Crandall & Burgett received an order this morning for a coffin to be sent to Underwood's Landing. The particulars were very brief and merely stated that a man had been found dead in his cabin near that place. The landing is just below the mouth of White Salmon.

Mr. J. S. Fish last evening packed two dozen celery, to send to a resident of Chicago, who has had a taste of the Oregon product, and who is willing to pay for the extra expense and trouble, saying he never before tasted anything so good as the celery grown in Oregon and must have some more at any price.

An undersized Chinaman was carrying two great packs of wood this morning on Second street, the load dangling from each shoulder. A noble red man who would weigh about 175 pounds was curiously watching him and laughing at him, when the celestial invited the Indian to try the load. The latter stooped under the yoke and tried to lift the burden, but it did not budge. "Heap sick," said the Siwash, and with greater respect for the Chinaman's abilities he turned to a white man standing near and curiously asked: "What kind of an Indian him?"

CLEVERLY CAUGHT.

A Murderer and Adulterer Caught by Officers and Orla Connelly.

Mr. John Barnett, sheriff at Chehalis, left The Dalles this morning with a noted desperado, captured here by Deputy Sheriff Phirman and Marshal Maloney. His name is Jack Renfrow, alias Lew Spencer, alias J. Hamilton, and he is wanted on a charge of adultery, having separated a wife from her husband in Chehalis and living with her three years. It is reported, also that he is guilty of committing a murder in Missouri.

He was caught here very adroitly.
Mr. Phirman had received word from Sheriff Barnett that a man named Ren-frow or Spencer would ask for a receipt from the postoffice for a registered letter sent to Fred Weigle, a Chehalis man, and the deputy asked Postmaster Nolan to watch for such a party. Soon Mr. O.
E. Scott, a farmer living near this city, came in and asked for mail for Lee Spencer, who, he said, worked for him.
He was accompanied by another man, and he the postmaster correctly surmised was the man. As soon as they went out Mr. Nolan asked Orla Connelly, a mere boy, who works in the store, to follow the man, pointing him out, while he went for the officers. Orla did so, and soon Mr. Phirman and Marshal Maloney appeared, who arrested him, and telegraphed to Barnett. The prisoner denied his identity, but Mr. Phirman, after a careful search, found a receipt for a registered letter just given by Mr.
Nolan, tucked away in the lining of his pocketbook, and then Mr. Phirman was confident of having arrested the right man. When Sheriff Barnett arrived he at once identified him, and though the prisoner still denied his identity, it was of no avail, and before leaving he broke down and acknowledged being fairly caught.

Strength and Health.

If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If "la grippe" has left you weak and weak, use Electric Bitters. This remedy acts directly on liver, stomach and kidneys, gently aiding those organs to perform their functions. If you are afflicted with sick headache, you will find speedy and permanent relief by taking Electric Bitters. One trial will convince you that this is the remedy you need. Large bottles only 50c. at Snipes & Kinnersly's drug store.

Are your children subject to croup?
If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Eikton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Toughs Rule at the Locks.

John Trana, a police officer of the Cascades, is in the city for the purpose of enlisting the sympathies of the county officers to increase the police force at the Locks, as he alone is powerless to deal with the rough element there, if they choose to combine against an arrest.
He wishes to correct the statement that he was treated roughly by the crowd while trying to arrest James Daniels, a stone cutter, for disorderly conduct on Wednesday. He was merely lifted bodily from his prisoner, while he was astride of his body trying to handcuff him. The same evening Mr. Trana came to The Dalles. In the night, George McCauley, a deputy who tried to aid Trana in making the arrest, was handcuffed roughly in a saloon for his interference, but was not seriously hurt.
Mr. Trana says that for weeks at a time everything will move smoothly and affairs will be as quiet as a churchyard, but some night or a holiday when they drink a little too much mineral water, they get out for a little sport and have things all their own way. For this reason he wants the force increased that order may be enforced and peace reign.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. I. C. Richards of Goldendale is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Phelps will go down to Portland and remain during the winter months.

Mrs. Mabel Powers and Miss Maie Norton returned to Portland by the early morning train.

Mr. D. B. Kelley of Mitchell, who has been in the city several days, departed for San Francisco this morning.

Messrs. Pat. McIlhenny, John Trana, Dr. Candiana and Mr. Collins, all of Cascade Locks, are in the city today.

Messrs. John Divers, Wm. Davidson, J. B. Payton, L. E. Morse and H. J. Hibbard of Hood River are in town today on court business.

Mr. J. C. Hayes of Hood River, a prominent citizen and surveyor of that section, made THE CHRONICLE a pleasant call this morning.

A letter received this morning from Buffalo, N. Y., states Mr. Linus Hubbard, of this city, is lying very ill with typhoid fever in that city. He longs for our salubrious climate, where he had better be, than in the malarial east.

Rev. E. F. Bonney of Wamic is in The Dalles today and made THE CHRONICLE a call. He has been absent in the benighted Willamette region for several weeks and promises THE CHRONICLE readers with an interesting article soon.

MARRIED.

In The Dalles, at the home of the bride's parents, Nov. 15th, Mr. Albert W. Turner and Eliza Jane Matney, by Elder G. H. Barnett.

May long life and much happiness attend the youthful pair.

Endorsed by the Press.

In this skeptical age statements made before being credited are generally inquired into. People are always found (some one said) on the side where their interest lies. In view of the last named truth an endorsement from one who is not interested should be of double value, hence the following frank statement should be read with interest.

GENTLEMEN—This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules with satisfactory results. I bought a box which cost me 25 cents and one capsule cured me of dreadful sick headache. My wife and myself have both used the medicine manufactured by the Norman Licht Mfg Co. and we recommend them to the public as being just what they are represented.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A Jury Goes to Hood River.—Business Done by the Grand Jury.

The attention of Judge Bradshaw is still being confined to the Rock Alery case. The testimony is all in and the lawyers were this afternoon speaking pro and con.

A jury took the Regulator this morning, in charge of Bailiff Jackson, to examine the premises in the case of Water Supply Company of Hood River Valley vs. W. R. Winans. The jury will arrive this evening on the 11 o'clock train, and consists of J. A. Nickelson, J. Millard, Joseph Kelley, R. H. Williams, Frank Vogt, L. P. Ostlund, Wm. McCrum, J.
W. Allen, R. G. Closter, J. Staniels, Geo. Arnold and J. McIntosh.

The grand jury has transacted the following business today:

In the case of State vs. W. J. Jeffers, not a true bill was returned, owing to his being taken to the asylum, and the probable fact that he was insane at the time of shooting at his son-in-law.

In the cases of State vs. Milton Aiken and State vs. Ed Gibson, not true bills were found, because the prosecuting witnesses have left town and there is not sufficient evidence to convict.

A true bill against Mell Kulp for assault.

Not a true bill against Richard Brook-house and Frank Watkins for driving stock from the range.

Yesterday a true bill was found against Lewis Caton for assault with a dangerous weapon, but on account of his advanced age, a bill was returned for simple assault, and he was fined $75.
