THE DALLES OREGON

A Valuable Lantern.

A will written with a pencil on a shingle was once admitted to probate in the United States. The author of "Gossip of the Century" tells a story still more curious. Two British soldiers, comrades, while talking over the chances of war on the eve of a battle, agreed that whichever of them survived the other should inherit all his possessions. To insure the carrying out of their agreement, they made their wills. As paper and pens were not at hand, they scratched their "last will and testament" on a horn lantern with a rusty nail. The battle was fought, and one of the comrades was killed. The other man, in course of time, returned to England, carrying with him the singular document. He took it to Doctors' Commons, where it was proved and allowed. Then it appeared that the poor fellow who had died in battle had, without hearing of it, inherited property yielding two hundred pounds a year, and the legatee under the horn-lantern will received the inheritance.

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

THE DALLES

Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS.

The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

SHOE FACTORY

For Sale at a Bargain.

The undersigned, having secured the machinery and fixtures of what was intended for a first-class shoe factory, will sell the same at a bargain. Here is an engine and boiler of 40-odd horse power, and a large amount of shoe machinery, lasts, line shafting, pulleys, belting and findings—almost a complete shoe factory.

Here is also one of the best sites for successfully operating a factory of this kind to be found in this country.
