Progress and Cookery.

"The World Moves."

There is no better illustration of this old saying than the numerous schools now-a-days devoted to practical kitchen processes. These schools have been alert to find a reasonable substitute for lard, the use of which is so generally condemned. This want has been fully met by the new vegetable lard. When science strikes the kitchen, it strikes home and everybody gets the benefit. Cottolene is a clean, delicate and economical substitute for lard—cleaner than the hog, delicate as the finest vegetable oil, economical from its low price and small quantity required to be used. Prove it for yourself by a trial.

COTTOLENE

At grocers everywhere. REFUSE ALL SUBSTITUTES.

A RAILROAD HORROR

Two Trains on the Michigan Central Telescoped.

A TERRIBLE SCENE OF CARNAGE

List of Killed and Wounded is Very Large—Caused by a Faulty Airbrake.

JACKSON, Mich., Oct. 13.—One of the most frightful railroad accidents occurred here at 9:30 this morning. The second section of the Oswego special ran into the rear end of the first, telescoping two coaches, smashing the cars and crushing the life out of scores of people. Inside of 20 minutes six bodies were taken out and the work had only begun. A wrecking train is just coming to the scene to lift the shattered cars.

The accident occurred while the first section was standing on the track. Some of the passengers were out on the ground, some eating breakfast, and many asleep. The telescoped cars were the first and second ones from the rear of the first special. No one can say how many are killed. All the undertakers and physicians and assistants on the ground are doing all they can, but the sight is appalling. Every undertaking establishment in the city is overrun with dead.

The accident was not due to a misplaced switch. Engineer Whalen, in charge of the section, says he saw the signal to keep back, but when he tried to stop the train he found the air brake would not work, making it impossible to stop. Whalen was badly burned and has one leg broken. All the dead and injured have been taken from the wreck. The dead number 17, the injured 52, most of the dead are frightfully mangled.

The wreck was one of the sections of a world's fair train of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western road, running over the Michigan Central tracks. Two rear cars completely telescoped each other, and every person in them was either killed or injured. Willing hands at once went to work, and as soon as possible the wounded were rescued and cared for, and the dead removed to the morgues.

So far 19 bodies have been found. The injured number 50 to 60. A large force is at work clearing away the timber. It is feared there are bodies beneath the cars. It is impossible yet to get a complete list of the wounded, as many were taken to private houses. The unknown babe has been identified as the child of Mrs. Anson Herrington. It is supposed the man and one of the unknown women are husband and wife named Buck.

PLEASED WITH HIS NEIGHBORS

The Male Owner of a Quarter of Land Refuses to Sell to the Ladies.

PONCA, Oklahoma, Oct. 13.—A few days before the memorable 16th of September, announcement was made through the press that Miss Annette Daisy was leading a colony of spinsters and widows into the Cherokee strip for the purpose of establishing a woman's settlement. Miss Daisy is a Kentucky woman who has taken part in all the runs by which lands have been settled in the territory. This time it was stated that she intended to found a community from which men will be excluded. Of the same mind and intentions were nearly 40 women, who had accepted Miss Daisy as a leader. During the rush and the excitement following the opening, these women, who had been waiting near Arkansas City, were lost sight of. It has since been learned that they were partially successful. They secured possession of three quarter-sections of good land or 480 acres, a few miles west of this place, on which they had begun permanent improvements. Alfred Vanderpool, who is doing missionary work in the strip, and who has just completed an overland trip from Enid to Ponca, reports that he found 22 of the Daisy colony settled on the three quarter-sections, where they already have two small houses and four tents. They have endeavored to buy out the man who secured the off quarter of the section on which they are located, but so far have been unsuccessful. He evidently is too well pleased with his neighbors.

A Joke That Was No Joke.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 13.—Miss Elizabeth Clark, who was selected to represent Virginia at the Confederate reunion at Birmingham, Ala., and Dr. Taylor, who resides on Hampton Roads, this city, were unwittingly married by Justice of the Peace Haskins at a social gathering at the Taylor cottage. The affair was looked upon as a mere incident, when the couple were going to initiate the new justice into the performance of a fake marriage, but today it was learned that it was in all respects a perfectly valid one under the law. The situation is further complicated by the fact, as alleged, that Miss Clark is engaged to be married to another, and that affair will have to be postponed until after she can be divorced from Dr. Taylor.

MITCHELL NEWS.

The Mob and the Marshal—Death of Grover Misner.

Weather warm, cloudy and rain in sufficient quantities to bring the grass out until the hills are as green as spring-time. Such bright prospects for fall grass makes a smile come to the faces of sheepmen and stockmen in general, but some predict as severe a winter as that four years since.

Some of the members of the Sasser family are suffering from bilious fever in a light form.

