NOTES ON FOREIGN NOTABLES.

The duke of Cambridge takes the keenest interest in the welfare of private soldiers and is very popular among the men of the ranks.

The duke of Westminster has spent over £1,000,000 in rebuilding Eaton hall, which is now considered to rival Chatsworth as England's finest house.

The duchess de Maille is always recognized in the Bois de Boulogne by her immense coach. It dates from the last century and is equipped with positions and outriders in livery.

NERVOUSNESS never troubles Mme. Melba, the great singer, even on a "first night." "The greater and the more distinguished the audience," she says, "the more stimulated and braced I feel. There is something that responds to the exigency of the occasion."

PROF. MAX MULLER has enjoyed a unique distinction. On December 3, 1875, at the invitation of Dean Stanley he delivered a lecture in Westminster abbey on the "Religions of the World," the only address ever delivered by a layman within the sacred precincts.

It is not often that a royal personage condescends to act as judge in a bicycle contest. The king of the Belgians recently did this, however, at Brussels. Since then he has become infatuated with bicycling, and has offered a medal to be competed for by amateurs in a race from Paris to Brussels.

The young emperor of China has as keen a relish for the pleasures of the table as any epicure in his dominions. Eight plates form the staple of his dinner menu. The emperor insists on having bears' paws, antelope tails, ducks' tongues, torpedo eels' eggs, camels' hump, monkeys' lips, carps' tails and marrow bones served at his table every day in the year.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Beneing, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

DULL Times makes it all the more necessary to advertise. That is what the most progressive of our business men think. Of these same dull times are the most prosperous at all times. If you wish to reach all the people in this neighborhood you can't do better than talk to them through the columns of the DAILY CHRONICLE. It has more than double the circulation of any other paper, and advertising in it pays big.

They read The Chronicle to get the latest and most reliable news. And they read every line that is in the paper. That is what makes the Chronicle an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family fireside is the one that the advertisers of today patronize when they desire to reach the people. When they want your trade their announcements will be found in the paper. Look over our columns and observe the verification of the truth of this assertion. Remember, a trade of a family of two thousand is worth asking for through these columns, especially so at our very

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, shady lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
