and many are the questions that have been asked us about the

Handkerchiefs

which we displayed Saturday evening. To satisfy their curiosity, we state that early in the summer we placed a generous order with the New York representative of a Swiss manufacturer, and these are the goods that called forth so much admiration.

A Satirical Mess From Miscellaneous News Bits.

"To tell the truth," says young Miss Ruth,
"if that new baby sister had gone away elsewhere to stay, I don't think we'd have missed her."

Snow fell at Antelope a week ago Saturday.

Ducks are very plentiful along the river and lakes.

The Regulator took out 700 head of sheep this morning.

N. Harris' auction sale will be continued later on, of which due notice will be given.

The sewer ordinance is being enforced in a new way, judging from the numerous overturned outbuildings below the bluff.

The CHRONICLE has held the forms later than usual this evening waiting for the senate in Washington to vote the repeal bill, but up to 4:15 Pacific Coast time no vote had been taken. The senate chamber is, however, crowded with members, waiting to vote.

5:05.—The repeal bill passed without amendment.

At the balloon ascension Saturday, the aeronaut dropped a lot of handbills when he had ascended several hundred feet. For this service the balloonist charged $2.50. They were found to be base & Mays' bills announcing their messing contest, and is in line with the firm's enterprise in advertising, which is as ingenious as it is varied.

Our show window was recruited Saturday by some mammoth potatoes grown by Mr. Phil Wagner and some onions by Mr. L. A. Sears, of 8-Mile.
The murphys are splendid specimens of their class, none of them weighing less than two pounds, while the onions, of the Red Weathersfield and Yellow Danvers varieties, would "make the angels weep."

To new subscribers and those who pay up arrears and renew we give them the paper twice a week until January 1st, 1894. Do not miss this opportunity, as it is the best you are likely to ever have. Our offer is better than that of any other paper on the coast. Just think—twice a week for all of '94, and the balance of this year, included, for only $1.50—eighteen issues free.

A number of gentlemen of Goldendale and that county have organized what is to be known as the Klickitat Fish and Game Protective Association. The object of the association, as stated in the first article of the constitution is "the protection of the game and fish of our valley, the propagation of game, especially the Denny pheasant, and the securing united effort for opening our water ways for the migration of fish."

Pease & Mays store was packed Saturday night to witness the result of the guessing contest. The Mandolin club made the fleeting hour pleasant by a series of sweetest selections. The judges found the jar to contain 8,972 beans and the pumpkin 575 seeds. Two tied on the seeds, Mr. Otto Kochler of Bake Oven and Wm. Healy of Grants.

These have been notified of their "election" and will settle it between them who will carry the handsome gentleman's watch. Mrs. W. H. Wilson won the ladies watch, guessing 8,995.

Mr. Jeffers Taken to the Asylum.

Mr. W. J. Jeffers was taken to the insane asylum at Salem Saturday night, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Phirman.
The unfortunate gentleman was one of our oldest and most respected citizens, and the current of misfortunes, extending over a period of several years, which would have driven a man of less stern mould to destruction, has failed to shake him from a course of righteous living.
"Melancholy has claimed him for her own," but no voices have gained a foothold with this sturdy son of old Scotia.
The recent shooting at his son-in-law was not a responsible deed and the trial pending against him will of course be dismissed. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffers have been living with a little daughter on a homestead near this city, entered within the last year. They will still reside on the homestead and do the best they can without the help and counsel of the husband and father, for whom they had a deep and lasting affection. Insanity is the greatest curse endured by a mortal, and it is sincerely to be hoped Mr. Jeffers will be restored to reason and his family ere long.

GENTLEMEN.—I am subject to periodical attacks of sick headache of the worst possible type, and Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this remedy has been taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it's the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquifying the mucous and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties.

No other will cure a cold so quickly.
For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

Board of Equalization.

The county board of equalization will meet at the court house on October 23d, 1893, for the purpose of equalizing the county assessment roll for this year's assessment. The board will continue in session one week. JOEL KOONTZ, County Assessor.

Crooked Crain.

Sheriff W. A. Booth of Crook county passed through The Dalles this morning, en route to Salem with Chas. Crain, sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for larceny. The prisoner is only 24 years old, and has a wife but 15 and a baby. She has gone back to her father's house to live. Stealing amounts to a passion with Crain, and it is a question with some whether he is not a kleptomaniac. On one occasion he stole the bolster of a wagon loaded with lumber, the team having been taken off for the night. He unloaded the lumber, and took the bolster home and was fitting it to his own wagon when caught. He has stolen articles for several years in the neighborhood and the people, tiring of his pecculations, had him arrested on one of the charges. The judge gave him a kindly talk, full of wise counsel, before sentencing him, and it is hoped he will be cured of his folly when he is once again a free man.

the court this week.

Rev. G. H. McGuffey, pastor of the First Christian church of The Dalles, took the train last night for his home in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky. He was accompanied to the train by many of his earnest friends and well-wishers.
Mr. McGuffey goes home for his family and will return in about two weeks. On his return he will take possession of the Leslie Butler house, which he has leased for the coming year.

I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a cough remedy is intended for use among children. I have known of cases of croup where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J. LaGrange, drug-

P. G. Carmicle had rather a tough experience in Webfoot recently. He went to Scio for the purpose of selling some bonds of the Prineville Irrigation company, and not meeting with success there he took the train for Eugene, investing about all the money he had in railroad fare. At Eugene he found the bond market paralyzed, and concluded that he had better get back to Crook county at once, so he footed it from Eugene to Scio, where he had left his team, and lost no time in getting back across the mountain.—Ochoco Review.

A Big County.

The size of Wasco county, Oregon, when she was young may be judged from the fact that in one of the old record books of the county there is a record of a marriage solemnized in 1850 at Green River, Wyoming. At that day Wasco county extended from the Columbia river to California and from the crest of the Cascades to the crest of the Rocky mountains. Colonel Sinnott of the Umatilla tells of a deputy sheriff of the old county who once arrested a man in what is now Wyoming and the winter happening to set in about the time of the arrest the prisoner had to be brought back by way of New York and Cape Horn. If the writer does not forget the Colonel's version, when the sheriff returned with his prisoner the court and witnesses were all dead and the prisoner had to be turned loose.— Goldendale Sentinel.

Put to Flight.

—All the peculiar troubles that beset a woman. The only guaranteed remedy for them is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For women suffering from any chronic "female complaint" or weakness; for women who are run-down and overworked; for women who are expecting to become in hers, and for mothers who are nursing and exhausted; at the change from girlhood to womanhood; and later, at the critical "change of life" —it is a medicine that safely and certainly builds up, strengthens, regulates and cures.

If it doesn't, if it even fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

What you are sure of, if you use Dr.
Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is either a perfect and permanent cure for your Catarrh, medicine promise to pay you the money, if they can't cure you.
