Advice to Husbands!

Don't blame your wife because she likes dress. Give her enough to enable her to dress well and you will be proud of her. Wonderful how much brighter and happier she'll be in a new dress. Woman's province is to look pretty, but she needs fine feathers to set her off. Perhaps if your wife doesn't look quite so attractive as she did when you were courting her it is because you have been stinting her about her clothes. Suppose now, for experiment, you give her a Double Eagle and tell her to come to us and take her choice of those new SUITINGS that we have just received. We know that we can please her and that you will be proud of her when she appears in her new costume. She may need a new cloak for herself or one of the children, and that want we can supply also.

Give this a trial. The result will both please and astonish you.

NOVEMBER NUGGETS.

Our Daily Clean-up From In and About the City.

Why did she give so loud a scream "As to waken the entire house?" she had looked under the bed for a burglar. And discovered a poor little mouse.

The improvements at the fair grounds were sold at sheriff's sale this afternoon. Recent frosts and rains have covered many of our streets with a carpet of richly-tinted autumn leaves.

The Regulator carried a large lot of freight this morning, including six wagons, one buggy, and a large passenger list.

How's your guess on the candy jar? Some of the guesses would fill a half bushel, while others would not fill a teaspoon.

The new clothing and shoe store will open on Wednesday next, though its fixtures, etc., will still be in an unfinished state.

Mr. Geo. Mann of this city, while at Dufur Saturday, broke his leg in a friendly scuffle. He was brought to The Dalles and Dr. Hollister attended to the fracture.

Mr. L. Rice brought in a number of Early Rose and Burbank Seedlings, raised on hill land without irrigation. They are very pretty samples, the Burbanks especially having a clear skin, almost transparent.

Dr. J. A. Geisendorfer is registered at the Umattilla house. It is understood he has come to the city for the purpose of practicing medicine and surgery, in company with Dr. A. W. Botkin. He hails from Portland.

Dr. Sutherland, who practiced medicine here a couple of years ago, has returned and has decided to make The Dalles his future home. He has secured rooms 2 and 3 in the Chapman block, where he will make his headquarters.

Twelve intelligent men of Multnomah county decided that O. P. Mason, of the Sunday Mercury is guilty of criminal libel. The verdict of guilty as indicted was returned in 16 minutes, just one minute more than it took another jury to convict Mr. Watson.—Oregonian.

The Mignonette dancing club will give their masquerade Friday night. A limited number of spectators will be invited and the affair promises to be the event of the season. The executive committee have decided that none but maskers will be allowed to dance, so everyone should be ready with a costume.

Mr. E. F. Sharp brought in several varieties of potatoes today, all of mammoth growth. Besides the standard Early Rose, there is a very shapely, large potato called the People's, which ought to become popular. A curiosity is a second growth Early Rose, having five tubers, clutching a potato of small size. It much resembles a human hand, having a wrist, five fingers and a thumb, but the fingers more nearly resemble claws.

The four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daffron of Albina died Saturday morning of membranous croup. The remains are to be brought to The Dalles on the midnight train. If so the funeral will take place tomorrow from Crandall and Burgett's undertaking rooms. The family are former residents of The Dalles.

Thousands of sacks of wheat are stacked up at railroad points above here, without a roof over them, and getting thoroughly wet by the recent rains. The greater part of it will be lost. A shortage of cars is the reason they have not been shipped. When the river is opened above and warehouses are built, the farmers will have more encouragement to work.

Death of a Pioneer Home Builder.

Hon. S. M. Gilmore died this morning at the residence of his son-in-law, Hon. John Fulton of Sherman county. Mr. Gilmore was one of the most prominent men in the entire Northwest, and lived a long and useful public life. Living, he was universally esteemed for his intelligence, coupled with benevolence and now that he is dead his virtues will stand out in bolder relief. Deceased is about 79 years old. He came to Oregon in 1845, and was a member of the territorial legislature and one of the makers of our constitution. He resided a long term of years in Yamhill county, representing that county continuously in the councils of the state. Later he moved into Washington, two miles north of The Dalles, and has also served that state in the senate halls. He also helped to frame the Washington constitution. Though he has been in public life all these years, he has never betrayed a trust, but has given to his work that zeal and warm-heartedness which has made him so widely respected wherever his name is known.

A BALTIMORE invention is designed to outfit train robbers. It is a double safe lock for express car safes. Should the messenger be attacked he throws the combination on lock No. 2 and the safe can then be opened only at the terminal station.

It has been said that the world pays most to those who kill—generals and great lords; next most to those who amuse—singers and actors, while those who preach, teach and write for the papers come along somewhere near the bottom of the list.

In splitting open a log at Middlesborough, Ky., workmen discovered a dark-brown spherical mass, which proved to be a toad. It was at first perfectly lifeless, but upon coming in contact with the air showed signs of life and soon began to hop.

A Goldendale Cutting Scrape.

A serious cutting affray occurred at Goldendale about 7 o'clock Sunday evening in front of the hotel. Two boys about 17 years old named Miller and Pierce engaged in an altercation, when Pierce drew a savage looking knife and stabbed his opponent eight times, Miller finally fainting from loss of blood. He was stabbed twice in the back, one finger nearly severed, the back of his hand was cut, and other wounds on his arm. The physician was nearly two hours in making the stitches, and bandaging. Pierce was arrested and placed under $1,000 bonds.

Before and After.

Wedding Bells.

The marriage of Mr. Dave A. Epsteyn, of Portland, and Miss Minnie Freiman, of this city, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Joseph Freiman, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, Sunday evening, Nov. 5th, at 5 o'clock. The impressive Jewish ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Abrahamson, brother-in-law of the groom, assisted by the bride's uncle, Rev. Dr. Borjes, both of Portland. Lovely cut flowers were very tastefully arranged in the different rooms, a special feature being the marriage bell of white chrysanthemums. The bride was charming in a handsome green and brown travelling gown, trimmed with velvet and fur and carried an exquisite hand bouquet of Nephros roses. After congratulations and good wishes, the guests partook of a bounteous repast, during which numerous telegrams, received from relatives and friends, were read and many toasts were drunk to the health and prosperity of the bride and groom. The bride, who has from childhood resided in this city, has won many friends by her amiable disposition and modest demeanor, and the groom, who is well known in Portland, is a fortunate benedict in having won so estimable a young lady to be his companion through life. The presents were numerous and handsome.

The wedding party consisted of Rev. Dr. Abrahamson and wife, Rev. Dr. Borjes and wife, Mrs. Gerstel, Miss Ernestine Gerstel and Mrs. Krohn, all of Portland, Mr. J. Wolf, of Silverton, Mr. Joseph Freiman, the Misses Ida and Esther Freiman, Mr. J. Freiman, Mr. L. Freiman and Simon Freiman, Mr. and Mrs. N. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. B. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. L. Newman, Miss Newman, Miss Evelyn Newman, Leo Newman and Mr. A. Tilzer.

Hood River's Company.

Col. Thompson and Lieutenant Riddell took the Regulator for Hood River this morning to make an examination of the officers recently elected by the Hood River militia company. These are Captain J. H. Ferguson, First Lieutenant U. S. Grant Evans, and Second Lieutenant S. Jones. The examination of these officers is quite searching, requires considerable knowledge and if the contestants pass is quite creditable to their abilities. It is the regular examination enforced by the U. S. army, and a marking of 75 is required for captain and 60 for lieutenant.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
