LEE GUM KILLED.
Was One of the Robbers of the First National Bank.

Lee Gum, one of the three Chinamen who robbed the First National bank of The Dalles a few years ago, and afterwards made a confession, implicating the others and set free, has been found dead in Portland. It is thought here he has undoubtedly been murdered by some of his accomplices in revenge for his action. Lee Gum was the first correctly-suspected party of the robbery. He had packed his trunk and put it in the express office, and instead of paying no further attention to it, stood in front of the express office for half a day watching it. This led officers to break open his trunk and make a search, when a part of the stolen treasure was found. He at first made foolish answers to questions, but finally broke down and told the whole story.

The Oregonian relates the circumstances of the killing, but is at a loss to know whether it is a case of murder or suicide:

"The dead man was employed in Quian Lee's wash-house, on Couch street between First and Second. He was strong and healthy, 23 years of age, and a hard worker. Lee Tong, who appears to be foreman of the gang employed in the place, says that Lee Gum had been sick, and was lying on a bunk on the second floor about 1:30 yesterday afternoon, when Tong went to visit him. Tong found Lee lying on the floor, with the revolver grasped in his right hand. There was some life in the body, and the boss Chinaman, Lee Roy, was sent for. He in turn sent for Dr. Giltner, and pending the doctor's arrival the wounded man was lifted to his bunk. When the doctor arrived the body was lifeless. According to Dr. Giltner's opinion, it had been in that state for some time. Coroner Hughes was then notified, and he had the body removed to the morgue.

"Lee Tong claimed that the deceased was subject to attacks of heart disease, and during the past few days had been suffering from a severe attack. He asseverates that Lee Gum committed suicide because he did not like to be sick. Other Chinamen residing in the house say they did not hear the pistol shot, and when an attempt was made to question them last evening they were painfully ignorant. Lee Roy insisted that Gum had gone away and would be back in a few days.

"The circumstances have given rise to a strong suspicion of murder, for Chinamen are very rarely guilty of self-destruction. Coroner Hughes intends to sift the matter to the bottom. He will hold an inquest over the body at three o'clock this afternoon."

Put to Flight

All the peculiar troubles that beset a woman. The only guaranteed remedy for them is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For women suffering from any chronic "female complaint" or weakness; for women who are run-down and overworked; for women who are expecting to become mothers, and for mothers who are nursing and exhausted; at the change from girlhood to womanhood; and later, at the critical "change of life"—it is a medicine that safely and certainly builds up, strengthens, regulates and cures.

If it doesn't, if it even fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

What you are sure of, if you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is either a perfect and permanent cure for your Catarrh, no matter how bad your case may be, or $500 in cash. The proprietors of the medicine promise to pay you the money, if they can't cure you.

A Scary Mass From Miscellaneous News Bits.

Five men on this terrestrial ball less reason had at feet to front. He lived and died estimated by all—You see he never was found out.

Pease & Mays today received an invoice of children's cloaks.

There will be a cabinet meeting of the Epworth League tonight.

We are again indebted to Senators Dolph and Mitchell for valuable public documents.

Mr. Chas. North is buying a large quantity of late-keeping apples and storing them.

Range grass is better in the southeastern part of Crook county than it has been in the last five or six years.

The Chrysanthemum tea that was announced to be given by the Ladies' Aid Society has been postponed until the fore part of next week.

The steamer Regulator left her dock this morning with a heavy cargo of wheat, wagons and fifty head of hogs, which are to go to Seattle, Wash.

A motion was argued this afternoon before Judge Bradshaw to dissolve the injunction in the case of Sabin vs. Knightly and Johnson, Cascade Locks.

John Kotter, a German, swore allegiance to America today, but there being prospects of war with Germany, he still cherishes the fondest recollections of the Fatherland.

The grand march at the domino party tonight will begin at 8:45 sharp, and all persons in costume are requested to be present at that time. All invitations must be presented at the door.

Mr. John Hanna brought in some fine Empire state and Garnet potatoes today, which he is anxious for some farmer to try for seed, believing that no further improvement of the potato is possible. They are certainly very fine.

