NOVEMBER NUGGETS.

For Daily Clean-up From In and About the City.

Herrin has some new crayons and water colors in Garretson's window this week.

At Herrin's candy guessing Saturday Victor Marden and Miss Stanley tied, both guessing 500, and there were 563 pieces of candy in the jar.

Fire Warden Jud Fish spent yesterday in looking for defective flues. While so engaged he found about 100 cans of coal oil in with a lot of hay, and grain.

A correspondent asks: "How is Grand Dalles? Is it flourishing?" Grand Dalles not only sleepeth, but is dead. The flourish of trumpets will not call it forth.

Parties holding tickets for crayons at Herrin's are requested to call as soon as possible and select frames and order crayons. It is but a short time until Christmas and there are nearly 100 tickets out.

Cheeks amounting to $100,000 on a Salt Lake bank, received in payment for cattle recently sold by Crook county stockmen, have been returned protested, and it is feared they will not get their money soon.

The "Y's" will give a social at an early day. Look out for further developments. The object of the "Y's" is that of charity and any donations of clothing, etc., by individuals who have an interest in that line, please be kind enough to leave their offerings at W. A.
Kirby's.

Mr. Harry Gilpin has bought a thoroughbred Poland China boar from Mr. Edward Judy, which he will take to his farm for breeding purposes. The hog is only two months old, and will weigh about 200 pounds. The sire weighs 800 pounds.

Mr. J. B. Haverly brought in some samples of potatoes yesterday which are superior to anything heretofore brought in. He says he can furnish a ton of potatoes, which will weigh from 2 1/2 to 3 pounds each. Mr. Haverly has raised about thirty tons altogether.

The Mignonette Dancing Club will give a grand ball on Thanksgiving eve, November 22d. Preparations are being made to make it the event of the season.
Birgfield's full orchestra will be present and every detail will be attended to in such a manner as to insure success.
Over three hundred invitations will be sent out.

Mrs. Carrie Butler has the thanks of the Sun force for a basket of fine fruit and vegetables grown near her home in The Dalles, Oregon. Lacompton has long been called the "heart of the fruit growing region of Kansas," and justly too, but the Oregon samples brought to us exceed the Kansas products in size, quality and quantity.—Lacompton Sun, Kansas. The comment of the Kansas paper is very kind, but really the samples over which that paper goes into ecstasies are so inferior to others that they are but a poor representation of what Oregon can do in the fruit and vegetable line.

AT THE CASCADES.

The Quarry Giving Out and Many Stone-cutters Discharged.

Mr. John Cates returned from an extended visit to the Cascade Locks last evening. It is learned that the contractors have been compelled to lay off a large number of stone cutters in consequence of the large supply of stone being worked up and as the quarries on Hermann creek are nearly exhausted, there is no telling how soon or how long it will be before they are put to work again. A number of men have gone over to the Monahan quarry, near Sprague's landing, to examine and ascertain the quality accessible for immediate use. As far as known the rock is of excellent quality and the extent of the quarry is all that is necessary. There has been a large force put to work excavating between the upper bulkhead and the steamboat landing and the dump is being put in a fill near the government offices. This excavating is done at this time so as to avail of the opportunity during the low stage of water, and accomplish a work which must be done to keep in advance of construction. The work at the middle lock way is progressing very satisfactorily, and from present appearance the ponderous gates will be in position before the June rise.

Endorsed by the Press.

In this skeptical age statements made before being credited are generally inquired into. People are always found (some one said) on the side where their interest lies. In view of the last named truth an endorsement from one who is not interested should be of double value, hence the following frank statement should be read with interest: GENTLEMEN:—This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules with satisfactory results. I bought a box which cost me 25 cents and one capsule cured me of dreadful sick headache. My wife and myself have both used the medicines manufactured by the Norman Lichty Mfg Co. and we recommend them to the public as being just what they are represented.
Respectfully,

CIRCUIT COURT.

Strom Pleads Guilty—Valentine Recommended for the Reform School, Etc.

