The Portland exposition has been extended another week.

Goldendale has made up a purse for Frank Miller and his balloon next week.

The Regulator took 750 head of sheep to Troutdale this morning, belonging to Messrs. Bolton and Kelsay of Antelope.

The Regulator will make a trip to Cascades and return tomorrow. Will leave The Dalles at 8 a. m. Round trip 50 cents.

"What are you marking the price of that at 50 cents for; It only cost 3 cents?" "I don't care what it cost; I am selling of regardless of cost."

Rev. O. D. Taylor, manager of the Columbia River Fruit Co., says that anyone out of work or otherwise wanting to dig potatoes, pick fruit or grub land, for shares for payment, can secure the opportunity on application to him.

Remember the guessing contest at base and Mays tonight. A pleasant entertainment has been prepared for those in attendance while the count is being made. The judges will be Messrs. W. L. Bradshaw, J. B. Crossen, W. H. Wilson, O. D. Doane, H. S. Wilson, and Smith French.

A very pleasant time was had by a number of the friends of Mr. Ernest Jensen last evening at his new home near the Methodist church. It was a birthday party, and with games, music, and good things to eat, the time flew rapidly by, until near 12 o'clock, when they dispersed.

The estimated expense of running the rock crusher one month is $338. Allowing the remaining part of the $400 for possibilities, the sum is not extravagant for the great amount of good it is doing. The council are debating the proposition of improving Second street, and Court from Second to Ninth and down Ninth in all places needed. If they do it will be a pleasure to country people to come to town from all directions, resulting in a largely increased amount of business.

Prof. Frank Miller made another ascension this afternoon at 3 o'clock. He did not rise quite so high as on Sunday, and floated in a westerly direction, coming down in an old collar near William Mitchell's house, sustaining slight bruises. There were perhaps 2,500 people who witnessed the ascent, great numbers having come in from the country. Many of these will remain over tomorrow, and it is expected many more will arrive. Mr. Miller announces it was a financial failure, but he hopes for better luck tomorrow, when, if he is liberally patronized, his wife will accompany him in his aerial flight.

Blank petitions may still be obtained at this office, praying that the present tariff on manufactured wools be continued.

Fred Hillert, a boy about 12 years of age, living on the hill, fell and broke his hand while at play yesterday. Dr. Hollister was called and adjusted the fracture.

Rain, rain, rain! We will soon have to appeal to congress to give us an appropriation to put a roof over the state of Wash.—Skamania County Pioneer. Uncle Sam would then have a very large Wash house.

A Dalles woman was notified by her bank that she had overdrawn her account by one hundred dollars. She sat down, wrote a check for one hundred dollars on the same bank, and promptly forwarded it to make up the deficiency. It takes a woman to master a great crisis. No man would ever have thought of so happy and simple an expedient.

A fight between shearers in which shooting irons were freely used, occurred Tuesday evening on Tygh Ridge. Two herders of Ed. Griffin's and one of Wm. O'Dell had difficulty over their bands of sheep. After being separated, the sheep were driven together again several times. This angered the herders and they commenced shooting. Griffin's men had revolvers, while the O'Dell man had a Winchester. None of the parties were hit, although several shots were exchanged.

During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Beneing, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

WORK AT THE LOCKS.

Progressing Finely with I. N. Day in the Van-Stevenson Flourishing.

The Cascade Locks is a lively place to put 300 or 400 people inside its borders, in addition to its former population, and one thinks it an embryo city. Everything is in full blast, even the giant drill and its explosion. The town, city should have been said, has added fifteen or twenty new structures during the past season, and is finishing up its improvements with a "Toronto's Mid-winter Fair Cafe." Dr. Candiana says San Francisco or Portland ain't in it, and he is free to say that it will be the only genuine cafe this side of Paris, and all he will lack to give it a purely Parisian eciait will be the absence of the boulevard and the Chicago Plaisance, which has already been arranged for. I intended to mention that this place has a frontage on the principal portion of the wide and commodious avenue through which pass street cars at intervals of several minutes during the day and night.

