J. F. FORD, Evangelist,

Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.

Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.
Sold under a positive guarantee.

WAKE UP.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

THE Daily Evening Chronicle is recognized as essentially the home paper for the Dalles City folks. This is not a bad reputation. Some 2,000 of our best citizens watch the columns of this daily for the spiciest local news. It succeeds in pleasing the field, and hence grows in popularity and importance. Take it awhile, you who don't try some of its premium offers.

BATTLE-SHIP OREGON

Was Successfully Launched Yesterday Morning.

GOV. PENNOYER NOT PRESENT But He Was Represented By Brigadier General Compton--The Christening.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The big battle-ship Oregon was successfully launched at the Union iron works shortly before noon today, in the presence of fully 50,000 people. A private stand had been erected right under the bow of the battle-ship, and here stood the invited guests and those who were to participate in the ceremony of launching. Irving M. Scott, president of the Union iron works, was present, giving directions to the last minute. General Ruger, commanding the department of the Pacific, and staff; Captain Howison, commandant of Mare Island navy-yard; Governor Markham; Mayor Elliott; General Compton, of Portland, representing Governor Pennoyer, of Oregon; and other distinguished personages were present, and in addition there were the two young ladies who were to take a most important part in the ceremony. They were Miss Daisy Ainsworth, representing the state of Oregon, and Miss Eugenia Shelby, representing the city of Portland. Miss Ruth Dolph, daughter of Senator Dolph, of Oregon, had been designated by Secretary Herbert, to represent the navy, but was unable to be present. On the arrival of the final moment, 11:58 a. m., the cord connecting the dog shores, instead of being severed by the historical hatchet, was cut by a guillotine set free by the pressing of an electric button by Miss Shelby. The guillotine in its fall severed a cord that held two 25-pound weights in position. These weights struck the dog shores, and knocking them out, set the vessel in motion. At the same moment Miss Ainsworth pressed another button, allowing a bottle of California champagne to crash on the bow and spill its contents over it. Thus was the big ship christened on her departure from the ways, down which she glided easily into the bay, a mighty cheer arising from the admiring crowd, bands playing national airs and every whistle round about sending forth screeches of enthusiasm.

DIMENSIONS AND ARMAMENT.

The Most Powerful Ship in the United States Navy.

The Oregon is what is technically known as a sea-going coast-line battle-ship, and is the most powerful ship in the United States navy. Her dimensions are as follows: Length over all, 348 feet; load water line, 300 feet; breadth, 69 feet 3 inches; draught, 24 feet; displacement, 10,298 tons; maximum speed of 16 2-10 knots, and will carry a crew of 460 men. Her cost, exclusive of armament is $4,000,000. Her armament consists of 4 13-inch, 8 8-inch and 4 6-inch breech-loading rifles, also a secondary battery of 20 6-pounder and 6 1-pounder rapid-fire guns, 2 Gatlings, and also 6 torpedo tubes, 13-inch and 8-inch guns mounted in the turrets. The Oregon's armor is very heavy. There is a belt of steel from three feet above the load water line to 4 1/2 feet below it, extending 196 feet amidships, protecting the engines and boilers. Above this belt is another five inches thick extending to the main deck. From the ends of the 18-inch belt to the extremities of the ship is a protective deck three inches thick and another armored deck 2 3/4 inches thick. Turrets for 13-inch guns are in two parts under a redoubt 17 inches thick, and above this is an inclined armor of the same thickness. The 8-inch turrets are similarly built with an inclined armor varying from 8 1/2 to 6 inches in thickness. There is also a complete system of coal protection, cellular subdivision and gun shields.

SHOT DOWN LIKE RATS.

How the British Colonists Treated the Matabeles.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—An interview with a colonist named Davis, in reference to the Matabele raid at Fort Victoria, and alleged atrocities committed by the British, was recently published in the Pictorial Press. "We overtook the impi," he said, "seven miles from Victoria. They were going at a jog trot. Many were unmounted. Dr. Jameson immediately ordered us to fire. Our men were mad, and shot down the Matabeles like rats, shooting indiscriminately at the dead, the dying and the wounded. Twenty-five of the Matabeles were killed. Each body contained enough bullets to kill a dozen. The Matabeles never turned when we opened fire on them; only one, an old man, fired a return shot, and he was immediately brained with a gunstock which was smashed by the blow. It was sickening work, yet on returning to Fort Victoria we were cheered as though we had won a second Waterloo."

