NOVEMBER NUGGETS.

Our Daily Clean-up From In and About the City.

A notice he forgot the fact of in a manner so slow and but in the short space of a moment or less He was twanging a harp of gold.

Another press has been added to THE Chronicle job room.

The Diamond Mills have now all the wheat they can handle and will purchase no more.

The case of Rock Alery vs. The Dalles Lumbering Co. is being tried today before the circuit court.

Mr. Alex McLeod is in the city today, and says that the farmers are plowing and sowing and the acreage will be fully up to last year's, if it does not exceed the amount.

The "Y" social will be given at the academy Saturday evening. A good programme has been prepared. The admission has been placed at 15 cents, which includes refreshments.

The sheriff and his deputies are very busy these days, serving subpoenas and the like, and even the prisoners get a breath of fresh air, as they pass through the corridor, en route to the judicial presence.

The jury in the case of John Thomas vs. A. J. Moses and C. L. Richmond rendered a verdict in favor of Thomas for $238.99 damages for a judgment rendered in Justice Doherty's court and costs of injunction.

The

are going south.

The assessor's report, published in another column, shows that the taxable valuation is less than last year, including indebtedness. But the fact is easily accounted for by the great depreciation in values of property, horses, cattle and sheep.

John Trans, a constable at the Cascades, undertook to arrest a dago yesterday, when the Italian's friends pounced upon him and handled him pretty roughly, bruising him and tearing his clothes. Another attempt will likely be made by the constable at a more favorable moment, when a charge for resisting an officer will probably be added to the simple complaint of assault, for which he was to have been arrested.

CONSCIENCE MONEY.

A Foreigner Pays Mr. Skibbe After Three Years.

Saturday afternoon a Finlander walked into Mr. Skibbe's hotel, accompanied by his son, a lad of about 17 years. He talked very brokenly and was understood with considerable difficulty. Without other preliminary he asked if Mr. Skibbe remembered buying some dressed hogs of him three years ago. Mr. Skibbe did not and then he said something about $4.85 in connection with the event, Mr.
Skibbe believing he was trying to collect that amount fraudulently on an old bill.
He paid but little attention to the old fellow and busied himself waiting upon other customers, but still the foreigner hung around, waiting for further attention. With a view to ridding himself of the collector (as he thought) he seized a less busy moment, and stepped up to him, saying:

"Well, old gent, how is it you never said anything about it all this time?"

He either did not understand or ignored the question, and, still talking, pulled out a purse, and took therefrom $4.85, and handing it to Mr. Skibbe, said, very brokenly, but which we will give in a translated form:

"Take this, I have had it over three years now. It is your money. You paid me $4.85 too much at the time I sold you the dressed hogs."

Mr. Skibbe thanked him very much, but the old fellow would not accept anything. We will not publish his name, but his residence is in Centerville. It would seem the matter has troubled him greatly ever since he was overpaid, and now that a great burden is lifted from his conscience, we will let him enjoy his good action with as little or as much publicity as he cares to give it.

Farmers Will Raise Hogs.

Mr. G. W. Lucas of Wamic is in the city. He reports the farmers in his section are very busy plowing and sowing fall wheat, and as the ground is in the finest condition there will be as much or more winter wheat sown this fall than formerly. The long distance to market and the low price of wheat, the farmers will try the hog enterprise as a branch of husbandry, and put their grain into pork instead of raising it to sell by the bushel. Wheat raising is largely unprofitable where the markets are so uncertain.

Affairs at the Locks.

CASCADE LOCKS, NOV. 13.
About 50 stone cutters were laid off a week ago at the Locks, but the contractors have been hiring all the laborers they could get for several days, past.
There are about 450 men at work there now—some say 500. The mess house and bunk house are about full. Tomorrow is pay day. The weather has been good for several days except for the east wind which blows hard and cold.

Are your children subject to croup?
If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

TAYLOR'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Discharged by the Grand Jury Only for Lack of Evidence.