The passage of the repeal bill has produced a buoyant tendency on the people, even the wheat market feels its influence for better prices. Our neighbor says: "Why, God bless you, yee, I had sweet potatoes for breakfast this morning, the first since the November election.

SHOCKS.

Points of Interest Concerning The Dalles Electric Light Company.

The fly wheel weighs 12,000 pounds. C. B. Cushing is the engineer, and very proud of his new engine.

Incandescent lights come in 4, 8, 16 and 32-candle power. An arclight has a 2,000-candle power.

J. A. McArthur is the tallest electrician in the state, standing 6 feet 4 in. in his stocking feet.

The link belting weighs 12 pounds to the square foot, and the total weight of the large belt is 1,000 pounds.

The engine is a Corliss, having a larger horse-power than any in town. The only other Corliss in the city is the engine of the Diamond Flouring Mill.

Twelve hundred 16-candle power lights burn in The Dalles. The estimate is made up from the various candle powers, the sum named being a total. There are also forty-two arc lights which shed their radiance nightly.

Scarcity of Change.

There is a great scarcity of small change in the city, and any considerable amount of it would almost command a premium at the banks, who are now cashing wheat checks, nearly all of which end with some fractional part of a dollar. The cashier experiences something like a severe pain when he cashes a check for — dollars and five cents, for then he must part with a half, a quarter and two dimes. While the banks are continually disbursing small change, there is very little received back, and the question "Where does it go?" would be hard to answer. Two years ago when Forepaugh's circus was here a local bank bought up all the silver the show had, something over $6,000. The last of this is now going, and the question of what to do when this is gone is already commencing to be troublesome.

A Hog Story.

Born, eight pigs one year ago, twelve pigs seven months ago and eleven pigs two months ago, to the same white China sow, the property of Lee Henkle. After feeding them on 45-cent wheat only two weeks, the eight pigs were marketed Monday and brought $64.85. With $64.85 cash on hand, twenty-three pigs and the original stock who can say that crops never fail in Oregon, and that hog raising don't pay?—Corvallis Times.

A New Barley.

A valuable new barley is the Egyptian variety. It yields more to the acre, at the same time being richer and making better feed. It is superior for soup and when ground and treated like corn meal, makes bread impossible to distinguish from corn bread. Call at THE CHRONICLE office and see sample.

The Montgomery Advertiser

THE MARKETS.

Business Still Slack, but Better Prices Confidently Expected.

TUESDAY, OCT. 31st—Business has not increased in volume, but locally there has been a fair trade for the past month. Dealers have been constrained to sort up in stock and feel their way until the movement of the crops began. Since that event, with the extreme low price of wheat, transactions have been limited. Prices of dry goods and groceries continue unchanged, and traffic is confined to a hand to mouth order. Produce movements are quite free on rather fluctuating market. Eggs are very scarce and dear, on a steady market.

There is no change in other products. Fruit, that is good for keeping purposes, is in fair demand for shipment.

The wheat market is steady with a firmer tendency abroad. The repeal of the Sherman law is expected to influence the grain markets as well as all others, and as a result, better prices will prevail in all lines of business throughout the length and breadth of America. The telegraphic report of a collapse is merely on the surface and a reaction is sure to follow.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Potter, of Goldendale, is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Ryan.

Mr. C. F. Patterson, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Co., is in the city today.

Mrs. M. French, Misses Laura Thompson and Caddie Booth were passengers on the Regulator this morning for Portland.

Rev. A. Bronsgeest, who as our readers are aware is travelling abroad, writes to a friend in this city that, after having travelled through Ireland, Scotland, England and Holland, he arrived safely on the 12th inst. in Cleve, a city in Rhenish Prussia. He says that he enjoyed his trips very much and met everywhere with such fine receptions that his relations and friends might have easily spoiled him if he had not lived so long in Eastern Oregon's dry climate. From the Rhine he intends to go via Regensburg, Munich, Innsbruck by the Brenner-Strasse into Italy to visit the principal cities of that beautiful country.

During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Beneing, of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