Fight Between Schoolboys.

WOOSTER, O., Oct. 26.—Students of Wooster university and the pupils of the high school had a pitched battle on the college campus last night over a baseball decision. A dozen or more were wounded. Five were so badly hurt as to require the services of physicians to sew up their wounds. John Morgan, a senior, who tried to stop the fighting, has a gash in the throat made with a knife in the hands of one of the high school boys, so it is charged.

Three Buried in the Wreck.

HAMBURG, Mich., Oct. 26.—Last night a freight train on the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan road ran into a sink hole near here. The engine was ditched and two cars of oil and three cars of coal piled on top of it, taking fire and still burning. Engineer Beaulieu, Fireman Albers and head brakeman Milligan were buried in the wreck, doubtless burned to a crisp.

CONGRESSIONAL NOTES.

Rev. Haddaway, chaplain of the house, died yesterday of Bright's disease.

The secretary of the treasury places the cost of deporting the Chinese residents of this country at $10,000,000.

It is quite probable the Chinese exclusion bill will not be reported to the senate before the beginning of the regular session in December.

Senator Sherman says he has no intention to offer an amendment to the repeal bill for the issue of $200,000,000 of bonds to strengthen the gold reserve at this session. At the regular session, however, he will introduce a bill for that purpose.

There will be no delay of action on the silver bill in the house when that measure reaches that body from the senate because of a want of a quorum. General Tracey, chairman of the steering committee of the repealers in the house, has been looking to the matter. He made a count last night which showed the presence of 261 members of the house in the city.

IN FOREIGN LANDS.

News of serious importance has just been received from Peru. It has been stated that the Indians at Huacayo are rising in revolt against the government. They are in favor of ex-President Caires, whose citizenship was recently taken from him by the Peruvian congress. Congress has disapproved the proposed treaty with Ecuador, defining the boundary limits of the two countries.

There is every indication that the Brazilian government intends something warlike. Brazilian Admiral Maury is hovering about London on mysterious business, and the great Winchester gun works are running night and day, and a big order will be shipped next week. Either the rebels or the government also have a $200,000 order with the Hotchkiss Gun Company to be shipped next week also.

Figuring in France.

In both France and Germany one-fourth (1/4) reduced to a decimal is written 0.25; in England it is written 0/25 (always with the period at the top of the line), and in the United States in this way, 0.25. France and Germany always use the comma (,) and England and the United States the period (.), the only difference being the manner in which it is placed upon the line. Sir Isaac Newton is given the credit of originating the present English method of using the decimal point, his reason being that by placing it at the top of the line it could be distinguished at a glance from the "full stop" punctuation mark. All English mathematicians use the mark in the way proposed by Newton and the period as a sign of multiplication.

The Penal Code of China.

Taking the word in its literal sense the most civilized country in the world is China, and it is here that we find the most severe penal code. It is most minutely divided, and there are penalties for almost everything, even for getting out of temper in public, an offense for which the penalty is five days' imprisonment. The punishments of the Chinese code are as numerous and varied as they are barbarous.

Kraus's Headache Capsules.

A remedy used with unvarying success as a cure for Headaches of all kinds. The results have been so universally good that it is no longer an experiment. It has been used for Headache resulting from Dissipation, in Periodical Sick Headache, in Headaches caused by severe labor (mental or physical), or by exposure to the sun, and in all cases with the most gratifying results. We have, after a thorough investigation, had no hesitancy in taking the agency for this effective remedy, and conscientiously recommend it to our patrons.

At the ranch of Mr. Coley, in Klickitat county, on Saturday last, the 13-year-old boy of Mr. Sealy was accidentally shot and killed by Mr. Coley's boy. The boys were fooling with a Winchester, and in some way it went off and shot the Sealy boy in the neck, breaking his neck and severing the jugular vein. The boy says he didn't know it was loaded.—Arlington Record.
