VINDICATED!
Americans Defend Their Rights at the Polls.
ENDORSE GARY'S COURSE
He Carries Chicago by a Majority of Eight Thousand.
THE ENTIRE TICKET IS ELECTED

Ohio Pronounces for McKinley and Protection.
New York Republican, but Tammany Controlled the City—Maynard Only Excepted—Kansas No Longer Populist—New Jersey in It—The Other States.

Republicans Sweep Illinois.
CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The entire republican ticket is elected. Gary will have a majority of eight thousand.
McKinley the Next Governor.
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Latest returns indicate McKinley's plurality to be between seventy and eighty thousand. He carried Neal's own town. The legislature will be two-thirds republican.

The Empire State.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The republicans have swept everything. Maynard is defeated by a vote of 65,000. The rest of the democratic ticket is defeated by 20,000. The republicans have a majority of 13 on joint ballot in the legislature. Tammany carried New York city by 60,000 except Maynard, who ran 30,000 behind the ticket.

Gov. Boies Defeated.
DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 8.—Jackson, republican, is elected governor by 30,000. The legislature will be republicans 82, democrats 42. The total populist vote was about 25,000.
Equal Suffrage in Colorado.
DENVER, Nov. 8.—Equal suffrage carries in the state, which has been a prominent issue this year, hardly secondary to the silver question. The republicans were successful in nearly all the county elections.

Nebraska's Close Vote.
OMAHA, Nov. 8.—Republicans claim the supreme judge by a small plurality. The returns come in meagrely, and nothing definite can be promised for either ticket.
South Dakota Probably Republican.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 8.—There are meagre reports received, but everything tends to confirm a republican victory in South Dakota.

Populists Claim Kansas.
TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 8.—The populists still claim Kansas, notwithstanding adverse reports.
New Jersey.
JERSEY CITY, Nov. 8.—Legislature stands republicans 50; democrats 31.
Massachusetts.
BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Greenholme has a plurality of 30,000.
Kansas.
TOPEKA, Nov. 8.—Populists are badly defeated. The democratic and republican vote is about evenly divided.
A Few in Kentucky.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—Returns

thus far show the legislature stands democrats 111, republicans 7, doubtful 20 and probably one populist. Lindsay will be elected United States senator.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3, 1893.—Ex-Speaker Reed, replying to the assertion made by Representative Bryan, of Nebraska, that it was apparent that the democratic platform did not mean what the people thought it did or that those who made it did not intend to carry into effect its declarations, said he told Mr. Bryon some time ago that he would learn the difference between promise and performance by the democrats when he came to test the matter. Speaking for himself Mr. Reed said he had no doubt the country was better off whenever the democratic party disappointed it. "The trouble with the country," said Mr. Reed, "lies deeper than the money panic." It is due to doubt as to the policy of the democratic party upon the tariff, and I expect great manufacturing depression to continue during this winter, despite the passage of the (Voorhees repeal) bill. A great many people who worked hard to secure the passage of the Voorhees bill are now acknowledging that they do not expect such great benefits therefrom and that they wished the purchase of silver stopped to prevent things from growing worse rather than because they they thought it would make them grow very much better.

The Voorhees bill was signed by Mr. Cleveland within an hour after it passed the house, falsifying the democratic prediction made on the floor of the senate a few days ago, that the president would, because of his dislike of the declaration in favor of the use of silver as money contained in the bill, not sign it but would allow it to become a law without his signature. Mr. Cleveland's dislike of silver is well known, but there are few who believed that he would be impolite enough to further advertise that dislike by declining to sign the bill, a course that would have further aggravated the silver men, without benefiting anybody.

It is understood that it is principally because nearly all of the republicans believe with Senator Sherman that the repeal of the purchasing clause of the silver law should have been accompanied by authority for an issue of bonds that Mr. Cleveland has determined to put off asking congress to authorize a bond issue as long as he can. Another reason is that he knows the proposition will be opposed by a considerable number of democrats in both the house and senate and that he will have to once more depend upon the patriotism of republicans to save him from his own party. Those whose opinions are entitled to weight say that by the time the president gets ready to send his message to the regular session of congress he will have been convinced that Secretary Carlisle's expectations as to the enormous increase in government receipts which is to enable the administration to get along without issuing bonds, belongs to the list of things that ought to be but are not, and that the message will ask for authority to issue bonds.

Another diplomatic position purchased by a democratic campaign contribution last year, was this week partially delivered by the nomination of another American who spends more than three-fourths of his time in Europe. The man is James Roosevelt; the place, secretary of the U. S. embassy to Great Britain, and the price $10,000. The nomination has not yet been confirmed, but as the nominee is a brother-in-law of $50,000 Van Alen, who slipped through so easily the other day, there is no reason for doubting that it will be in due time. The democratic idea of making things cheap apparently does not include places in the diplomatic service. Perhaps if Mr. Hornblower could have shown a receipt for a big campaign contribution his nomination to the supreme court would not have been hung up so long.

The administration has developed a bad case of crank scare since the assassination of Mayor Harrison, of Chicago. Ever since Mr. Cleveland was inaugurated his every move outside of his private apartments has been watched by private detectives, and this week the force of detectives has been doubled. Somehow the idea has got out that Mr. Cleveland has a morbid fear of assassination at the hands of some crank.

It begins to look as though the senate would soon make some radical changes in its rules, which have remained practically unchanged for more than three-quarters of a century. Several amendments have already been offered and the sentiment of the senators seems to be in favor of a change that will give a majority the right to decide when a measure has been sufficiently debated and to order a vote thereon.

The administration is just now occupying a very ticklish position in its dealings with the revolution in Brazil and the relations of several European powers thereto. A false step may lead to war.

NEWS NOTES.
Dittmar's dynamite factory at Bay Chester, N. Y., blew up shaking the surrounding country for miles around.
The latest of the explosion disaster at Santander shows the number of dead, missing and wounded is fully 1,000.
The jury in the case of Nellie Horton, charged with manslaughter in killing her lover, Charles R. Hagans, at San Francisco failed to agree, standing 10 for acquittal and 2 for conviction. The jury was discharged by Judge Wallace.
The propellers Albany and Philadelphia collided in a fog off Port au Barques in Lake Michigan. Both sank in 200 feet of water. Both crews, numbering 21, took to two boats, only one of which has yet reached shore. Eleven bodies have been recovered.

Secretary Gresham has received a dispatch from United States Minister Baker, who was on board the steamer Costa Rica at Amapala when fired on by the Honduras authorities because the captain of the vessel refused to surrender a refugee from Honduras on board as a passenger. The dispatch fully confirms the press reports of firing on the United States flag.
