THE DALLES OREGON

UNDER THE WEATHER.

Those outside of a palace may feel Shakespeare's sentiment: "There's such divinity doth hedge a king!" but it is hardly possible to those inside. One of the Scotch commissioners to negotiate a union between Scotland and England, Sir John Clerk, could not have felt it during an official interview with Queen Anne, of whom he gives this realistic picture:

"Her majesty was laboring under a fit of the gout, and in extreme pain and agony, and on this occasion everything about her was much in the same disorder as about the meanness of her subjects. Her face, which was red and spotted, was rendered something frightful by her negligent dress, and the foot affected was tied up with a pulvis and some nasty bandages.

"I was much affected at this sight, and the more when she had occasion to mention her people of Scotland, which she did frequently to the duke. What are you, poor mean-like mortal, thought I, who talks in the style of a sovereign!

"Nature seems to be inverted when a poor infirm woman becomes one of the rulers of the world; but, as Tacitus observes, it is not the first time that women have governed in Britain, and indeed they have sometimes done this to better purpose than the men." — Youth's Companion.

A suit of clothes made of the skins of one hundred and twenty-five snakes is worn on holiday occasions by "Battlesnake Pete," one of the cowboys who recently took part in the race from Nebraska to Chicago. The buttons on his coat are gold-mounted rattlesnake heads.

Dr. Brewer of Greenbrier county, W. Va., is the father of fifteen children, whose names all begin with the letter L and end with a vowel. The children's names are Ledona, Lavira, Livigna, Lorena, Lyceia, Lualzo, Lenacy, Laccia, Ladura, Leonida, Launo, Lydabo, Lomega, Lenida and Leslie.

The Salutory Effects of Simmons Liver Regulator upon the system, prostrated by long suffering with dyspepsia, and kindred diseases, is without a precedent. Its tonic, and alterative effects are wonderful.

La Grippe.
During the prevalence of the grippé the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klikitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
