A MENACE TO EUROPE

The Visit of the Russians to France.

"VIVE LA REVANCHE" THE SPIRIT

The Irish Home-Rule Bill Will Be Shelved--The Matabeles are Fighters.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—French newspapers publish long comments upon the sympathy expressed by Russians at the death of Marshal MacMahon and seem greatly pleased at it. The czar's message of thanks to President Carnot for courtesies extended the Russian sailors at Toulon and Paris has also greatly pleased the newspapers of this and other cities of France. It may be said that France and Frenchmen feel more confidence today in the stability of the republic and in the strength of their army and navy than they have for the past 20 years. The visit of the Russians to France has had a decidedly bracing effect upon the French; but it is an open question whether this will not precipitate the long-expected European war. France is now herself again. Hot tempered, ultra sensitive, chivalrous to a very high degree, proud of her armies and navy, strong in her likes and dislikes, quick to resent injury whether real or fancied, France is more dangerous to the peace of Europe than she was a week ago. After all is summed down to the bottom facts, the wild, extravagant enthusiasm shown by French people toward their Russian guests means but one thing, the extreme delight that France feels emanates from the idea that Russia is ready to fight with her, and not satisfaction at the prospects of peace in the future. The fighting enthusiasm displayed at Toulon and at Paris is as the enthusiasm of 1870, when "A Berlin" rang from the Mediterranean to the British channel, and from the Atlantic to the Prussian frontier. Those people who went wild yesterday cheering, "Vive la Russie" were in their hearts crying "Vive la Revanche," so that in spite of the czar's warning, in spite of Carnot's orders, a spirit of war is stirring up the enthusiastic millions of France and urging them on to battle in spite of their leaders. Behind all those toasts to the peace and to the prosperity of France was a thinly concealed toast to the brotherhood in arms expected to exist between Russia and France when the war trumpet calls all Europe to arms. Those toasts were toasts of war, not the toasts of peace, and nobody knows this better than the calculating, wakeful minds of Germany, Italy, Austria and England. Some peaceful demonstrations are more dangerous than warlike outbursts. The enthusiasm shown by the French people is a clear-cut demonstration of this. It shows with what wild enthusiasm France at a moment's notice would go to war with Russia by her side. It shows the real feeling at the bottom of French hearts, and the European ship of state will need very careful handling in this cyclonic weather in order to avert a clash and fearful shipwreck.

FORFEITED LANDS.

Important Decision Rendered by the Secretary of the Interior.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—An important decision was rendered today by the secretary of the interior on the appeal of James K. Daniel, involving the right to purchase certain forfeited lands in the La Grande district. He holds that the purchaser is entitled to purchase a technical half section of such land when so surveyed, irrespective of the actual acreage, but if the land lies in different sections the acreage must then approximate 320 acres. The secretary also decided that lands heretofore patented to The Dalles Military Road Company were originally granted the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, and that the patents were without authority. He orders the institution of proceedings looking to their cancellation.

FOUGHT WITH KNIVES.

Fierce Battle Between Poles and Italians.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—One dead man, two dying and 10 others variously cut and carved, lie in the station-house at Whiting, Ind., this morning, the result of a Polish dance held last night. The Poles had taken possession of the town hall for the purpose of holding their merry-making. To the dance came as unbidden guests a gang of Italians. A battle between the two nations broke out, and knives and dirks were the weapons used. The floor ran with blood. John Poshanski, a Pole, was literally scalped alive and will die. Another Pole had his jugular severed. The noise of the fray roused the citizens and attracted the few officers of the town. The riot could not be quelled, and not until 13 were disabled and 20 more received slighter wounds did the war abate. Many were arrested. Over 100 were engaged.

THINKS THE END NEAR.

Voorhees Says the Debate Will Close This Week.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Voorhees said today he would make an effort to continue for the present the recess system inaugurated last evening. His plan is to have the senate sit each day from 10 to 6. He is of the opinion this will prove the best plan for turning out work and getting rid of long speeches. He expresses the opinion that the end of the long debate is near, and intimates the present week may close it.

The Matabeles are Fighters.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Lord Chelmsford, commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa during the Zulu war, said last evening that he thought the British forces now in the field against the Matabele warriors would be strong enough to drive them beyond the Zambesi river. The Matabeles were fine, powerful fellows, he said, not inferior in physical strength to the Zulus, and fully their equals in the fight. Their efficiency in battle would be checked greatly by their inability to handle well the rifles with which they were armed. In the Zulu war he had noticed that natives recently armed were much inferior, both in attack and defense, to those of the same race who wielded the assegai.

Home Rule is Shelved.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—At Glasgow last night Henry Asquith, secretary of state for home affairs, announced, contrary to the impression made by Gladstone's late speech, that the home-rule bill would not be taken up at the next session of parliament, but the Newcastle programme would be carried out. This means the Irish question is shelved for some time.

Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. Vest is circulating a call for a caucus of all the democratic senators. It pledges them to abide by the result, if any is reached. The silver men are signing it readily, but the repeal men are holding off. It is doubtful whether Gorman will issue the call unless the desire for it seems pretty general, as it is likely to do more harm than good.
