OCTOBER OLIO.

A Savory Mess From Miscellaneous News Bits.

"A woman's will's the will of God," so said the Spanish priest.

Mr. Nes. Simonson has located himself opposite Lauer's fruit store.

The Mignonette club will give a whist party, instead of a dance, in Fraternity hall this evening.

If you know a local news item, tell it to a Chronicle reporter. We desire to publish all the news.

The Junior League will postpone the entertainment and pie social until further notice on account of the death of Walter French.

The funeral of Walter French will take place from the family residence at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. All friends are invited.

John Junk will remove his barber shop from the East End to the building formerly occupied as a restaurant next to W. H. Butts' saloon.

The merry-go-round arrived on the Regulator last evening and will try for attraction at the district fair, which takes place on next Tuesday.

Lessons in painting are to be given by Miss Holcomb Friday afternoon from 1 until 3, at room 7, over Pease & Mays' store. Terms are 50 cents per lesson.

Last night's rain was so heavy that considerable damage was done to grain stacks, those which had been carelessly stacked becoming wet down to the ground.

The petitions which have been circulated throughout the country and signed were returned to THE CHRONICLE office, when they will receive the proper attention.

A number of persons availed themselves of Mr. Herrin's coupon offer of yesterday for a free crayon. The coupon will not appear again and the chance is gone after tomorrow.

Leslie Butler has made arrangements whereby the pears and apples which have dropped on the ground can be utilized, so that the thrifty orchardist will lose nothing on this score.

This city was visited with the heaviest down pour of rain last night that ever was known at this season of the year. It began about eight o'clock and continued till after midnight. The rain gauge recorded 3/4 of an inch.

Judge A. S. Bennett and Prosecuting Attorney Wilson have returned from circuit court at Moro. In the case of Hembree for manslaughter, the defendant was acquitted, and Z. P. Jones, for perjury, was discharged.

The flag is at half mast on the High school building in respect to the memory of Walter French, whose death was announced yesterday.

The expression of grief is very appropriate, as Walter was a prime favorite among his school fellows.

Aamold, as a violinist, is a revelation in his particular field of the musical art, as has been demonstrated to hundreds who have had the good fortune to hear his interpretation of Chopin, Wieniawski and Vieuxtemps.

John Doe, that national scapegoat, is accused of a higher crime than usual today. A trial is being held at Justice Schutz' court this afternoon, wherein John Doe is accused of entering Mrs. Beezley's house the night of October 3rd and appropriating various articles.

The Epworth League has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mr. S. Wenzler, president; Mr. E. J. Collins, first vice-president; Mrs. E. Cross, second vice-president; Mrs. F. Haworth, third vice-president; Miss L. Ruch, fourth vice-president; W. A. Kirby, secretary; Miss Edith Randall, treasurer; Miss L. E. Ruch, organist; John Parrott, chorister.

Four horses came up on the boat last night to make entry for the coming fair. Their names and owners were: Taftly 4 years old, owned by Jerry Young, Prineville; Fanny 2 years, owned by John Thrope of Pendleton; Vigilante and Shakespeare, 2 years old, owned by Mr. Morris of Pendleton. These horses have been on the circuit this year and won some good races.

A character in Hazelton is "Jack" McCarthy, where he runs the daily paper. His advertising methods are original, as well as effectual. He was anxious to get business from a firm that advertised in his field, and wrote soliciting an order for his paper.

Something Wrong Somewhere.

A fruit grower has received a letter from the Earl company requesting him to find about $14 more to put up to the company, after selling his fruit and keeping all the money for expenses, and in case he is out of money, as might reasonably be expected, after paying his help and other expenses from last year's capital, wants him to sign a note for the amount, bearing 8 per cent interest, payable next year in fruit, to be again shipped by the Earl company.

A Veteran Gone.

James Underhill, of Boyd, died at 9 a. m., Thursday, October 4th, 1893. He was born in Devonshire, Eng., February 2d, 1840, coming with his parents to the United States the following year. He was raised in Boston, where he learned the trade of a wheelwright.

Funeral services will be held at his place Saturday afternoon, burial to take place in the Dufur cemetery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. S. A. Byrne is ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. E. M. Wingate left yesterday for Antelope.

Mr. Newt. Burgess of Bake Oven was in the city yesterday.

We regret to learn that Mr. Corson is confined to his bed and in a very unsatisfactory state of health.

Mr. Ed. Williams and Miss Maie Williams were passengers on the Regulator for Portland this morning.

Mr. A. J. Anderson returned last evening from a trip to Tacoma, Wash., where he had gone to attend to the disposal of fruit, etc., which he shipped to that place a couple of weeks ago.

Mrs. J. W. Rigby and daughter, who have been visiting Mr. Christian Nickelsen in this city for several days, are passengers on the steamer Regulator this morning for University Park, where Miss Rigby will attend the university during the academic year.

Mr. Thos. Gavin, brother of Prof. Gavin of our city schools, returned to Portland this morning, having been a visitor of the professor for the past few days. Mr. Gavin will, on his return home, take a run to the world's fair and visit his old home, which he has not seen for seven years.

Digestion the Great Secret of Life.

Simmons' Liver Regulator is the only medicine that relieved me after suffering five years with dyspepsia, sick headache and constipation.

GEORGE S. AYRES, Delaplaine Sta., Va.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Beneke, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

THE SEEDLESS APPLE AGAIN.

An Entertaining Account of Its Origin and Subsequent History.

EDITOR CHRONICLE.—As there seems to be considerable interest taken in the "seedless apple subject" by the CHRONICLE household, I will throw what little light I can on the question. I have had for the past eighteen years a stock of what is known as the seedless apple. This apple originated in Virginia, and the old parent tree was living and healthy about fifteen years ago and was then 75 years old.

A Letter From Mr. Mosier.

MR. EDITOR: I see in your paper that the jury failed to agree in the case of the state vs. Wm. Watson for tearing down J. H. Mosier's fence, he supposing it to be obstructing the county road, which can be proven it is not and never did. When he hitched his team to my fence and pulled down fifteen yards of it he knew he threw open seven hundred acres of land, besides letting my sheep all get together. Consequently my ewes will lamb in January and the lambs will be a total loss. I wish to state that this fence has been built for thirty-five years and I never knew there was a law to uphold any man in tearing or pulling down a fence on a person's own property.
