THE BATTLE IS ENDED

Silver Men Will Drop the Fight on Repeal.

WILL ALLOW A VOTE TO BE TAKEN

Voting Will Begin on the Amendments on Thursday—Debate Under Five-Minute Rule.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—At 12:30 Senator Harris, acting for the silver democrats, informed the silver republicans that the democrats had concluded, after taking all the circumstances into consideration, that their best course was to drop the fight against repeal and allow it to come to a vote. If this decision is not reconsidered, and it does not seem at all probable it will be, the end of the present fight will soon be reached and the result will be in accordance with the president's wishes and those of the repeal forces of the senate. The silver republicans will not undertake to prolong the fight beyond the time necessary to complete their speeches and will after that permit voting to begin on the amendments to the bill. It is generally believed this will take place before the end of the week.

The republican silver senators say their course will depend entirely on the democratic silver senators. They have said from the beginning that whenever the democrats should refuse to aid them in obstructive measures they would allow the voting to begin. There was a conference during the forenoon of some of the repeal leaders of the house, the precise nature of which could not be ascertained.

The report that the silver democrats in the senate had decided against further effort to prolong the fight over the repeal bill is correct beyond question. The policy was decided upon in a conference of silver democrats, who have refrained from filibustering, but who felt inclined yesterday to enter upon a campaign of that character in opposition to the bill. Cockrell, Vest, Harris and Wallhall were among those present. It is understood they discussed the question at some length, and decided that, inasmuch as the silver men could hope for very little in the way of compromise, if they should succeed in defeating the bill it was better to submit without further heated discussion and allow the question to go to the country. It is believed now it may be possible to begin voting upon amendments to the bill Thursday, as it seems probable the speech making will be concluded by tomorrow evening. There are a great many amendments and it is possible there will be more or less debate under the five-minute rule. It is generally agreed, however, a vote on the bill itself can be reached by the close of the week.

Both Claim the Body.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Oct. 24.—Dr. Sweetland, of Edwardsburg, Mich., identified one of the bodies from the Grand Trunk wreck as that of his sister, Mrs. Evelyn Aldrich, and the body was shipped to that place last night. Now J. D. Wood, of Cato, N. Y., telegraphs that the body was that of his wife. Both identified the body by the clothing, and both are equally positive. The remains will be brought back here. It is thought legal proceedings to get possession of it may be necessary.

A Blaze at Gervais.

GERVAIS, Oct. 24.—This morning about 8 o'clock a fire broke out in Coleman & Goulet's store which for a time threatened to destroy the business portion of the town, but after an hour's hard work the danger was over and the flames were under control. The fire company with a hand engine did some splendid work, and the members fought the flames like veterans.

The losses and insurance were as follows: Coleman & Goulet, general merchandise; loss $15,000, insured for $7,500. William J. Clarke, Star printing office; loss $800, insured for $400. T. B. Walker, bootmaker, and Mickel & Ziegler, butchers; loss $300, no insurance.

During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bening, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

AN INHUMAN FATHER.

To Conceal His Crime he Tries to Murder His Child.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The report of one of the most horrible crimes ever committed in this section has been received here from St. Lawrence county. The crime was perpetrated Wednesday night, October 18th, at Alburt, a small station on the Northern Adirondack railroad. Sebedee Duryea, a Frenchman from Alburt, Vt., has been living for some time with a Miss Thompson. They are the parents of a little girl 3½ years of age. Wednesday night the girl was assaulted in a horrible manner by her father, after which she was taken from the house and her skull crushed in with a stone. He then took her into the house, where she remained unconscious for two hours. After she regained consciousness the brute attacked her with a sharp instrument and cut a large gash in her right cheek, which he sewed up. The girl's mother did not dare to report the matter, as Duryea swore he would kill her. At last the mother mustered up courage Friday and told a part of the story to the justice of the peace, who issued a warrant, and Duryea was taken to Dickinson Center, six miles distant, and locked up. Doctors made an examination of the child and found out the enormity of the crime. The doctor states that blood poisoning will set in and that recovery is impossible. Many citizens talk of lynching, and it is doubtful if the fiend lives until the examination is completed.

