Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.
Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.
Sold under a positive guarantee.

A SHOCKING TRAGEDY

Murder Caused by a Foolish Wife's Action.

TRIED TO DESERT HER HUSBAND

Suicide of a Woman Caused by Religious Fears--A Woman Arrested for Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—A shocking tragedy occurred at South Berkeley last night. C. W. Simons, a farmer, emptied two barrels of a shotgun into the abdomen of William Hanson at short range. Simons gave himself up to the authorities, and tells a story that on returning home last night he found Mrs. Simons drinking and carousing with Hanson, who was a farm hand. After some heated words between the two men matters were amicably settled, and the party, including Mrs. Simons, repaired to a saloon hard by to drink to their friendship. After drinking freely for some time, Simons requested his wife to accompany him home, upon which Hanson said that Mrs. Simons was going with him. The woman indicated her intention to go with Hanson, upon which Simons went home and was returning with a shotgun when he met the couple on their way from the saloon. Simons says that Hanson attacked him, and as he came against the gun both barrels went off. A neighbor, hearing the shots, got out of bed and saw Hanson's body with the clothing ablaze and Simons running away. After extinguishing the flames the neighbors notified the authorities.

Suicide Through Religious Fears.

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—When little 9-year-old Emily Clapton, daughter of one of St. Louis' leading lawyers, W. H. Clapton, came home from school yesterday afternoon, she found her mother hanging from a rope around the neck in the doorway between her own and the next room. The mother's throat was cut, and on the floor under the body was a pool of blood. An overturned chair and an open blood-stained razor showed how Mrs. Clapton had committed suicide. The child rushed screaming from the house. The neighbors and physicians went inside and saw what had happened. Mr. Clapton was at that time arguing a case in the court of appeals, where a note informing him of his wife's suicide was sent. He received it, and holding it concluded his paragraph, when he opened and read it. In a broken voice he told the court what had happened. He was at once excused to return to his home. Mrs. Clapton has been a devout church member and society leader. In her anxiety to live up to the high standard which was set as the demand of Christianity, her delicate mental poise became unbalanced. For a month past she has been imbued with the idea that through some fault she had forfeited salvation and was doomed to everlasting torment.

A Woman Arrested for Murder.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Nov. 10.—Mrs. Emily Bennett, of Vienna, was arrested today for the murder of Miss Anna Wise on August 26, and is now in jail here. She has been ill ever since the date of the crime, and was so prostrated last night that a physician was called in. Miss Wise's head was beaten with a club and her throat cut, in the public road. The case has been a great mystery, but the authorities claim to have a good case against Mrs. Bennett, though it is largely circumstantial. The woman is 46 years old, and jealousy is said to have been the motive of the crime.

Root and Branch.

The poison in your blood, however it may be taking, is cleared away by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's a remedy that rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses and invigorates the whole system. Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, and the worst Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, are perfectly and permanently cured by it.

Unlike the ordinary Spring medicines or sarsaparillas, the "Discovery" works equally well at all seasons. All the year round and in all cases it is guaranteed, as no other blood medicine is. If it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.

Isn't it safer to say that no other blood-purifier can be "just as good?" If it were, wouldn't it be sold so?

GENTLEMEN, I never sold a medicine that gave such universal satisfaction to my customers as Krause's Headache Capsules. I can speak also from experience, as they have nearly cured me of frequent attacks of sick headaches. I could get you many testimonials in this vicinity from those who have used them.
Yours truly,
C. L. COTTING,
Red Cloud, Neb.

A MOST INHUMAN HUSBAND.

