KILLED HIS MISTRESS

The Murderer Then Blew His Own Brains Out.

A TRAGEDY IN STOCKTON, CAL.

Incendiaries in La Grande-Pallas, the Anarchist, Shot in the Back.

STOCKTON, Cal., Oct. 6.—A Portuguese named Al Rogers attempted to murder his mistress, a French girl named Alice Tifare, shooting her twice in the head, also inflicting wounds with the butt of the pistol. She will die. He then shot himself through the brain.

The La Grande Fire.

LA GRANDE, Or., Oct. 6.—While returning home last night, Olsen, the miller of the Alliance Flouring Company, heard a man whistle and run along the platform of the Hamilton-Rourke elevator, also one inside the building. His suspicions were aroused, and he notified Titcomb, the agent, who accompanied the marshal to the elevator. Mischief was evidently intended, for the door was unlocked and open. Some advanced the theory it was an incendiary, on account of the fire of Wednesday, but nothing proved this idea. Others thought it was robbery, the robbers supposing money to be kept there. There is no clew to the men.

The heaviest losers of Wednesday night are: A. B. Conley, 25,000 bushels; J. L. Caviness, 1,500 bushels, no insurance; Pacific Coast Elevator Company, a few thousand bushels left from last season. The fire is believed to have been incendiary. There was no fire inside the building for 24 hours. They will not rebuild soon.

Shot in the Back.

BARCELONA, Oct. 6.—Pallas, the anarchist who September 24th made an attempt on the life of Captain-General Martinez Campos by throwing two bombs at him, was shot at 8 o'clock this morning, according to the sentence of the court-martial which tried him. From first to last he refused the ministrations of the priests, sneered at their exhortations, laughed at their pictures of the future state of the unrepentant, and marched to the place of execution singing an anarchist song, as if to drown the words of the holy fathers of the church who walked by his side. The execution took place in an enclosure near the castle of Monjuich. A large body of troops with small arms formed three sides of a square facing the death wall, against which Pallas was placed. Outside the line of troops crowds of people gathered, though not so great as it would have been but for the fact that the place of execution was not announced in advance, with a view to prevent an opportunity to Pallas' anarchist friends from plotting a dynamite outrage in connection with it. The preliminaries arranged, the firing squad were drawn up, with gun loaded. Pallas was placed against the wall, his back to the firing squad, a sharp order was given, the guns came to the shoulder, and as the commanding officer's sword flashed downward a volley rang out, and Pallas fell forward dead. Then the body was lifted up, the troops marched away and all was over.

Northern Pacific Train Robbers.

TACOMA, Oct. 5.—The fight with Northern Pacific train robbers resulted in the capture of three men and the killing of the other. This occurred Wednesday night about 10 o'clock, near Java, the second station on the Great Northern line west of Summit Rocks. After the robbers had left a cabin near the summit, a posse of 85 men closed around them. The robbers pushed westward, no doubt with hopes of crossing the Rockies and escaping into the Flathead country. When the posse at Java sighted the robbers, the latter were ordered to surrender. They refused and the officers opened fire. The robber killed was John Chipman. Ben Hall, alias Mattocks, is shot through the thigh and not expected to live.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a cough remedy is intended for use among children. I have known of cases of croup where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J. LaGrange, druggist, Avoca, Neb. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

A collision occurred on the Louisville & Nashville railroad on the 6th at Gethsemane, Ky., in which two trainmen were instantly killed.

Mrs. Cleveland is out again and has so far recovered that she takes an occasional drive with the president. The baby, too, is doing well.

"White Rose," wife of "White Bull," chief of the Iroquois tribe of Indians, while riding in a race on the fair grounds at Berwick, Pa., was thrown against the railing enclosing the track and received fatal injuries.

Three burglars were discovered by two policemen in the act of robbing a store at Grand Island, Neb. The thieves opened fire, wounding Policeman Joseph Smith in the leg. The officers returned the fire, killing one burglar.

Advices report that Chili is sending 400 cavalry horses, eight Krupp guns and 10,000 Mannlicher rifles to Bolivia. This is taken to indicate an alliance hostile to Peru, the two countries—Chili and Bolivia—believing that in her present straits Brazil could not lend a helping hand to Peru.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

The financial depression has caused a cancellation of theatrical companies contemplating a Pacific coast tour.

The county fair at Chehalis has thus far been a failure on account of the rain, which set in the first of the week. Had it not been for this untoward circumstance the fair would probably have exceeded any of those held in former years.

The opal fields on Burnt river near the farm of Mrs. Eugene Smith are attracting considerable attention and the precious stones found there carry the fine and variegated colors that make the Mexican opal so valuable. Several persons are prospecting the fields and with good success.

The quiet little city of Lebanon has been thrown into excitement over the shooting of Andrew Vail by himself. Vail says he shot himself accidentally as he went to scale the fence, but the general opinion is that it was a premeditated case of suicide. The cause assigned is that he was jealous of his wife.

One of the most prominent lager beer saloon-keepers in Portland stated to a Telegram man that within the past six months the retail sale of beer in Portland had dropped 50 per cent. This he attributes to the involuntary idleness of a small army of laboring men, who, he alleges, are the largest percentage of beer consumers.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Beneing, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

THEY LOST THE WRONG MEN.

It Was Only the Good Sailors Who Deserted the Foreign Boats.

The number of desertions that actually occurred while the foreign ships of war were here has not been published, but since no complaint has been heard from the commanders generally the number cannot have been large. Down at Old Point Comfort, just as the ships were weighing anchor to move up to this city, a reporter of the New York Sun asked the captain of one of the English ships how many men he lost in Virginia.

"Only four, sir," said the captain, "but they were the wrong four. When we dropped anchor here I called up a number of men that I had had my eyes on for a long time, and I said to them: 'Look here, I said, you're a bad lot. You're always making trouble aboard ship. I'll tell you what I'll do with you. I'll give you five shillings apiece if you'll cut and run when you go ashore here.'"

"That's what I said to them, but they're with me yet. You can't get rid of bad pennies like them. They'd rather stay and stir up mischief. It's the good men that we lost, and more of them take French leave in New York. It's the ambitious, push-ahead fellows who think they'll get to be Vanderbilts if they have half a chance—those are the kind that turn up missing every time."

The South American Hammock.

Picturesque as the hammock is, it can hardly be said to be popular in this latitude, even when the heats of summer commend its use. This arises partly from the fact that the hammock commonly sold is not made upon scientific principles. The South American hammock is twice as broad and half as long again as any one sees upon lawns and piazzas hereabouts. When properly swung this large hammock enables the tallest man, by taking a diagonal position, to lie straight and almost level, with the head slightly elevated. To lie thus in such a hammock is to insure safe and comfortable sleep.

WILLIAM F. HARRITY, the chairman of the democratic national committee, has not taken a holiday for ten years.

PRIVATE SECRETARY LANDIS, Secretary Gresham's right-hand man—who sits on his left, however, by the window—enjoys the confidence of his chief to an unusual degree, even among statesmen who know how to put a private secretary to the greatest possible use.
