WILL NOT SURRENDER

The Provisional Government Are Prepared for War.

PLENTY OF GUNS AND MUNITIONS

Congressmen Refuse to Discuss Seriously the Proposition to Impeach the President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—It is said Willis' dispatch contained the statement that the provisional government has gradually accumulated munitions of war till it has on hand 1,000 rifles, two Gatling guns and four Maxim guns, besides plenty of ammunition. The available force of police officers and guards on duty in Honolulu is 280, while there is a reserve militia of 500 which can be called together on 30 minutes' notice, and there are further reserves which swell the total enrolled men of the provisional government to 1,100. It is supposed 500 more could be had from the other islands.

Senators and Congressmen Reticent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Inquiry fails to develop at the capitol any response to the suggestions from some parts of the country, most especially from the Pacific coast, that the president be impeached for his course in the Hawaiian matter. Senators and members, when asked to express themselves upon this phase of the question, refuse to consider it seriously or to discuss it at all. The most that any of them will say is no question of that kind can be properly raised at this time, when so little is positively known of the plans of the administration with reference to Hawaii and concerning its action in Honolulu. Furthermore, it is noticeable that back of all the harping on the question on the part of those who criticize the course of the government there is a feeling that there is no disposition upon the part of the administration to place the country in a position that may be permanently embarrassing or injurious to our interests or harassing to our national pride. Many do not really believe that the marines will be called out to restore the queen, whatever the circumstances under which she was deposed, and some say even if they should be they would want to see Blount's report and Willis' account of the proceeding, so as to know just what ground the government stood upon in performing this act and just how. Where Willis is known he is highly regarded as a man of just instincts and much national pride, and his friends say he is not apt to do anything rash if, after taking time to look the situation over, he finds that the president and secretary of state have been misled. He is, on the other hand, prompt to act, if his orders are imperative, if he has accepted the mission with the understanding that he is to perform this service regardless of consequences, which all who know him doubt. If he is left with discretionary powers, and after investigating the situation he should decide it was in accordance with the requirements of justice and in no wise derogatory to the interests and dignity of the government which he represents to re-throne Liliokalani, he would do so.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

MITCHELL NEWS.

A literary and artistic entertainment will be given on the 10th of this month by the Mitchell literary society.

On the 10th, born to the wife of F. Chapman, a son.

C. M. Cline, dentist of Prineville, made a stay of about three weeks at Mitchell, but from appearances business was not overtaxing.

Since the pause in rainfall the sky has cleared, the days are beautifully clear and warm and the nights bright and decidedly frosty.

Mrs. Will Brown and Miss Beryl Allen were visiting Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Horn, four days of last week. Miss Allen reports having seen potatoes of greater length than had ever been her good luck to have witnessed before. One which was raised on Mr. Horn's farm on the John Day river, measured almost two feet. These potatoes are of excellent eating quality.

Max Pritz, the miller of the Mitchell Flour Mill, holds the price of his flour without reduction, even if a man's family be in want of bread, they must not eat of his flour unless paid for in advance. A true spirit of philanthropy is shown in such acts of generosity and such rigid adherence to their present business course, which is very necessary in most cases in the present money stringency, but certainly there should be an exception to the rule.

When we look back a few years and remember the almost extravagant prosperity of this country, we cannot realize the almost destitution of many in the county so near to us, and yet it is a fact, although surprising, that some even here are in want of many of the necessities of life. Will their present hardships prove an object lesson by which they may profit, and will it prove to clear away the film from their eyes that in the future they may not commit the rash acts of the past? Although it cannot help the present, the election returns should give them courage to battle on to the right, and right is might.

E. V. E. MITCHELL, Or., Nov. 13th, 1893.

Joaquin Miller's Cabin For the Fair.

Dunsmuir News: If the commissioners will give us space, we will exhibit at the mid-winter fair the old log cabin, which was built and occupied by Joaquin Miller in the early '50s near this place. The cabin stands there now in about as good condition as when it sheltered the famous poet of the Sierras. The walls have been pierced in several places by bullets, and broken arrow heads are still imbedded in the logs. Joaquin stood off about a hundred Indian warriors one winter's day, who were storming his retreat. One arrow entered through a crack where the chinking had been knocked out, cut a swath through Miller's luxuriant hair and buried itself in the wall beyond, nailing a lock of the poet's hair to the wall. The arrow head, with the hair wound around it, is to be seen there till this day.

Look at the size of the ordinary pill. Think of all the trouble and disturbance that it causes you. Wouldn't you welcome something easier to take, and easier in its ways, if at the same time it did you more good? That is the case with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're the smallest in size, the mildest in action, but the most thorough and far-reaching in results. They follow nature's methods, and give help that lasts. Constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, sick and bilious headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

"If we can't cure your catarrh, no matter how bad your case or of how long standing, we'll pay you $500 in cash." That is what is promised by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Doesn't it prove better than any words could, that this is a remedy that cures catarrh? Costs only 50 cents.

The Australia Just Arrived From Honolulu—Everything Peaceable.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—[Special to THE CHRONICLE.]—The Steamer Australia arrived from Honolulu this morning with the latest news of Hawaiian affairs. The United Press succeeded in compiling and sending a dispatch of 2,000 words to President Cleveland a full hour before that gentleman received the government dispatches.

When the Australia left everything was quiet on the Islands, and President Dole had received no inkling of the attitude of the president in relation to restoring Liliokalani to the throne. Minister Willis presented his credentials and was received with apparent friendliness. He did not make the object of his visit known. People on the Islands know nothing of the proposed scheme of restoration of the queen.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough.