NEWS NOTES.

The executive committee of the mid-winter exposition has about decided to call the collection of buildings at Golden Gate Park "Sunset City."

The act of the last Michigan legislature permitting women to vote at municipal elections was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court recently.

A passenger train on the Indiana, Illinois & Southern railroad was derailed yesterday morning near Effingham, Ill. Thirteen passengers were seriously injured.

In a fit of jealousy Tuesday Frank Hilbert fatally shot his fiancée, Paulina Holman, in Chicago, and then committed suicide in a saloon restaurant in which both were employed.

Arrangements are completed for a six-round boxing contest between "Young Mitchell," the middle-weight champion of the Pacific coast, and Jim Ryan, the Australian middle-weight.

News of the surrender of the silver men in the senate was received in Wall street. It found the market with a strong upward tendency, which became a rush, resulting in a decided advance.

News comes from Rio Janeiro that Frederico Guilherme de Lorena has been proclaimed provisional president of Brazil by Admiral Mello, in command of the insurgent fleet. Lorena is the captain of one of the rebel warships, and the government, of which he is now declared president, was established some days ago, as was cabled at the time, at Desterro, which is the capital city of the state of Santa Catharina.

A marriage license was granted today to Mr. Frank Blaker and Miss Eva Hendricksen, both of The Dalles.

Six points out of many where Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are better than other pills:

1. They're the smallest and easiest to take—little sugar-coated granules that every child takes readily.
2. They're perfectly easy in their action—no gripping, no disturbance.
3. Their efforts last. There's no reaction afterward. They regulate or cleanse the system according to size of dose.
4. They're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.
5. You pay only for the good you get.
6. Put up in glass—are always fresh.
7. They cure Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Bilious Headaches and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Mrs. Mee Kim, a recently arrived Chinese woman in Portland, was robbed by nine Chinese burglars early in the week. They tore some valuable gold bracelets from her arms, but her loud screams drove the marauders out of the room without making a further search for valuables.

The case of Rev. C. L. Corwin is not yet concluded before the Congregational association for immoral conduct. The Telegram speaks of Mr. Corwin as a very intelligent and highly educated gentleman, an eloquent, forcible and effective speaker, and to the time of his present trouble was very popular with his congregation. He came to Salem from Denver about two years ago, since which time he has had charge of the church at that place. In earlier life he was an attorney-at-law, and it is said, an infidel, being converted by Moody about five years ago. He at once entered the ministry, in which his career had been one of marked success to about the time of his suspension last spring. He has been married but divorced, his former wife being at present a resident of Portland and a member of the First Congregational church.

HOW THE BUFFALOES DIED.

The Terrible Destructive Methods of Indian Hunters.

A story teller of half a century ago gave an account of a terrible method which the Indians used in destroying the buffalo, and one which must have been the means of snuffing out an incalculable number of lives.

The red hunters, he said, were wont to lie concealed in the vicinity of some high precipice, and when a herd of bisons came roaming thither in search of food they would send one or two braves out among them, concealed in the effigy of a buffalo and covered with its head, hide and horns. The false buffalo being stationed between the herd and the precipice, the Indians would surround the herd, as nearly as possible, and then rush from their concealment shouting like demons. The animals being alarmed, and seeing no way open but in the direction of the false buffalo, would run toward it, and the false buffalo moving quickly to the edge of the cliff went over, but by some preconceived arrangement took refuge in a cave, cleft or shelf. The leaders of the herd would pause on the brink, seeing death before them; but those behind could not see the abyss, and would press madly forward, so that those in front were forced to leap to the rocky ground hundreds of feet below, while those behind were goaded forward by the hunters until they became mad with fear, and followed in to the same end. The Indians then selected as much meat as they wished and left the rest to the wolves.
