OCTOBER OLIO.

A Savory Mess From Miscellaneous News Bits.

The CHRONICLE was in error yesterday in stating the fair grounds would be sold. It will be merely the improvements.

At the post mortem examination of Dr. W. E. Rinehart it was revealed that he died of enlargement of the liver and an affection of one of his lungs, instead of appendicitis, as was popularly supposed.

The case of State of Oregon vs. F. H. Lewis for embezzlement of funds belonging to the Western Union Telegraph company, was before Justice Schantz today, and on a motion of the prosecuting attorney to dismiss the case, defendant was discharged.

Those who have petitions ready to present to congress for an extension of time on the forfeited railway lands or praying that the present tariff be continued, will please forward them to THE CHRONICLE office at once. They will thus receive immediate attention.

Mrs. James Carnaby, while driving in a dog cart Tuesday evening, was violently thrown to the ground at Mr. J. L. Story's corner, by the vehicle raising upon one side, while trying to avoid a little girl. Mrs. Carnaby sustained several bruises though luckily not permanent injury.

The city is wrapt in gloom over the death of our late mayor. He was popular with all classes and it is probable his funeral will be very largely attended. All organizations to which he belonged have published calls for the attendance of members, as well as the city council and Dalles Fire Department, and all stores will remain closed from 9 o'clock until 12, so that all who wish may attend the obsequies.

Mrs. Jos. Edwards, aged about 30 years, died this morning at her home in this city, after an illness of about two months. She passed peacefully away, surrounded by her father, Mr. A. Davis, her husband and three children. Her remains will start tonight for her home in Windsor, Missouri, where her aged mother, brothers and sisters await her sad coming. The family will accompany the remains and bid a last goodby to Oregon, which has been to them a land of sorrow.

Subscribe for THE CHRONICLE, if you wish to get the news. Take, for instance, last night's edition. It contained the telegraphic reliable press report of the accident at Portland, with the names of the killed, and as full particulars as it was possible to learn. In another column was mentioned the final passage of the repeal bill in the house. No important event abroad fails to be chronicled a few hours after it happens, and for home news there is but one paper in The Dalles—THE CHRONICLE. We feel that it is pardonable, also, to mention our largely-increased circulation within the past three months, owing to a desire to please, which with us is paramount to any other consideration.

MISS THAYER WILL DIE.

The Young Lady Who Was Pushed Off the Car, Internally Injured.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 2.—This morning Miss Alice Thayer complained of severe internal pains and shortly afterwards exhibited distressing symptoms, which so alarmed her friends that they hastily dispatched for a physician. After a thorough examination he informed the sorrowing friends and relatives of the girl that he could extend no hopes of her living. The announcement was like a blow, for it was not thought her injuries would amount to much at the time. This makes the eighth victim of the fearful disaster of yesterday morning.

MARRIED.

In this city, Nov. 1, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Emery Oliver and Miss Anna Sylvester, by Rev. John Whisler.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sylvester, and was born in The Dalles where she has ever since lived. She is highly accomplished and is possessed of a most amiable disposition. Mr. Oliver has become well known to our citizens within the last year, having been employed by Paul Mohr as civil engineer, stationed at The Dalles. He is a young man of good habits and unblemished character. THE CHRONICLE extends heartiest congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver took the early morning train for Portland, where they will hereafter reside.

Real Estate.

Henry C. Baker to James Sharp of San Francisco, n.w. 1/4 sec. 1/4 section 6, township 1 s, range 14 east: $320.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Mexican Silver Stove Polish causes no dust.

Good Job Printing.

If you have your job printing done at THE CHRONICLE you will have the advantage of having it done with the most modern and approved type, with which we keep continually supplied. All jobs under the direct supervision of one of the most successful and artistic printers in the Northwest.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Charles Foeter, a printer well known in Portland, was appointed a missionary to China last week by the Baptist assemblage at Haines, Or. It is understood that he will take his departure in a few days.

It was expected that the Portland Savings bank would be reopened yesterday, but the reopening has been necessarily postponed for a short time. The postponement is due to the fact that quite a number of depositors, either intentionally or by an oversight, have failed to sign the agreements of extension.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Frank Hampton, one of Crooked river's large cattlemen, is in the city today.

Mr. Jas. Lyle, of Lyle, Wash., was in the city last night and returned home this morning.

Miss Ida Matheny and Mrs. Katie Sutliff of Heppner are guests of Mrs. O. L. Barrett, of this city.

Mr. James McMillan, a prominent farmer of Wasco, made THE CHRONICLE a very pleasant call today.

Mr. Edward Mahn, an old 49er of this section now a resident of 15-Mile, took the steamer this morning for Portland and Astoria.

Mrs. Leah Rondeau and Mrs. Reamy Rondeau of Kingsley and Mrs. M. J. Brookhouse of Dufur were passengers for Portland on the Regulator this morning.

John D. Whitten, a very prominent and successful farmer near Kingsley, called on THE CHRONICLE today. He is one of the most successful hog raisers of the country, and says he has made more profit from them than he could in any other pursuit.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

Skibbe—Edward Mahn, Boyd; A W Waker, Long Hollow; A Brenner, M. Dochanski, Portland, Miss M J Brookhouse, Dufur; Leo Rondeau, wife and 2 children, Mrs Remi Rondeau, Kingsley; A H Goye, Dayville; L V Stewart, J C Lewis, Forest Grove; R Norris, W Norris, Thos Taplin, Goldendale.

The Montgomery Advertiser

Says: "Simmons Liver Regulator has secured a reputation solely on account of its extraordinary merits as a medicine for the liver, stomach and kidneys."

A New Barley.

A valuable new barley is the Egyptian variety. It yields more to the acre, at the same time being richer and making better feed. It is superior for soup and when ground and treated like corn meal, makes bread impossible to distinguish from corn bread. Call at THE CHRONICLE office and see sample. A limited quantity of seed can be obtained for a dollar a bushel.

Tygh Valley Roller Flour Mill.

Honoring the Deceased Mayor.
A special meeting of the city council was held last night, at which were present the full council to take what action was deemed best in relation to the death of the mayor, Hon. W. E. Rinehart.

About 7:30 o'clock Councilman Hudson took the chair, stating the object of the meeting. Mr. Eshleman moved that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions upon the death of the mayor. Carried and Councilmen Eshelman, Krefit, and Joles appointed as such committee.

Mr. Butts moved that the council attend the funeral in a body. Carried.

Mr. Krefit moved that the council meet the remains at the depot and escort them to the place designated. Carried.

The presiding officer then appointed a committee of two to procure a proper conveyance for the council while attending the funeral, naming Councilman Eshelman and Butts as such committee.

Arrival of the Remains.

The remains of Dr. W. E. Rinehart arrived in the city this morning from La Grande, and were escorted to the undertaker's rooms of Crandall & Burgett, and thence to his late residence by the members of the city council. The funeral will take place from the Congregational church at 10 o'clock Friday morning, under the auspices of the A. F. and A. M., and A. O. U. W.

Rinehart, which will take place from the Congregational church at 10 o'clock a. m. All members and visiting brethren are requested to attend.

Wheelmen's Prize Cup.

The League of American Wheelmen were presented with a very handsome trophy, which was competed for in their international races last August. Henry S. Saltonstall, a member of the Elizabeth, N. C., Wheelmen is the donor of the prize. The cup is represented below. It is of sterling silver, gold lined, and stands 28 inches high.
