THE SITUATION IN BRAZIL.

The latest advices from Brazil show that the civil war is simply a struggle between two rival leaders for power, and there is probably no question as to the restoration of the empire involved in it. The empire is dead beyond resurrection in Brazil as in Mexico. Should Admiral Custodio de Mello succeed in overthrowing President Peixoto, it is not likely that the admiral would invite any princeling of the house of Braganza to enjoy the prize he had so ardently won. As for Peixoto, he has proclaimed himself a dictator, and Brazil would have no room for a dictator and an emperor at one and the same time.

The origin of the Brazilian trouble, says an exchange, appears to be the disapproval by President Peixoto of a bill passed by the congress rendering it illegal for any citizen who has filled the office of vice president of the republic to hold the presidency. The bill was no doubt aimed at some creature of Peixoto. The latter had himself been vice president before he took the presidential chair upon the forced retirement of Fonseca, and Admiral de Mello and Peixoto were active associates in compelling Fonseca to retire. In order to get rid of the president the admiral has been bombarding Rio Janeiro, and has done some damage to buildings, besides killing a few noncombatants. So far as heard from the fighters on both sides have escaped serious casualties, owing largely to the bad aim of the gunners.

We didn't raise quite so many potatoes this year as last, but there are enough to go around. Total yield is about 148,000,000 bushels. At 65 cents a bushel—estimated average price—they are worth about $89,000,000.

It is thought the president will soon transmit a message and correspondence on the Hawaiian matter. It is not known which of the three solutions of the trouble in Hawaii he will recommend—the restoration of the old order of things by placing the queen upon the throne; annexation or a protectorate.

A new psychological problem has been raised at Chicago, that of hypnotism as an aid in convicting criminals. The supreme court at Chicago has affirmed the death sentence of Mr. George Painter, the wife-murderer, and Painter wishes Governor Altgeld to have him hypnotized in the hope that his innocence will be established and pardon obtained. "A man in hypnotic state must tell the truth," he said, "and he must act just as he did on the day or night questioned about. Now I offer myself to be hypnotized. I am not afraid of truth. This was tried not long ago in San Francisco, and in France a commission recommended that hypnotism be made a part of the machinery of justice. Look at Judge Daly, of New York. Did not he before one of the congresses at the art palace here urge that a hypnotic college be established so that hypnotic experts might be trained to help officers of the law?"

Six points out of many where Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are better than other pills:

- 1. They're the smallest and easiest to take—little sugar-coated granules that every child takes readily.
2. They're perfectly easy in their action—no gripping, no disturbance.
3. Their efforts last. There's no reaction afterward. They regulate or cleanse the system according to size of dose.
4. They're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.
5. You pay only for the good you get.
6. Put up in glass—always fresh.
7. They cure Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Bilious Headaches and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

PEOPLE OF BRAINS.

RALPH WALDO EMERSON was a great whistler. The English accuse William Waldorf Astor of being influenced by his interests in the United States in his attack in the Pall Mall Gazette on Canada.

ROBERT BURNS' granddaughter, widow of David Wingate (who was pensioned fifty pounds a year for his literary merit), has been given a grant of one hundred pounds from the royal bounty fund.

WILLIAM C. TODD, who recently gave fifty thousand dollars to the Boston public library to support a newspaper reading-room, is seventy years old, and a graduate of Dartmouth in the class of 1844.

JOHN C. ROPES, of Boston, the magazine writer, is the owner of what is probably the greatest collection of Napoleonic pictures and relics in America. He is considered an authority on the subject.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this remedy has been taken as soon as a cold has become contracted, and before it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it's the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

THE Daily Evening Chronicle is recognized as essentially the home paper for the Dalles City folks. It succeeds in pleasing the field, and hence grows in popularity and importance. Take it while you who don't, try some of its premium offers.

SIGHTS OF A CITY.

"I HAVE seen, at one time and another, all sorts of things hanging on washlines," said a citizen, "but to-day, for the first time, I saw among the shirts and stockings an American flag."

In the shopping districts one sometimes sees a newsboy, with his bundle of papers under his arm, gravely holding open the door of a carriage for my lady. Sometimes she gives him something, sometimes not; he takes the chances on that.

As a general thing the newsboy, when on duty, devotes himself strictly to hustling, but there crossed Madison square, New York, the other evening, a newsboy, who, between cries of his papers, smelled at a sizable bouquet of red flowers with evident pleasure.

The year 1773 was a fearful one in New York. One hundred and fifty-five cases of sunstroke occurred on July 4, of which seventy-two proved fatal. The principal thoroughfares were like fields of battle. Men fell by the score, and ambulances were in constant requisition.

GEMS OF TRUTH.

SOME people talk most about what they know least. SOME of the sweetest grapes grow near the ground. If you haven't got much, be thankful and you will double it. You cannot tell how sharp a dog's teeth are by the way he barks. SOME people work themselves almost to death in trying to find rest. WHENEVER a lion roars it is a declaration of war against somebody. A WOMAN sometimes says more in a look than a man can do in a book. PEOPLE who can talk about themselves to the satisfaction of others are very scarce.
