SEPTEMBER SHORTS.

City and County News Notes of Minor Importance.

"Man wants but little here below."
You've heard the tale before.
No matter what he has, you know,
He wants a little more.

The Oregon Press Association goes to Hood River Saturday.

The city water on the bluff will be shut off after 8 o'clock this evening during the night.

Carpenters are at work putting up an awning in front of the St. Louis photography on Second street.

The Regulator will make a fare of 50 cents for the round trip to Hood River and return Friday and Saturday.

There will be a social given by the ladies of the Congregational church next Wednesday evening. The place of holding will be announced later.

The largest apple on exhibition in The Chronicle window came from the orchard of Mr. Coatsworth. He informs us that he picked nine bushels of them from one tree.

Mr. H. G. Jordan brought in some corn today, raised twelve miles south of Sherar's bridge. It is of the ear variety and has fine large ears and very thrifty-looking stalks.

Four wheat wagons made a procession down Second street today. They were heavily loaded and were bound for the Regulator wharf for shipment. The greater part belonged to Mr. H. Rice.

The first dance of the Mignonette club will be given at 8:30 this evening in Fraternity hall. It is desired that all should be there promptly at 8:30, as the music has been ordered at that time.

The Chinamen's worst enemy these days is the steam wood saw. It is busy sawing cord wood all over town, and as steam can work faster and cheaper than muscle the Chinaman has a poor show in competition.

The Oregonian facetiously remarks that the most distinguished citizen is its rock crusher and so it is. If it fulfills all anticipations its popularity will exceed that of any of the political candidates at the June election.

The jury in the case of State of Oregon vs. Samantha Fox brought in a verdict of guilty last evening. The case has occupied the attention of the court for several days and entailed an expense on the county, and it is to be hoped it is finally settled.

Mr. I. H. Taffe, of the Cello cannery, was in town this morning and reported the catch of salmon as fairly good. The run in the last few days is better than the preceding ones, and Mr. Taffe expects it to continue better for the next two weeks. As there were no fish in the earlier part of the season it is necessary that the deficit should be made up now in order to insure a profit.

The Portland Industrial Exposition begins in Portland today. It promises to be unusually attractive this year.
We have not heard what kind of an exhibit Wasco county products will make but they have an acknowledged superiority in every place they are shown.

Mr. J. W. Winters, who met with the misfortune of a loss of some fine horses on the train wreck this side of Blalock a short time ago, has succeeded in effecting a satisfactory settlement with the U. P. R. R. company and will return to his home in Prineville in a few days.

The Regulator took away 385 sacks of wheat this morning and 600 boxes of fruit and vegetables. There yet remains quite a quantity of wheat on the dock ready for shipment and more will come in from now on. The business of the boat line has increased materially in value the last few days.

Large audiences continue to attend the revival at the Christian church.
One made confession at the close of the sermon last night. The subject of unusual interest this evening is "Heart-felt Religion—What Is It, and How Obtained?" Come and hear what this church teaches upon this important subject.

The adjutant general has appointed a committee consisting of Lieut.-Col.
Geo. T. Thompson, Major W. S. Bowers and First Lieut. H. H. Riddell to meet at Baker City Oct. 5th and examine the qualifications of Isador Fuchs, captain-elect F company, and W. H. Ellis, second lieutenant F company, Third regiment, O. N. G., stationed at Baker City.

Exterminating a Muskrat Colony.

On Eight Mile, near Endersby, there is a colony of muskrats swimming up and down that stream. These little fur-bearing animals seldom take up their abode in Eastern Oregon. The trapper finds them very smart. He set three steel traps and soon after going to look after them found all three sprung with a muskrat foot in each one. He is a heroic little fellow and when he finds he is caught goes right to work and gnaws off his foot and is free. This wouldn't do for the hunter, so he weights his traps and now when caught at once pulls the trap out in deep water and is drowned.
Nearly all of this little colony has been captured. A Sen.

Nearly Completed.