The grand jury this morning brought in three indictments, two against Chester Cole, and one against Albert Valentine for larceny.

Strom, the rapist, withdrew his plea of not guilty, substituting one of guilty, and he will be sentenced Friday.
The prosecuting attorney represented to Judge Bradshaw that it would be more fitting to send Valentine to the reform school instead of the penitentiary, and as he is under the required age, it is likely such disposal will be made of him. He is merely a boy, and has a bright, intelligent face.

The case is now on trial of John Thomas vs. C. L. Richmond and A. J.
Moses, which is a civil action. The jurors are J. P. Ostlund, A. J. Linton, Wm. McHaley, Chas. Wing, J. W.
Allen, G. M. Sterling, Dan Roberts, Ed.
Smith, E. C. Dickens, Lemuel Burgess, A. Grammond, J. L. Harper. Early in the afternoon a message arrived from S-Mile, with a note stating that Mr. Mc-Haley's little girl is very ill, and he was excused, and the case will be tried with eleven jurors.

AGAINST THE FARMER.

That is the Record The Dalles is Now Making.

One of the most hare-brained schemes ever devised by any city council is that prohibiting teamsters who come in from the country from unhitching and feeding wherever is convenient to them, outside of a main-traveled street, or where such unhitching and feeding does not interfere with the rights of any citizen. According to a notice published elsewhere, all the teamsters have a certain lot provided for their use in the daytime, but at night must hitch up and pull outside of the city limits, or patronize a feed yard. Such an assumption of authority is not only impolitic, but idiotic. If a farmer chooses to bring his own feed with him to the city and save expenses it is his own business, whether he does it from necessity, economy or even pen-uriousness, and his right should stand unchallenged. Furthermore, a business which will not pay unless patronage is enforced, like discriminating in favor of feed yards, is a shame to the city and a paltry method to bolster up a business.
And any city that deliberately legislates against the farmer sows the seeds of its own dissolution. A city cannot exist without the country. The country is what supports it and is the source of its wealth. Deprive The Dalles of the patronage of the farmer, and it would be as dead as Grand Dalles is in six months' time. The surest way to drive the farmer away is to antagonize him, for none are more sensitive. Naturally suspicious of the wiles of street sharks, perpetually afraid of being overcharged for goods, his rusticity continually matched against cunning, the last straw would be to place a business as well as a social bar to his entrance within the city; to give him narrow limits in a space 50x100 feet, as if afraid of contamination, and bid him not emerge therefrom, unless he goes to a feed yard and pays high rates for hay and grain, which perhaps he can ill afford. Suppose he happens to have no money to pay his feed bill, he would then suffer the humiliation of being compelled to ask credit, or drive out of town. Some come in for twenty-five miles out, and to again hitch up a tired team and drive out would be an injustice which might well engender his lasting hatred.

It is a pleasure to state that this last senseless move is opposed, not only by all merchants and citizens of the town generally, but by some members of the council as well. But pending a repeal of the obnoxious measure, the wrong should not be permitted to exist in a single instance. The marshal will probably, as it is his duty to do, notify all teamsters to confine themselves to the space assigned them by the city, or suffer the impounding of their animals.
The CHRONICLE believes the measure to be unlawful, and a trial for damages against the city should be made by the first farmer who is interfered with. If his circumstances do not permit, the expenses will be borne by the business men, who are a unit against the injustice. In this way The Dalles will regain a portion of what it has lost, though it will take years of good conduct to obliterate the impression in the minds of the country people that The Dalles as a city is opposed to them, intolerant of their presence, and anxious to relegate them to their country precincts as soon as they possibly can do their trading and get out of town.

To Accommodate Teamsters.

Mr. B. F. Laughlin, Mrs. Mary Laughlin, Mrs. Lord and Mr. Robert Mays, who own a great number of vacant lots in the East End, offer them for the use of all teamsters who wish to use them for feeding and camping purposes. Being private property, the marshal has no right to molest them.