Since the cooler days and nights the young folks of Mitchell seem inclined to share life and activity once again. Several little dances have been the result.

One day last week Mitchell was almost over-run by the faction part of its population. The turbulent members were well equipped for brave deeds by several drinks of, as the Indian would say, "fire water." The marshal attempted to arrest the noisiest member when others came, until they numbered twelve or fifteen and overpowered him, pulled his coat off, took his star from him and told him to mind his business, which he did right manfully. He watched his chance and soon had his man under arrest and the others quite submissive. The citizens of this place extend their right hand of respect and high regard to our marshal for his fearless attempt to quell a mob of vicious hyenas.

O. S. Boardman, proprietor of the Central hotel of this place, attended court at Moro last week. He speaks very well of the place and surrounding country.

Last week a case came up before A. J. Shrum to try the rights of sheep range, James Caroly, of Muddy, grazed his sheep on S. T. Allen's range for which S. T. Allen tried for damages, which was granted with but little debate. If damages were exacted oftener sheepmen would be a little more careful how they trespassed on the range of someone else.

October 2d a happy release from intense suffering came to little Grover Misner. He is gone to that last sweet rest, where there is no more pain and sorrow, where there is no more heart-ache, no more pain for that little wearied, worn-out brain. Although we grieved to hide from view so fair a child, we could but breathe a prayer of thankfulness that there is rest at last for the little sufferer. Could we but know there is no death and a new life is given to him that is gone, half our bitterness of parting would be swept away. If we knew angel forms had taken our baby into angel arms and borne him to a haven of rest, there to wait for mother and loved ones left behind, then could we smile "Thy will be done;" then could we fold our baby's hands; then could we close our baby's eyes, not with bursting hearts, but with only a heart-ache at parting and a bright hope to meet again. We can but cry out like J. L. McCreery:

There is no death! The leaves may fall
And flowers may fade and pass away.
They only wait through misty hours,
The crossing of the way.

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise on some fairer shore,
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown,
They shine forevermore.

There is no death! An angel form
Walks o'er the earth with silent tread,
He bears our best loved things away,
And then we call them "dead."

He leaves our hearts all desolate,
He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers,
Transplanted into bliss, they now
Adorn immortal bowers.

Born unto that undying life,
They leave us but to come again,
With joy we welcome them the same,
Except their sin and pain.

And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread:
For all the boundless universe
Is life—there is no death.

STORMS IN THE EAST

Telegraphic Communication Cut Off at Many Points.

CLOSE CALL FOR JUSTICE BROWN

Damage at Savannah—A Repetition in the Senate of Thursday Night's Turmoil.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—[Special to THE CHRONICLE]—A fearful storm is raging today all over the east and south, along the coast line. Its influence is felt for 1,000 miles inland. All communication with New York, Washington and other eastern points is cut off on account of the paralyzed telegraph and telephone systems.

A Narrow Escape.

[Special to THE CHRONICLE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Associate Justice Brown of the supreme court of the United States was sitting at a window in the upper story of his house looking at the storm when the plate glass window was violently shattered and a piece of it struck him near the eye severing an artery. He would have bled to death, but for timely assistance.

The Storm in Georgia.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 14.—[Special to THE CHRONICLE.]—A fearful storm raged here all last night and up to a late hour this morning, at which time it had reached its greatest intensity. All vessels, having been apprised of the coming storm, took time by the forelock and sought refuge in the harbor, but a number of houses were unroofed and much damage done.

Still in a Turmoil.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—[Special to THE CHRONICLE.]—There is great difficulty with the telegraphic wires, which were prostrated by the storm, but an hour ago one wire was got in working order. The scene in the senate today is a repetition of that of yesterday. Filibustering is the order of the day, and delays are frequently occasioned by the calling of the roll, when the senators refuse to answer as their names are called.

ARE FORCED TO SURRENDER.

The Quorum in the Senate Has Been Broken.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—In the senate this morning at 1:40 o'clock the quorum was broken by the refusal of certain silver democrats to vote. Voorhees rose and said he felt he had done his duty in the matter, and moved an adjournment. The motion was unanimously agreed to, and in an instant the senate chamber was deserted, after a continuous session of 38 hours and 40 minutes.

In The House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—In the house, an agreement was reached to take a vote on the Chinese bill at 3 o'clock Monday. The banking bill will be called up immediately after the house is through discussing the Chinese bill.

Voorhees Will Try It Again.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Voorhees said to the Associated Press that he would at 6 o'clock this evening again ask the senate to continue in session during the night and keep it up until a vote is reached. He did not know whether he could hold a quorum, but it would not be his fault if one failed.

A movement is on foot in opposition to Voorhees' proposition to ask for a night session, to procure an adjournment at 5:30 till Monday.
