Advice to Husbands!

Don't blame your wife because she likes dress. Give her enough to enable her to dress well and you will be proud of her. Wonderful how much brighter and happier she'll be in a new dress. Woman's province is to look pretty, but she needs fine feathers to set her off. Perhaps if your wife doesn't look quite so attractive as she did when you were courting her it is because you have been stinting her about her clothes. Suppose now, for experiment, you give her a Double Eagle and tell her to come to us and take her choice of those new SUITINGS that we have just received. We know that we can please her and that you will be proud of her when she appears in her new costume. She may need a new cloak for herself or one of the children, and that want we can supply also.

Give this a trial. The result will both please and astonish you.

NOVEMBER NUGGETS.

Our Daily Clean-up From In and About the City.

This is the season of the turkey's discontent; His woe cannot be told in rhyme. Between Thanksgiving and the president The esteemed bird will have a rocky time. —Welcome.

Four hundredths of an inch of rain fell yesterday.

A good program at the dime social this evening at the M. E. church and a lunch, both for a dime.

It is announced that Elder J. W. Jenkins of The Dalles will commence a protracted meeting at Dufur, Thursday evening.

Somebody is losing lots of interest on county warrants by not calling on the county treasurer. It's time they were looking into the matter, if they wish to cater to their own interests.

The Fossil Journal thus finds fault with a citizen for not posting them: Dave Chichester and wife were in town last week with a baby that appeared to be about two months old. They never told us about the birth.

The condition of Mr. H. Corson, who received a severe stroke of paralysis some time since, continues about the same. His many friends will be pained to learn that but small hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Patents were granted to the following Oregon men last week, reported by C. A. Snow & Co., Washington, D. C.: E. Berrine, Portland, coin holding and delivering device; I. W. Cabill, and L. A. Dickenson, Salem, Or., hop-carriage; I. W. Cox, Gold Hill, tongs.

According to a San Francisco dispatch, B. S. Pague, present forecast official at Portland, Or., has been selected to succeed Forecast Official Jenkins at that point, and will report for duty on the 15th inst. Pague is director of the state weather bureau of Oregon, and is unwilling to change stations. His appointment has therefore, been made for six months only, after which if he so desires, he will be returned to Portland.

The inhabitants of 3-Mile district are well known as lovers of good cheer and hospitality. So when it was announced that the Good Templar's lodge of 3-Mile would give a public entertainment Saturday, it was surely expected to be a pleasant affair; nor were the expectations in any way amiss. The school house, near Seth Morgan's place, was crowded with friends as invited guests of the lodge, and a very pleasant evening was spent. The newly-elected officers were installed, after which came a literary programme of much merit. Refreshments and a social time followed, and every one present went home with pleasant memories of the evening's entertainment.

Hot clam broth at J. O. Mack's every day at 4 o'clock.

Throughout the Country.

Hungarian prunes are good eating now at Polk Butler's.

The country roads are pretty good now, but may not stay so long.

Mr. Ed. Griffin will have to hurry if he gets a roof on his large barn this fall.

We learn that there are now over 60 enrolled in the Wamic school, with more coming in. Truly Wamic can have a school if she tries.

Mr. Wm. Heisler of Dufur will commence a protracted meeting at Liberty schoolhouse next Saturday evening. Other ministers will help in the meeting.

Those who think fruit will not grow on high bunchgrass land, ought to have seen those handsome Bartlett, Beurre d'Anjou and Winter Nellis pears; Gravenstein, Ben Davis, Yellow Bellflower, Blue Pearmain, Baldwin and Esopus Spitzenberg apples that E. W. Trout raised this year on his place fifteen miles southeast of The Dalles.

Mr. K. Montgomery of Denny Hollow lost his house by fire last Wednesday evening. He had just gathered his apple crop and stored it in the house and had considerable dry grain piled on the porch to dry. It is said the fire caught from the stovepipe in some unhusked corn that was drying upstairs. Mr. Montgomery is struggling against adversity to make a home, and can ill afford such a serious loss.

Farmers Who Lose Wheat.

Mr. J. D. Bell, of Boyd had his wheat so badly injured by the rain that he is selling it at 30 cents per bushel.

After over two months of threshing, the Haynes Bros. of Des Chutes ridge, pulled their machine in Monday.

Mr. James Philip and Emery Moore still have several bushels of unthreshed grain in the stacks, which is too wet to thresh.

Mr. I. J. Powell is threshing at the old Allen place on 15-Mile Creek. He expected to finish about the middle of this week.

After running about 8 weeks, Mr. Geo. Nolin finished or rather quit, his last job of threshing for this season, at Jas. Moore's place last Saturday.

Postponing School Till the Wheat Dries.

When out at Mr. Polk Butler's place on Des Chutes ridge last Saturday, a CHRONICLE reporter asked Mr. B. when school would commence at the Butler schoolhouse.

Mr. B. answered, "I don't know. Not till the wheat gets dry."

"Why! What's the school to do with wheat?"

"We are drying it in the schoolhouse."

And sure enough, wet wheat was spread all over the school house floor from three to five feet deep.

Notice.

There will be a special meeting of the common council of Dalles City Nov. 8th, 1893, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. All councilmen are requested to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted.

PAUL KREFT, Mayor.

GENTLEMEN,—I never sold a medicine that gives such universal satisfaction to my customers as Krause's Headache Capsules. I can speak also from experience, as they have nearly cured me of frequent attacks of sick headaches. I could get you many testimonials in this vicinity from those who have used them.

Yours truly,
C. L. COTTING,

Woodmen's Reception.

