SEPTEMBER SHORTS.

City and County News Notes of Minor Importance.

I worshipped at her feet.
Yet rue the day,
I realized not then How cold are they.

The Oregon Press Association meets in Pendleton next year.

Hood River has to entertain 175 editors today, who arrived this morning.

Mr. W. L. Ward threshed an average of 18 1/2 bushels per acre from a large field of volunteer wheat this fall.

The citizens of Centerville are discussing plans for inducing the location of a large mercantile store at that place.

The enrollment of the public schools in the city for September is 440. This is the largest for the corresponding month in the history of the city.

The Union Pacific has withdrawn from the Western Passenger Association, and it is confidently expected that the fur will fly in the matter of rates.

Mr. D. C. Herrin will take a snap shot at the steamer Regulator tomorrow afternoon about 3 o'clock and a large passing list is expected on that occasion.

The case of the State vs. Wm. Watson was given to the jury at 11:30 this morning. At last reports they are still out. The case went to the jury without argument.

A young man sent $1 to a firm of swindlers in New York to learn how to make money without work. He received a card on which was printed:
"Fish for suckers the same as we do."

Nothing is more uncertain than what a railroad company will do. After deciding on some plan of action the slightest caprice will throw them off. This makes it very disagreeable for reporters, who, when they announce some coming event, like to see it gone through with.

At the present session of the Oregon Press Association a resolution was offered by J. B. Eddy that all newspapers in the state in referring to Chinese or Mongolian pheasants hereafter designate them as Denny pheasants, in honor of O. N. Denny, to whom the honor of importing them is due.

The young gentlemen of the city have organized a dancing club to be known as the Chrysanthemum club, and have secured the Schanno hall and will give the first social on Friday evening next.
They have arranged for the best music in the city, and have perfected plans for a successful series of winter's entertainments.

The following persons were elected directors of the Wasco Independent academy for the ensuing year at the stockholders' meeting today: Robert Mays, B. F. Laughlin, J. B. Condon, D.

M. French, H. H. Riddell, Geo. A.
Liebe and Smith French. The board organized by electing R. Mays president and H. H. Riddell secretary.

The recent rain has been of great benefit, not resulting, as feared, in any loss to wheat. On the contrary, it has made the roads good and started up the grass so as to make fine pasture. In fields where the grain has been cut, the volunteer wheat has grown to the height of the stubble, making excellent feed for cattle, horses and sheep.

Early in the season THE CHRONICLE spoke of the Columbia River Fruit Company, and especially the vineyards of the company. Harvest time comes around, fulfilling the prediction then made as to the yield, and practical demonstration as to quality is found in a box of the most luscious grapes ever grown, with which Rev. O. D. Taylor has kindly remembered the editor.

We are reliably informed that at the last moment a hitch occurred among the railway officials, so that the trains, confidently expected to resume tomorrow, will not materialize. It is caused from some dissatisfaction in the upper country over the time of their arrival. It is thought that the trouble will cause nothing more than delay, and that Nos. 5 and 6 will be running again soon, by which numbers they are hereafter to be known, instead of 7 and 8, as formerly.

Anyone in this glorious country of free schools ignorant enough to ask "What part of Washington is Oregon in?" while taking in the world's fair is not a desirable candidate for an immigrant. Oregon has been represented in the map of every child's geography for over sixty years, and if she hasn't so large an exhibit as Washington it don't excuse their ignorance. We repeat: We don't want them, we have enough native ignorance of our own.

R. H. Webber, the well-known Dalles nurseryman, informs the Sentinel that seedling apples are by no means a novelty in the horticultural world. He says that Mr. Jewett of White Salmon has seedling apple trees in his orchard that must be nine years old. Mr. Webber has raised them in his nursery for the past three years, and has at present probably 5,000 young trees of this variety; but the quality of the fruit of any ever seen by Mr. Webber, his own included, is considered by him of a second rate.

Officers Elected.

The election of officers of the Oregon Press Association for the ensuing year resulted in the election of the following: President—Ira L. Campbell, Guard, Eugene.

First vice-president—Leo Peterson, Commercial Review, Portland.

Second vice-president—Mrs. W. J. Ply-male, Times, Jacksonville.

Secretary—Albert Tozier, Pacific Farmer, Portland.

Treasurer—C. C. Doughty, Observer, Dallas.

Executive committee—E. L. E. White, Chronicle, East Portland; W. A.
Wheeler, Odd Fellows, Portland; John R. Beegle, Independent, Hillside.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required.
It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Snipes & Kin-ersly.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Sherar of Des Chutes are in the city today.

Miss Gertrude French is up from Portland, visiting with her parents.

Mrs. G. V. Bolton and children returned from Long Beach last evening.

Hon. Robert Mays arrived today from Antelope. He says the rains have not injured the wheat.

Miss Jeannette Williams departed for Portland on the steamer Regulator this morning. She was accompanied by Misses Maie Williams, Matilda Hol-liester and Jennie Marden, who will spend Sunday in that city.