J. H. Thatcher, secretary of the Oregon division, writes to C. B. Hopkins, of the Washington end of the Spokane and Portland telephone line, that on the night of the 25th construction gangs had about four miles of holes to dig, six and a half miles of poles to set, and eight miles of wire to string to reach Portland. It is believed that in four or five days through telephonic connection will be had between Portland and Spokane over the new line.

tion, or money refunded. Price 25 cents ersly.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. H. Moore of Biggs is in the city.
Mr. J. L. Thompson has gone to Cascade Locks.

Alex. Fargher is registered at the Umatilla from Portland.

Hugh Glenn returned from Portland last evening on the Regulator.

Mrs. A. C. Phelps went home to Collins Landing by boat this morning.

Miss Emma Fisher, who has been visiting friends here, returned home today.

Miss Helen Teal from Portland came up on the Regulator yesterday and returned this morning.

Misses Clara and Etta Story returned last evening from a summer vacation spent at the coast and in the Willamette valley.

Miss Lange, who has been visiting the family of Mr. Geo. Liebe, returned on the Regulator this morning to her home in Portland.

Mrs. Peter Pequette of Oregon City came up on the passenger train last night and is visiting her niece, Mrs. W.
E. Garretson.

Mr. J. O'Leary, a prominent sheep man of Wasco county, has left with his family for Montana, where he will engage in business.

Mr. A. J. Anderson was a passenger on the Regulator for Portland and the Sound. He has shipped a car load of fruit, which he will dispose of in Tacoma.

Mr. Joseph Story, a merchant of Boston, Mass., and a nephew of the great jurist of the same name, came up on the Regulator last evening. He is making a tour of the west, and expresses himself charmed with the beautiful scenery along the Columbia river and elsewhere.
This morning he took the boat for Hood River, where he will spend a day and then return east over the Canadian Pacific. He made THE CHRONICLE a call.

School for Deaf Mutes.

We have thirty-seven pupils now and know of four more who will soon be here. In numbers we will break the record this year again. But we are sad because others are not here who should be here. We have no ambition to be record breakers, but we do want every deaf child to be educated so that he may become an intelligent responsible citizen. This is the Oregon school for deaf mutes and we wish all parents of deaf children to know of it. The state offers an education to all deaf boys and girls who are capable of receiving it, provided their parents will let them have the opportunity. Parents are not to blame because their children are bereft of hearing, but if those children are doomed to live dark, ignorant, blighted lives because they were not allowed to go to school, then we have no hesitation in saying that a great sin lies at the parents' door. It is a misfortune to be deaf, but it is a terrible affliction to have a parent who is blind to his child's best interests, deaf to the mute appeals of an imprisoned intellect, and dumb when called upon to explain his cruel negligence.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kan.) Chief.
Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial but to let our readers know what is good to keep handy in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Eugene Letter.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 25, 1893.

TO THE CHRONICLE
The heavy rains of the past few weeks have done some damage to the grain in this county, but reports say it is not serious. The same financial stringency exists here as elsewhere. There is plenty of money here but it is held on to with a firmness that will not be relaxed till general confidence gives place to political uncertainty.

Fruit of all kinds is higher here than east of the mountains. Watermelons are shipped here from Jackson county.
What a pity the orchardists of The Dalles cannot realize fair prices on their excellent fruits. Is it due to lack of proper distribution?

Large loads of baled hops are coming into town ready for shipment. Though an important factor here, the hop industry does not even approximate the commercial importance in Eugene that the woolen industry does at The Dalles.

In spite of the rambling incoherencies of the senate, business circles of this place have been brightening up considerably the past ten days. Probably this is largely due, yet not generally so conceded, to the arrival of the scores of students who come, in some cases, accompanied by their parents, from all parts of the state to attend the state university. This school opened its doors on the 18th inst., free to all young Oregonians who can fulfill its requirements.
At the inauguration of the new president, Charles H. Chapman, Ph. D., the friendly touch of other schools was manifested by the presence of President Bloss of the Corvallis Agricultural college and President Campbell of Monmouth college, besides other prominent educational men. There was a brief feeling of sadness among the university friends, when the chair was vacated by Prof. J. W. Johnson to whose administration the success of this school for the past seventeen years has been largely due. But this feeling immediately gave place to hope when President Chapman gave his address. He is a young man of superior executive ability, and is introducing some valuable features that are needed to put the O. S. U. apace with eastern universities. Its possibilities are many: its future promising.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results.