The Woodmen of the World gave a reception and entertainment at their hall last evening. Invited friends were present to a large number and a most enjoyable time was had by those who were fortunate in being entertained by such hosts. Besides the members of the lodge there were present many invited guests. A pleasant programme was rendered after which refreshments were served. A quartette composed of Balfe Johnson, Ed Patterson, Malcom Jameson and G. D. Snowden rendered a selection which was heartily enjoyed. Miss Myrtle Michell sang a sweet solo in a captivating manner. The mandolin club also delighted the audience with several selections. The Woodmen are rapidly achieving a reputation as hospitable entertainers. And their efforts last evening still more added to their renown.

County Court in Session.

County court is in session today and busily engaged on the tax roll. The members in attendance this afternoon were County Judge Geo. C. Blakeley, Commissioner J. Darnelle and County Clerk Crossen. The court will have a large amount of business this term as they will have to examine the tax roll of the assessor and act as a board of equalization. This is a good year in which to practice economy and we are confident the court will allow no claims that have not been rigidly examined.

Teachers' Examination.

School Superintendent Shelley is conducting a teachers' examination this afternoon at the court house. Six young ladies and one young gentleman are going through the ordeal. None of the results will be known for a day or two, but from the looks of the company we should judge they will all get good certificates. Those taking the examination are: Misses M. G. Hollister, Lida Johnson, Lillian Emerson, Katie Davenport, Josie Hansberry, Mary Shafer and Mr. R. A. Gaily.

Recorder's Court.

The attention of Recorder Dufur was occupied this afternoon in hearing an action in which Messrs. Thompson and Ward were plaintiffs and Mr. Holland was defendant. The trouble was over the ownership and possession of some hay claimed by both parties. Mr. J. L. Story appeared for the plaintiffs and Justice Schutz for the defendant.

PERSONAL MENTION.

MR. LIEBE IMPROVING.

The Wood-Be Assassin Leaves a Letter Explaining His Deed.

A dispatch today to Mrs. George Liebe states that Theodore is resting easily and will recover.

Hess, the would-be assassin of Theodore Liebe, shot twice at him. At the first shot Liebe fell on his face, but the examination showed only one wound, that in his head, so that he must have dropped from fright or feigned being struck. Hess was instantly killed. A letter found on his person, written in German, which was translated as follows:

TO THE PUBLIC.

On account of the badness of my uncle, I and my wife are placed in a terrible situation. It is, therefore, impossible for me to stand longer this man, Theodore H. Liebe by name, and I have come to the conclusion to take revenge upon the man who destroyed my family happiness and has made a happy life an impossibility to me. That the public may be enabled to draw some conclusion as to the cause of the step I am about to take I will explain:

About a year ago, Carl Liebe, son of Theodore H. Liebe, repeatedly asked me to lend him $70. This I finally did. He promised to pay me in a month, and, although I asked him repeatedly for it, he did not pay me. He begged me for God's sake not to tell his father. I afterward found out that he had borrowed various sums from other employes. He was under age, and his father refused to be responsible for his debts.

I considered the matter as to how I could get my money, and I made the mistake of concluding to take the money myself, and this brought about my downfall. I had hardly got half the money when I was seen and caught. Liebe had me arrested, and spared me no mercy, although I had confessed everything. He told me that it would cost me $1,000, and I would have to go to the penitentiary. My poor wife was told of the matter, and it nearly broke her heart. She begged of Liebe to let me go, as she and her child would have to suffer. But that hard-hearted man would not listen to her. My wife had procured bondsmen for me, but Liebe caused them to withdraw. I was then taken into custody again. This was August 29th. I was taken before Justice Wood, and two other men were there to go on my bonds. Liebe was there and tried to prevent Justice Woods from accepting them. He stated he had also sworn out a warrant for Mrs. Hess. My wife was nearly prostrated, as she was perfectly innocent of the whole matter. She came nearly losing her senses. But she recovered herself and went with the officer to the county jail, where I was. I will leave it to every thinking man of family to imagine the position I was in. A respectable, good, innocent woman to be brought by the brother of her father to a jail. This robbed me of my senses and I am now a different man.

I will not try to describe what more Liebe has done to bring ruin upon me and my family. He has done everything possible to accomplish this. He took these steps to revenge himself upon his niece, because some time ago she had dared to speak of his injustice in family matters. This caused him to hate my wife when she only spoke the truth.

Had Liebe not gone too far I would have passed it by, but I will now take the matter into my hands. I am a poor man, and without money, cannot get justice in the courts. I will punish the tyrant for his injustice toward my family. We have been brought into a terrible situation by him, without means and no chance of getting money. In jail for eight weeks, looked upon as a thief, my wife nearly distracted, thinking only of me and destitute; what more could be asked to drive me mad. All this has been caused by Liebe. I cannot stand to see my wife and friends ruined by my actions. I swear before my death that I never took a cent that did not belong to me. The money was due me from Carl Liebe. My wife knew nothing about it and she is innocent.

I hope the public will not blame her. No one knows what I intend to do. I do it all alone. But I will have the satisfaction of believing that I have destroyed the life of the man who has done all this.

LAST THOUGHT OF HIS WIFE.

In the same pocket there was another letter found addressed to Henry Liebe, Mrs. Hess' brother. It said:

When you have received this I will be a corpse. Take good care of my wife and child. I could stand my prosecution no longer.

Root and Branch.

The poison in your blood, however it may have come or whatever shape it may be taking, is cleared away by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's a remedy that rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses and invigorates the whole system. Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, and the worst Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, are perfectly and permanently cured by it.

Unlike the ordinary Spring medicines or saraparillas, the "Discovery" works equally well at all seasons. All the year round and in all cases it is guaranteed, as no other blood medicine is. If it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.

Isn't it safer to say that no other blood-purifier can be "just as good?" If it were, wouldn't it be sold so?
