peaches it has been our pleasure to see this year. They are uniformly large and of delicious flavor. While sampling them, the question arises: Why is it not as easy to raise all peaches of good variety, instead of, as is often the case, to nourish trees bearing inferior fruit? There is a pool of water in front of Second street, on the bed of Mill creek which is liable to cause some annoyance. It receives the water from one of the sewers and as the outlet is not very good the sewerage has accumulated and made quite a lake. Stagnant water and especially sewerage is a menace to health that cannot be overlooked.

PERSONAL MENTION.
 Hon. Zera Snow, a lawyer of Portland, is in the city today.
 Mr. J. T. Peters went to Stevenson on this morning's boat.
 Mr. Alex. MacLeod went to Grants on last night's passenger.
 Rev. Mr. Whisler of the Methodist church left by boat for Portland this morning.
 Mr. W. E. Garretson took the Regulator for Cascade Locks this morning, where he goes on a business trip.
 The condition of Mr. W. S. Myers is reported as much improved today and the gentleman will soon be able to attend to business.
 A party consisting of the Misses Anne and Bess Lang and Miss Eaton, of Portland, left by the Regulator this morning for a few days stay at Cloud Cap Inn.

SEPTEMBER SHORTS.
 City and County News Notes of Minor Importance.
 A bonnet on my choicest chair,
 With gay tall lilies that women wear;
 A scent of roses by my where,
 A merry voice that makes me dream
 Of bird and flower and sunlit stream
 And new mown hay and curled cream.
 My prints and slippers laid away,
 My prints adorned with ribbons gay,
 The faintest smile comes back to stay,
 A little hand that strokes my hair.
 A well-loved face—all fresh and fair,
 With sunny freckles here and there,
 Forewell late hours and frolic vain,
 No more a bachelor I reign.
 For Maude is back in town again.
 —Puck.

The Methodist church was decorated Sunday in honor of the return of its pastor, Mr. Whisler. The pulpit was hid in floral profusion, while over the pulpit were the words "Welcome to Our Pastor" in large gilt letters. Mr. Whisler has just been returned by the late conference and this was his first Sunday in the new year of appointment. The congregation are to be congratulated in having so able a minister for their pastor.

BORN.
 September 21st, 1893, to the wife of Mr. J. W. Pennington, a son.
 In The Dalles, Sept. 26th, to the wife of James E. Steel, a daughter.
DIED.
 On Mill creek, near The Dalles, Sept. 25th, Andrew Clemens, infant son of M. J. and Alensia Spielinger, aged one year and 10 months. Funeral will take place from the Catholic church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.
A Pleasant Party.
 A very pleasant party was given by Dr. and Mrs. Hollister last evening in honor of Miss Mattie Hollister. A large crowd of The Dalles best young people filled the parlor of the hospitable residence and passed a pleasant evening in playing whist, interspersed by music and conversation. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess after which the prizes were announced. The score cards were daintily gotten up and were novel in conception. They were made from birch bark gathered by Miss Hollister while in Michigan this summer. The prizes of the evening were very tasty. The head young lady's prize was a pearl handle gold pen and the young gentleman's a copy of the "Bridge of the Gods" from the pen of that brilliant and too early lamented young author, Rev. F. H. Balch, who died a year or two ago at Hood River.

Dr. E. G. Sanders has moved from his hill residence down on to Fourth street, between Lincoln and Liberty.
 The rock crusher began operations yesterday at 3:30 o'clock and by 6 had a goodly pile ready for hauling.
 Desirable residence property for rent is very scarce in the city. Inquiries are made daily for good dwellings that are for rent.
 After 8 o'clock tomorrow night the city water will be shut off all night on the bluff, to allow time to clean the reservoir.
 Evans, Kelly, Cohn and Shire, the Portland prize fighters, were sentenced $1,000 each, and have appealed to the supreme court.
 The second trial of the case of Telito vs. Samantha Fox for assault is progressing at a slow pace before Justice Schutz this afternoon.
 There is quite a quantity of wheat stored on the Regulator wharf which is being held till enough has been secured for a boat load. Active shipments will soon commence.
 The next annual meeting of the Columbia River Conference will be held in The Dalles in September, 1894. The conference is always presided over by a bishop of the church.
 A stranger in the city who has travelled over the coast considerably, says that The Dalles has fewer vacant houses than any city which he has yet visited. This is true. Those houses which are vacant are generally undesirable.

Let the Good Work Go On.
 Some days ago we published an item calling the attention of the city officials to the spread of thistles. The next day the thistles on the place mentioned were promptly cut down, which fact we were glad to see. But it does little good to remove the thistle from one portion when it is surrounded on all sides by a heavy growth. There are several more blocks along Second and Third streets which are covered with the weed and should be removed. We hope prompt action will result and that THE CHRONICLE will not again need to call attention to the matter.