Mr. L. Burham returned last evening from an extended visit among relatives in Iowa, and was accompanied by an uncle, Mr. B. F. Burham, who visits the great northwest for the purpose of advising himself of its resources, and having in view of a selection of a location for a home. Mr. L. Burham has been absent seven weeks from The Dalles and during his absence and seeing much of the great U. S. domain, returns feeling more contented than ever with his western home.
He speaks of the depression in the east as much more serious than it is on the Pacific coast, and dullness in business excites that of our own city.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Columbia—J. A. Nicholson, C. Rerg, H.
Jackson and wife, E. McMiller, Frank Hayleton, W. D. Bodyfelt, Frank Bult, Joseph Ynot, Portland; C. J. Buffington, Kansas; Andrew Prather, R. Densmore, J. McClure, Mosier; T. H. Lurns, C. Hook, T. Jacks, Cascade Locks; Wm Howard and wife, J. Burmollion, Nebraska; Mrs.
A. J. Walker and 3 children, Arlington; Dan Crendergash, San Francisco.

Lost a Leg.

Robert Campbell, a young man 22 years old, lost a leg and came very near losing his life on the 28th while working with a threshing crew on the farm of Chas. Weberg, near Wapinitia. The accident happened about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. He was standing on the table of the threshing machine, when by some mischance the empty derrick fork was swung around so that it would hit him. To save life or great injury he dodged it, and in doing so stepped in the revolving cylinder. As a result his leg was crushed and reduced to a pulp as far as the knee. He was removed from his perilous position and Dr. Vanderpool summoned, who amputated the leg above the knee.

In Memoriam.

By R. I. K.

Lines in memory of Andrew Clemence Spelchinger, who departed this life September 25th, 1893:

This lovely bud so young, so fair, Called hence by early doom, Just came to show how sweet a flower In Paradise could bloom.

Eye sin could hate or sorrow fade Death came with friendly care, An opening here to Heaven conveyed,
And bade it blossom there.

Slip on in thy beauty,
Thou sweet angel child,
By sorrow unlighted,
By sin undelivered.

Like the dove to the ark Thou hast flown to thy rest, From the wild sea of strife
To the home of the blest.

All will be bright for him;
Nothing to cause him pain, O. Clemence, our darling child, How could we wish you here again!

NOTHING IN IT.

The Great Advantages Claimed by the Earl Company Chimeraical.

It is time the fruit-growers should understand the results apt to be obtained through shipping with the Earl Fruit company, and for this purpose we reproduce a bill presented to one of our shippers by the company:

27 boxes Bartlett pears @ $1.50 $40.50 5 " Clapps P. " @ 1.35 6.75—$47.25 CHARGES,
Loading $ 54
Freight, refrigerator and icing 20 62 Commission, 10 per cent 4 46—$72.76 Balance to shipper $8.79

The cost of boxes for this shipment amounted to $5.03, leaving the net proceeds to the shipper, for 32 boxes of pears, $3.76, or a trifle more than 11 cents a box. At carload rates, the shipper was charged nearly a dollar per box by the Earl company. Fruit shipped by this company after reaching Green river goes to Chicago by freight. At freight rates from The Dalles, this fruit could have been shipped for 50 cents a box, and by express, which would arrive at Chicago as soon as a letter would, and ahead of the Earl fruit cars, but 90 cents.

In addition the Earl company charges $125 for use of their car. The Union Pacific charges nothing. The Earl Fruit company charges a 10 per cent commission. This is wasted. The Earl company charges high rates for loading. An independent shipper would not be subjected to it. So that in this instance the bill charged by the Earl company for their service is about half as much again as what any fruitgrower would pay independent of their aid.

There is but one way to do, and that is to organize a company at home, when still better rates could be secured than those quoted. We understand the Earl company gets a big reduction, which might as well be extended to the growers here as the Earl Fruit Company.

Brooks-Collins.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Miss Iva Catharine Brooks to Mr.
Eugene J. Collins on October 11th at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Miss Brooks has grown up from childhood in The Dalles, where she is well known. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks, but has lived with them since so early an age as to be nothing less than a daughter. She is blessed with an amiable disposition, is finely accomplished and endowed with every womanly grace.

Mr. Eugene J. Collins arrived in The Dalles less than a year ago, and is thus a stranger to many old residents of the city and county. But he comes with a reputation of the highest possible character, fully borne out in his associations with us in the last several months. Of a good family, possessing a thorough academic and business education, of high moral character, and of courteous bearing, Mr. Collins needs not to have grown up among us to stamp him one of nature's noblemen.

Errors in Print.

Laughable mistakes sometimes occur in newspapers, and indeed in any publication, even the Bible. A heading in last night's CHRONICLE was transposed, "Fun with a Chinaman" being placed over an item about Pease & Mays pumpkin and jar of beans. The same evening the Times-Mountaineer came out saying that Sam Burling had returned from the country, where he had been showing his photograph. It is the part of foolishness for one paper to criticize another about typographical errors, for all are vulnerable on this score.

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr.
King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady.
This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of la grippe, but in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, and has cured cases of asthma and hay fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was the Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results.
