The Louisiana storm is one of the most deplorable casualties that ever occurred in our country, only equalled by the tidal wave at Lisbon over a century ago.

Give Ellis a chance. There are a few papers in the state finding fault with our new representative for not introducing new measures.

Somebody, a little cranky, says that the Oregon Press Association elected a Portland real estate dealer for its president.

While it would be a good thing to dispense with a share of our Chinese population, it would be wiser to adopt a preventative measure whereby our ports will be closed to immigration yet more undesirable.

The district fair begins tomorrow. While the times are harder than for many years, the best economy will be to patronize it liberally, both by your presence and in the matter of exhibits.

An Astoria minister said there was a place in heaven for all murderers, and the Herald man frets about it considerably. He says: If all the murderers go straight to Abraham's bosom, as the Astoria agents of the Lord say they will, then the editor proposes to immigrate to the other place.

MEN OF AMERICA.

GEN. GRANT once declined to serve as president of the Panama Canal company, with a salary of $25,000, because he thought its scheme impracticable.

JULIUS STERLING MORTON is a graduate of the University of Michigan, class of 1878. He was private secretary to Lewis Cass before moving to Nebraska.

FOINNEY MELHORN, of Smithfield township, Jefferson county, O., sixty-five years old, has finished plowing thirty acres of land, using a team of horses, each of which is thirty years old. The man and horses finished fresh.

DAVID H. SMITH, son of the Mormon prophet, Joseph Smith, has been an inmate of the asylum for the insane at Elgin, Ill., for seventeen years. He was a brilliant man and has written a book of poems and one of psalms, the latter being now in use.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good."

House for Rent. Six-room house to rent. Centrally located. Apply to H. GLENN.

PERSONAL MENTION.

JOHN L. HERRICK, of Salisbury, N. C., is ninety years old and weighs two hundred and thirty pounds.

CHARLES MONROE, still living in Kings county, N. Y., invented the "monkey" wrench. He sold his patent for two thousand dollars.

LUKE SMITH, of Acton, Mass., is perhaps the only man living whose father fought at Bunker Hill. Mr. Smith was in the rebellion himself, and is eighty.

LUCY'S LANGDON NICHOLAS, who has just married Mrs. Bishop, mother of the late mind reader of that name, is said to be great-grandson of a Russian emperor.

DAVID S. PATTERSON, of North Platte, Neb., who is seventy-five years of age and has been totally blind all his life, has received letters patent on a device in the driving gear of a locomotive.

The executors of the estate of the late Mrs. Theresa Fair, of San Francisco, intend to erect to her memory in Holy Cross cemetery, San Mateo county, a mausoleum to cost not less than $50,000. The decorations will be very elaborate.

Has Never Been Disappointed.

The above words speak volumes and cannot be said of many things, but coming from one who has been a sufferer for many years, no further tribute can be added.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Beneing, of Halney, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow."

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

While the 12-year-old son of Mrs. C. A. Miller was driving a load of wood last Tuesday over the bridge near the Jake Richardson place one of the stringers broke and the team, wagon and all that was in it were precipitated into the creek ten feet below. Mrs. Miller was on the load and had her baby in her arms. The baby fell on one of the horses and the struggling animal threw it a distance of several feet. The child was bruised a little but not badly. The mother and son escaped with scarcely a scratch and so did the team and wagon, beyond the breaking of one of the standards, but the rack was broken to pieces.—Goldendale Sentinel.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. There remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Snipes & Kinersly's druggists.

QUEER ACCIDENTS.

WHILE a baby was being photographed in Leominster, Mass., seven minutes after its birth, it spoiled the picture by sneezing.

A HORSE belonging to Tom Roe, of Waco, Tex., while grazing, became suddenly excited and madly rushed at his owner. Tom struck him on the neck with his fist and the animal dropped dead.

A LONG period of illness so depressed a horse belonging to Alderman Mack Bridge, of Sioux Falls, S. D., that the animal put his head through some harness hanging in the barn and then dropped to the floor, thus committing suicide by strangulation.

JAMES KIRLAND, of Royalton, O., saw his three-year-old daughter standing near a wall which was about to tumble. He dashed forward, bent over the girl to protect her from the falling bricks, and was instantly killed. The child received only slight injuries.

A SEVEN-YEAR-OLD child fell into an old well more than thirty feet deep at Far Rockaway, L. I., recently and escaped with only a few bruises. The water at the bottom reached to her waist, in which she stood for more than an hour before being missed and rescued.

A six-inch ebony base. The figure of Fame standing upon a globe surmounts the lid. The heads of Bacchus and Mercury adorn the arms of the urn, under which are American eagles. The L. A. W. emblem is engraved upon the back. The cup will be a perpetual challenge trophy, and the conditions under which it will be competed for will be determined upon by the racing board of the league. It is the most valuable prize ever donated to the L. A. W. by any individual member of the organization. It will be raced for annually.
