an operation on Miss Gilmour, and, after the girl's death, assisted in cutting up the body.
The funeral of Miss Gilmour will not take place today as was proposed, the coroner's jury not being satisfied with the identification of the head. It will probably not take place till Saturday. Her dentist goes to San Francisco from Chico today to examine her teeth and see if it is his work.

MARKET REPORT.
Trade Gradually Getting Back to Its Normal Condition.
FRIDAY, September 22.—The general tone to the business situation shows an improvement during the past few days and has an encouraging appearance of a pick up. Trade is not really brisk in any one line of goods, but is of a healthy character, with more money in circulation, and is steadily getting back into its normal condition. Prices continue steady in all lines of general merchandise and groceries.

The market for country produce is devoid of much interest, as it is well stocked with a general assortment, unless it may be said in eggs; the market is bare, and an advance to 18 to 20 cents per dozen is made within the past few days.
The green fruit market is sluggish and is in large supply at nominal prices. In dried fruits there is a declining tendency, owing to the large surplus of the product. Dried plums and prunes are reported to have declined from 12 to 9 cents in Portland.

The poultry market continues without change, although the deliveries are limited to small, occasional lots.
The meat market from block does not vary from the usual price. Beef on foot 2½ to 2½ per lb. Mutton $1.75 to $2.50 per head. Pork on foot $5 to $5.50 per 100 lbs. Pork dressed for the block is quoted 6½ to 7 cents per lb.
The wheat market which had a buoyant aspect a week ago, has met with a reverse on account of a declining tendency in eastern markets, which have chopped rapidly in the last few days. In San Francisco a decline of 5 cents per cental for May deliveries has taken place, which was in sympathy with other markets. European markets report a firmer tone after a short softening on spot deliveries. Buyers for futures show a disposition to be very considerate and are waiting for a more favorable market.

Our own market is under the influence of the Portland and San Francisco markets, which are reported dull and off. Valley wheat is quoted at 90 cents to $1 per cental, and Eastern Oregon and Walla Walla at 85 to 87½ per cental. In The Dalles the quotations today range from 45 to 47 cents per bushel.
The wool market is just as lifeless as formerly with no appearance of an improvement to take place in the near future. The Boston and other eastern markets are still dull, as indicated by the following, from the Boston Advertiser of the 15th inst., which of Australian wools says:
Australian wool is unchanged in tone and prices. Business is dull and the market is depressed, as the low price of domestic fleeces still keeps foreign wool out of competition to a large extent. The outlook is not promising and importers are still shipping wool back to London for a market. Some was shipped this week to be entered for the sales the last of the month. Carpet wools are dull, but the foreign markets are firm. Importers are not forcing business on the present market, but prefer to keep their wools in bond.

The Salutory Effects of Simmons Liver Regulator upon the system, prostrated by long suffering with dyspepsia, and kindred diseases, is without a precedent. Its tonic, and alterative effects are wonderful.
For a lame back or for a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it on to the affected parts. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

THE PLAYFUL LIGHTNING?
Two East Portlanders Have an Unpleasant Experience.
Charles E. Fields, the East Portland real estate man, and Dan Jackson, the popular liveryman of the other side of the river, had an experience, a day or two ago, which neither of them is anxious to have repeated.
They were coming from Albany by team, and were in the hills south of Salem Tuesday afternoon during the heavy rain storm. The conversation had turned on storms in the East. Jackson had been telling about a man and a horse being struck by lightning and instantly killed, somewhere in Pennsylvania several years ago. Charlie had recounted several stories hinging on the freaks of lightning in Wisconsin, and Jackson had just remarked that it was seldom lightning was seen in this country, when suddenly both were blinded by a flash; the horses dropped on their knees, and Jackson's hat falling off caught on his eyes, which protruded far enough to catch it.
The stroke had evidently fallen in close proximity to them, and, while blinded by the lightning, neither man nor horses were severely shocked. Both men admit they were just a little frightened at their narrow escape, and they had driven a mile and a half before either spoke a word after the narrow escape. This was the first and only lightning flash they saw during the storm, and neither of them told any more stories of terrible storms on the trip home.—Telegram.

Get the Wrong Man.
Officer Quinton, of the Third-street squad, saw a man acting in a most peculiar manner this morning near Morrison street. The fellow was dancing a sort of wierd jig, and gesticulating in a violent manner. His tongue seemed to work at the wrong end as the officer collared him. "It's a dom foine jag yer hev on yez; kom wid me," said Captain Quinton. The prisoner acted as though he was a contortionist and came near wriggling away from the officer, when a barber near by stepped up and informed the officer that the fellow had the St. Vitus' dance, and the latter was released. The officer, in a puzzled manner, asked the barber "fwhere the devil did that mon get his whosky?"—Dispatch.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.
From the Troy (Kan.) Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial but to let our readers know what is good to keep handy in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Strength and Health.
If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "la grippe" has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.
