VOLUME 11. OREGON

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

It is said that there have been two freed Christian martyrs in Uganda at the entrance of Protestant missions into that country.

At a recent convention of the synod in China the question of Presbyterian union was thoroughly discussed, and the outlook is said to be hopeful.

The synodical missionaries of the Presbyterian church complain of the lack of well-educated, self-denying and devoted men to preach the Gospel in the southwestern territories and states.

Miss MELTON, a Presbyterian missionary at Mosul, was recently attacked by fanatic Moslems and narrowly escaped death. The Turkish government has promised to punish the assailants.

The Free Church of Scotland claims a total of nine hundred and seventy-five mission workers, Scotch and native, and last year the home contributions amounted to three hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 100 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse-power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