MILITARY MEN AND MATTERS.
 THE mercantile and armed natives of the world have 1,593,000 seamen.
 Or the seven full generals who were in the confederate army none are now living.
 The Pennsylvania national guard will not visit the world's fair, but will hold the usual state encampment.
 The officers of the Swedish navy are considered as military officers, and in full dress are obliged to wear spurs.
 DR. DELAVAN BLOODGOOD, U. S. N., who became widely known on account of his striking resemblance to the late James G. Blaine, is to be retired in August.
 THE big cruiser Philadelphia is off for a three years' cruise. When she reaches the western coast of South America she will receive orders sending her to Honolulu or Samoa.
 WHEN the new minister to Germany, Mr. Theodore Runyon, presented himself to the court of Berlin with his credentials, he dazzled beholders by appearing arrayed in the uniform of major general of the New Jersey national guards.

The Regulator took a large load of freight down the river this morning. Dalles industries were well represented. Several tons of Diamond Mills flour occupied a good portion of the boat. Mr. A. A. Bonney shipped three wagon loads of hogs and other freight made up a full list.
 Mr. A. C. Stanford, whose ranch is situated near Wamic, reports an excellent yield of wheat. From off fifty acres he obtained over 2,000 bushels, all of it of fine quality. Crops along Juniper Flat are uniformly good and with anything like a fair price our farmers would see their pocketbooks fatten.
 Mr. A. Winans has presented THE CHRONICLE with a box of the finest

The Luckless Inland Star.
 The ill fated steamer Inland Star still pursues her mad career of misfortune and disaster. She is now high and dry on the beach west of Mill Creek with daylight creeping through the seams. Several suits are entered against the boat and she will probably have to be sold. The investment was an unfortunate one and was so conceded at the time it was made by those whose experience gave weight to their opinion.
Wood! Wood! Wood!
 Best quality fir, oak and slab wood. Leave orders at 133 Second street or corner Third and Union. All orders promptly attended to.

THE MARKETS.
Conditions Generally Improving—The Wheat Supply of the World.
 TUESDAY, September 26—There is a marked improvement in business; in jobbing lines there is a better inquiry. The grocery and provision trade has assumed its usual activity with enlarged orders from the interior, and dealers are wearing a smile instead of the blanched countenance of the past few months. Prices continue steady in merchandise, and also in groceries and provisions. There is no change to note in country produce. Eggs are scarce still and the market is firm at 18 to 20 cents per dozen. The market is stocked up with all kinds of vegetables and prices are nominal with the exception of cabbage, which were sold yesterday at one cent per pound.
 The fruit market is steady and deliveries are large for shipment to Sound and mountain markets. The Earl consignments were unsatisfactory to shippers and they are resorting to other means for disposal which is meeting with more favor.
 The grain market has undergone no change that has given any encouragement to the producer. The published reports which has been accorded to agricultural bureaus that the world's product was the shortest known for years, now seems to be all a great mistake and really the harvest for 1893 is large, and the reported deficiency to be made up is not well founded. Those who seem to know of the true situation of the world's supply and demand, say there is no reason for builded hopes for an advance above nominal quotations on the present product of breadstuffs. Just as soon as a firm tone is cabled from Europe a slight advance is experienced in American markets and in every case buyers have subsided to some shady nook, there to lie in wait for a decline, which follows in quick succession. This has been the result and is expected to continue so in a measure, during the season.

Cleveland's Arraignment.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Senator Stewart began by referring to the recent centennial anniversary of the laying of the corner-stone of the capitol, when, he said, the president, with more than 100,000 high-paid government offices to bestow, with a veto power designed only for extraordinary occasions, backed by concentrated capital and a "venal press," turning to the senate wing, declared in menacing tones that if the representatives there assembled legislated in passion or prejudice or in behalf of sectional or selfish interests, the time when the corner-stone was laid or the circumstances surrounding it were not worth commemorating. This sentiment was cheered by a thoughtless multitude, and construed by a venal press as a rebuke from the president to the guilty venal senate. Stewart then quoted from the history of England as to the parliamentary struggle with the Stuarts. Coming to the present time, he charged that the president, in disregard of his oath of office, allowed the secretary of the treasury to violate the act which made the purchase of 4,500,000 ounces of silver per month mandatory, by exercising an unlawful discretion in purchasing a smaller amount. Stewart declared that at no time since Charles I. in either England or the United States, had any king or president openly and defiantly disobeyed a statute which he himself had declared mandatory, or allowed his subordinates to do the same thing. Was it not time to sound an alarm? If constitutional liberty was of any value, all should stand up and say to the president: "You have overstepped the mark; we cannot afford to have the laws of congress disregarded."

"A Talented Editor."
 During the coming months, or the heated period, those who are traveling or contemplating a trip away from home should read the following letter from a brilliant and well known editor and provide themselves against attacks of headache and dizziness:
 GENTLEMEN:—I had occasion to use several boxes of Krause's Headache Capsules while traveling to Chicago to attend the National Democratic Convention. They acted like a charm in preventing headaches and dizziness. Have had very little headache since my return, which is remarkable. Yours respectfully,
