A farmer came in with 125 turkeys yesterday, and the most he was offered was 7 cents a pound. Learning that the Portland markets quoted them at 11c to 14c, he decided to send them below, as the freight will not exceed 1/2 cent per pound.

Deputy Sheriff Phirman says he will be glad to get rid of Strom, whom he characterizes as a human brute. He is continually getting into trouble with the other prisoners, and was only tamed by the "Oregon boot," the term Mr. Phirman uses for the efficient leg irons.

The ladies of St. Paul's Guild will on the day before Cleveland's Thanksgiving offer a most delectable line of toothsome viands for sale at Pease & Mays. The display of goodies will be made in one of the large windows, and all persons who are fond of mince pies will do well to call early and avail themselves of this most rare opportunity.

Don't forget the "Y's" social tomorrow evening at the academy. The young ladies have made every effort to give everyone who attends a good time and their efforts are well worthy of recognition. Those who attended the last affair of this kind had a very pleasant time and they may be sure of the same kind of a time tomorrow evening. The cause for which the young ladies are striving is a most worthy one and they should be encouraged. Besides you will have a merry evening; so remember the time—Saturday night; the place—at the academy and the admission—15 cents including a sumptuous supper.

THE MARKETS.

No Improvement on Farm Products Live Stock and Cereals.

FRIDAY, Nov. 17.—The past few days, has not been marked with any new phases in trade that is of interest. In most lines prices have undergone no material change. In groceries, sugar has declined from 3/8 to 3/4 of a cent per lb. Coffee is very firm on an advance over former quotations.

Produce arrivals continue to be quite adequate for the demand, and quotations remain steady.

Butter is a drug in the market at 35 and 50 cents per roll. Eggs are very scarce at 30 cents per dozen.

Poultry, as the Thanksgiving season approaches is in large supply, and dealers purchases are mostly for the Portland market. Quotations have not changed since our last report. Portland quotations for coops of mixed chickens are $2.00 and $3.50 per dozen. Ducks, $3 to $4 per doz; geese, $7.50 to $8.50 per dozen; turkeys, live, 11 cents per lb, dressed, 13 cts. per lb.

The live stock market attracts but little attention outside of the local demand. Prime fat heaves are a shade dearer but the advance is so trifling that former quotations are unchanged. Best mutton sheep are down to a low figure and are quoted at $1.75 to $2.20 per head. Stock sheep are quotable at $1.35 to $1.60 per head.

Hogs are sold in this market to Portland and Sound dealers at 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 cents per lb. gross, the latter price being for prime heavy porkers. As the season advances the offering will be increased somewhat. Most of the holders will pack, rather than sell at bedrock figures. Consequently there may be concessions on the part of buyers and holders.

The cereal market continues much depressed. The daily reports from Europe, New York and Chicago, which effects our own markets more or less, are cabled as "easy," a stereotyped phrase, and withal weak, and on a downward scale.

San Francisco reports, May deliveries down to $1.20 1/2 to $1.21 per cental. The major part of America's surplus has been removed and some writers suggest from that, that as the season advances the markets will improve. One comforting reflection is that buyers are not as timid as formerly, which may be construed as a healthy tone for the future.

Barley and oats, owing to the large quantities of injured wheat, are not in much demand, and feed barley is quoted at 55 cents per cental and brewing barley at 60 cents. Oats, that are slightly colored at 60 to 75 cents per cental, light and very heavy at 85 cents per cental.

The wool market is still dull, although there is a slight tendency for an improvement, owing to a feeling that the tariff laws will remain unchanged.

Endorsed by the Press.

In this skeptical age statements made before being credited are generally inquired into. People are always found (some one said) on the side where their interest lies. In view of the last named truth an endorsement from one who is not interested should be of double value, hence the following frank statement should be read with interest. GENTLEMEN—This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules with satisfactory results. I bought a box which cost me 25 cents and one capsule cured me of dreadful sick headache. My wife and myself have both used the medicine manufactured by the Norman Lichty Mfg Co. and we recommend them to the public as being just what they are represented. Respectfully, W. J. HUTCHINSON, Ed. Gazette, Pleasant Hill, Mo. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.

They Told Falsehoods.

Charles and Frank Williams, the two lads who were placed in the city jail here, will be placed in charge of Superintendent Gardner of the Boys' and Girls' Aid society. The boys have confessed that they told falsehoods regarding their names. According to the Telegram, Charles Williams is one of the boy's right name, but the other, the one with one foot only, is Roscoe Duffo. The latter maintained a stoical demeanor, refusing to say much, but the Williams boy stated that Duffo's parents lived near Denver and that his own father resided in that city. They concocted a plan to run away because of their aversion to attend school.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. There remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Snipes & Kinersly's druggists.

COUNTY COURT.

Strom Gets the Full Penalty—Mell Kulp Sentenced—Grand Jury Notes.

August Strom, the Wyeth rapist, came before Judge Bradshaw this morning to receive his sentence. The judge sentenced him to ten years in the penitentiary, the full penalty, and said he was sorry the legislature had not provided a longer term to more adequately fit the crime. In Strom's case there was no mitigating circumstances, nor could there be in cases of that kind. Strom is merely a magnificent brute, and exhibited no emotion while receiving his sentence, and when taken back to his cell went to singing. He is thoroughly caloused by a long life of uselessness.

Mell Kulp was also sentenced to a fine of $50 or 25 days for assault and battery committed upon the person of Charles Bradley.

The case of Fonts vs. Harris was given to the grand jury at 8 o'clock last evening. Fonts sued Harris for $10 before Justice Schutz and got judgment for $6, and the case is an appeal from the justice court.

The case of the Hood River Valley Water Supply Co. vs. Ross Winans was this morning placed on trial. The Supply Co. wishes to condemn water and right of way over Winans' land, for irrigation purposes.

In the case of Rock Alery vs. The Dalles Lumbering Co., the jury returned a verdict of damages for plaintiff in the sum of $4. Damages were claimed of a loss of soil by the flame overflowing on plaintiff's land.

THE GRAND JURY.

The grand jury have about concluded their labors, and this morning were busy examining the jail and county offices. An indictment against Wm. Hurst for larceny of a steer was returned, also against Thos. Pryor, Cascade Locks, for stealing checks, amounting in value to $225.

Hurst did not appear, and his bondsmen will forfeit their bonds. Judge Bradshaw has issued a bench warrant for his return.