Treated his Wife in a Most Cruel Manner for Years.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—According to Judge Tuley, who yesterday granted Mrs. Ella F. Quackenboss a divorce, no woman ever suffered the cruelty she suffered from a husband. The husband, William, was in good circumstances. He became angered at all his wife's relatives and barred them out, and sent all the wedding presents back. He made his wife walk 15 miles a day for her health, and take care of two horses and do the housework. If she did not meet him at the door every night and say, "William, I am so glad you came home, let me kiss you," he locked her in a room and fed her on bread and water. He kept her locked up 11 days at one time and eight at another for this. He stuffed clothes in the baby's mouth every time it cried, and when Mrs. Quackenboss wept and sobbed he counted the sobs and made her stay in bed a day for every sob. One time she was a prisoner in bed for 10 days on account of sobs.

The New Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—It is difficult to predict the effect that the recent elections will have on the tariff bill now being formulated by the democratic majority of the ways and means committee. Chairman Wilson declares the passage of the very measure now under consideration to be the only thing needed to restore public confidence and replace the democratic party on the pedestal of political supremacy, but many prominent men in the party do not agree with him, and these will counsel moderation in the tariff revision. The moderate tariff men in the democratic party were pretty effectually silenced by the overwhelming democratic majorities of a year ago, but now, that popular expression seems to have changed, they have taken heart and propose to be heard in council. The proposition to put wool, lumber, iron ore, coal and salt on the free list will be opposed in some quarters, and by strong men. There seems to be a growing desire on the part of these men for a caucus of the party to determine on the best course to pursue before the bill is reported to congress. Even so eminent a leader as Judge Culberson, chairman of the judiciary committee, has requested a caucus, and even Bland of Missouri is credited with a determination to fight the bill if it places the articles mentioned on the free list. The committee is making satisfactory progress, and expects to have the bill ready to report when congress meets.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

A New Barley.

A valuable new barley is the Egyptian variety. It yields more to the acre, at the same time being richer and making better feed. It is superior for soup and when ground and treated like corn meal, makes bread impossible to distinguish from corn bread. Call at THE CHRONICLE office and see sample. A limited quantity of seed can be obtained for a dollar a bushel.

My Wife.

For over three years was afflicted with dyspepsia of long standing. She used three bottles of Simmons Liver Regulator—her chills are entirely cured and the dyspepsia almost vanquished.
N. W. ENERHART, Hampton, Va.

Hucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Snipes & Kinserly.

NEWS NOTES.

The postoffice department has finally found out that the Columbian stamps are too large.

Mrs. Leland, widow of Major Leland, of General Grant's staff, and mother-in-law of Joaquin Miller, is dead.

Annie Pixley's remains will be cremated at Woking, Eng., on Monday and the ashes will be taken to London, Ontario, where they will be placed in the grave of her child.

A crank called at the office of M. T. Herrick, secretary and treasurer of the Security for Savings, in Cleveland, O., yesterday, with a dynamite bomb in one hand and a revolver in the other, demanding $50,000. Herrick knocked him down and grappled with him on the floor. While in this position the crank fired one shot at Herrick, through his coat. The fellow then jumped through a window and escaped.

Twice a Week.

Hard times does not deter THE CHRONICLE from being enterprising. Believing that the readers of its weekly edition would be better served by sending out the news printed in the early part of the week, it now issues the weekly in two parts, so that the people will get them Wednesdays and Saturdays. It is virtually a semi-weekly, and is almost double the value of a weekly alone. That our efforts to please are appreciated is shown by the already increased number of subscribers. Some of the features are:

- A low price for the paper.
 - A concise and full market report.
 - Washington correspondence.
 - Country correspondence.
 - Itemized Oregon news.
 - Itemized world's news.
 - Full local news.
 - Valuable hints to the producers.
 - Home advertisements.
- The last named are valuable to anyone who will make them so, and should be read by all with whom the saving of money is an object. A careful weekly perusal of the advertisements in THE CHRONICLE will save many times the cost of the paper in the course of a year. As long as the rule of supply and demand holds good, so long will advertisements be valuable and the shrewd profit by reading them.

THE CHRONICLE is only $1.50 a year, a bit a month, and no family in Wasco county can afford to be without it.