The grand jury rendered "not a true bill" in the case of State of Oregon vs.
Irvin Taylor, and defendant was discharged. The circumstances of the case should prove the folly of getting too thoroughly under the influence of liquor if the individual is of a quarrelsome nature when so influenced. Mr. Taylor is a model man ordinarily, and universally respected by his associates. A few months ago, while partly drunk, he quarreled with a Chinaman well known at Antelope, and with a spirit more to frighten than anything else, he pulled out a revolver and discharged it in the floor within a few feet of the Chinaman.
The latter thereupon had him arrested for assault with intent to murder, but the grand jury, believing there was not sufficient foundation for the charge, discharged Taylor with a warning. There is no doubt that had whisky is at the root of half the crimes committed, and if Mr. Taylor will profit by his narrow escape from a term in the penitentiary he will hereafter let it severely alone.
It is bad medicine for the passions, and with an individual of his nature, substitutes recklessness for bravery, insanity for reason, and makes murder not only possible, but an accident if it is not committed.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Amos Root is in the city today.

Mr. B. F. Laughlin went below this morning.

Mrs. Lem. Burgess of Bake Oven is in town today.

Mr. R. E. Haworth is visiting his brother, J. F., of this city.

Mr. T. H. Johnston and A. J. Anderson are in from Dufur today, on court business.

Mr. T. P. Kelley of Mitchell, Crook Co., is in the city en route to San Francisco where he will remain during the winter. Mr. Kelly has several boxes of grasses, which he is taking down to put on exhibit at the midwinter fair.

Enclosed by the Press.

In this skeptical age statements made before being credited are generally inquired into. People are always found (some one said) on the side where their interest lies. In view of the last named truth an endorsement from one who is not interested should be of double value, hence the following frank statement should be read with interest.

GENTLEMEN:—This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules with satisfactory results. I bought a box which cost me 25 cents and one capsule cured me of dreadful sick headache. My wife and myself have both used the medicines manufactured by the Norman Lichty Mfg Co, and we recommend them to the public as being just what they are represented.
Respectfully,

Early Treatment of Smallpox.

It was several years ago that Galla-vardin drew the attention of French practitioners to the advantages of treating smallpox according to the plan originally suggested and carried out by John of Goidesden and Waters.
The treatment in question consisted simply in keeping the patients absolutely away from all solar light, and this solar darkness had to be from first to last complete and uninterrupted, otherwise no beneficial results could be looked for. The same authority has recently published the results of his experience with this method covering a period of some sixteen years, showing that if this plan be carried out the great advantage ensues of there being no period of suppuration, and, in consequence, the subsequent scarring is infinitesimal.

ASSESSMENT FOR 1893.

Mr. Koontz Accompanies His Report with Explanatory Remarks.

The county assessor, Mr. Joel K.
Koontz, has completed his assessment rolls for this year's valuation, and kindly furnishes THE CHRONICLE with a comparative statement for the years 1892 and 1893, as follows:

ASSESSMENT FOR 1893.	1892.
No. acres agr. land	188,900	187,184	169,038	$579,833
Wagon lands	25,620	29,525	36,541	73,082

Exemptions	150,275	150,275	160,828
Taxable property	$3,369,548	$3,369,548	$3,632,949

*Including mortgage notes, indebtedness.

In a letter of explanation to the state board of equalization he makes the following statements:

That three-fourths of the deeded land, heretofore placed at a high valuation, is pasture and grazing and cannot be justly assessed as high as that used for agricultural purposes purely.

Horses are assessed at $21.79, which is fully up to their cash value, and many have been sold for less.

Cattle have been placed at $10.75, which have often been offered for sale at this figure with no buyers at that.

Sheep at $1.50, which cannot be sold for such sum for lack of buyers.

Hogs he has placed at $4.03, which is fully as high as they are worth.

He also mentions the fact that he has assessed town property above the current cash prices.

From Mr. Koontz' letter, containing these explanations, it would be folly to suppose the state board will exceed the figures in any instance.