The great governmental undertaking of constructing a ship canal is being pushed to completion, 75 to 100 laborers are at work in its confines, some are excavating, some are concreting and others are at stone work, cutting and laying. The neighborhood seems to be alive with laborers and to the most incredulous a visit will dispel all doubts of a want of earnestness and determination on the part of the contractors to push the stupendous work to an early completion. Since pumping out the canal, they have cleaned up its bed and have already laid about 400 feet of wall on the north side, and it is pleasing to say that they are finishing the work as they progress. All of the excavation is used at once without its being handled over several times to fill up and bank in behind the finished walls. Mr. I. N. Day can be seen in the midst of the laborers, dressed in a rough brown suit and slouched hat, superintending the work in all its details. One cannot be impressed with the thought that he means business, and that the appropriation must give him a good margin after the whole thing was done.

Stevenson, the young aspirant to fame, and the capital of Skamania county, presents four square fronts to view, which are only partly completed. The city offers fine inducements on paper or plat, and no doubt in the years to come will be quite a little village. Should it be struck with a railroad may be more. It is understood a Dalles man has begun business there. To give it a start, the proprietors did not build a shoe factory on a pile of rocks, but they have put in a live newspaper, the publishers have all the county printing and get all the land notices from the Vancouver land office, and are really pushing things for keeps, as the boys say. Scarlet fever, in a malignant form, is prevalent at the locks and fears are entertained that it will prove an epidemic among the children and youths. E. EDEBEEZ.

I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a cough remedy is intended for use among children. I have known of cases of croup where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J. LaGrange, druggist, Avoca, Neb. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

SAW MILL PROSPECTS.

Mr. F. H. Rowe Arrives to Remain Permanently in the City.

Mr. Fred H. Rowe arrived on the Regulator last night, and a load of his household effects also came up on the same boat. Himself and family are at present stopping at the Columbia house, but they intend to soon go to "house-keeping" and will live in the Coffin property.

A reporter of THE CHRONICLE met Mr. Rowe this morning, who claims a former acquaintance with the gentleman in Southern Oregon, where he has had extensive milling interests and fine residence property at Grants Pass.

While the plans are not virtually completed looking to the location of his mill at this point, it is certain that he will locate with his family at The Dalles, and as he says, build as fine a house as there is in the city.

The primary reason for making his home here is on account of his wife's health, which requires a dryer climate, and that of The Dalles has been recommended to him by physicians.

It is also certain that he will put in a planing mill and box factory at The Dalles. There are arrangements yet to be made before it can be stated positively that he will put in a saw mill here. In the first place he has not yet procured his thirty-nine years lease, owing to the Union Pacific going into the hands of a receiver at the time it did. Next a trial must be made of towing logs up the river from Wind River. It has been suggested that owing to the strong current in some places the task will not be an easy one. Mr. Rowe himself does not believe it will make any difference, yet he wants to be sure before setting up his plant. He expects that at least 100,000 feet of logs can be towed up at a load by the Regulator, and perhaps 200,000 feet, and says that the boats of the same size on the lower river have towed as high as 550,000 feet. Other matters to be looked after is a bonus to reimburse him for the expense of moving, immunity from taxes for ten years, etc. His Roseburg plant is now all boxed, awaiting shipment.

He regards The Dalles as a good location for his business, and can here dispose of the slabs and sawdust at good prices, which will go far toward meeting his operating expenses.

THE CHURCHES.

Rev. C. F. Clapp will preach both morning and evening at the Congregational church tomorrow. Other services at the usual hour.

The Baptist church, Rev. O. D. Taylor pastor, will hold service tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school follows this service. There will be no evening service. If the weather is cold or inclement the service will be held in the prayer room, as the furnace is not completed.

Methodist Episcopal church, corner of Washington and Fifth streets, Rev. J. Whisler, pastor. Sermon by Rev. H. K. Hines at 11 and 7:30; Sunday school after morning service; Junior League at 5 p. m.; Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.; class meeting Sunday at 10 a. m. and Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.; prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m. ### THE PORTLAND EXPOSITION.

An Observer Speaks of it in Terms of Highest Praise.

The exposition is fine. Liberati is superb. The President informs me they will continue it all next week. The exposition is worth seeing, you bet. "Custer's Last Rally" is a painting of great merit, and is worth one's while to travel 100 miles to see it. It took two years to paint it, and is worth $15,000—just think of the sum, fifteen thousand dollars for a painted bit of canvass 18x11 feet. On the whole, the art gallery is a credit to Oregon outside of the "Custer Rally." Some has said the fair is not as good as formerly—I must differ with them. The critics are those who have been to Chicago. The Portland fair or exposition is superior to all former ones. It is really stupendous and not only Portland but all Oregon ought to feel proud of it. OBSERVER.
