THE DALLES OREGON

She Likes to Get Even.
 "If there is one thing more than another that pleases me, it is to get even with a grumpy man," said a bright girl in our hearing the other day. "The other night a man and I were out walking and he asked me into a drug store to have some soda. Before we ordered he asked the proprietor if he could change a ten dollar bill and that individual snapped out 'No' as though my escort had insulted him. Leaving me seated there, my man friend went across the way, where he secured the change right readily, and when he came back we sat down to vanilla soda and lemon phosphate. When every drop was gone fifty cents was offered in payment, and I was just tickled to death when the cross old thing couldn't change that either. There we were in two drinks and the crabbed druggist had to see us depart without his pay. My friend wanted to go back and pay him later, but I told him if he did I would never speak to him again. Oh, it was just lovely," said the little vixen, as she showed her white teeth as they snapped together on a chocolate caramel and beamed in vicious glee over the memory of one poor man's discomfiture.—Philadelphia Times.

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.
 HAS A FAMILY OF 2000 READERS.
 They read The Chronicle to get the latest and most reliable news. And they read every line that is in the paper. That is what makes the Chronicle an invaluable advertising medium. The newspaper that goes to the family fireside is the one that the advertisers of today patronize when they desire to reach the people. When they want your trade their announcements will be found in the paper. Look over our columns and observe the verification of the truth of this assertion. Remember, a trade of a family of two thousand is worth asking for through these columns, especially so at our very

WINANS

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing streams and waterfalls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
