"What makes the men love Mary so?" The jealous maidens cry.
"Oh, Mary doesn't sing, you know, And more—she doesn't cry."

Twelve spring turkeys, sold today to the Umatilla house, average 13 pounds each.

How is it that this year Christmas and New Years do not come on the same day of the week?

Mr. Frank Maloney is acting as marshal in place of his brother Dan, who is said to be ill at the house.

The Umatilla house announce a turkey dinner tomorrow evening, in celebration of part I of Oregon's dual Thanksgiving.

The grand march of the Mignonette tonight commences at 9 o'clock. Invitations are to be presented at the door.

The case of MacEachern & McLeod vs. S. B. Adams is yet on trial in circuit court, and there is nothing new to note today.

Governor Penoyer has written a letter to the Alliance Herald at Pendleton in which he announces his determination to support the populist ticket next June.

The board of physicians leave Salem today for Eastern Oregon. They will first proceed to Baker City, and visit all the points named, concluding at The Dalles.

Elton Hayden and Harry Hansburg, two boys of Hood River, were brought up before Justice Schutz today on a charge of larceny of a boat at Mosier. They were discharged.

Two drunks before the recorder this morning. One of them very considerably left himself in the marshal's office, and all that functionary had to do was to open the door and drag him in.

Tickets for the literary and musical entertainment to be given by the sisters of St. Mary's academy, Nov. 30th, can be obtained at Blakeley & Houghton's, H. Herbring's or J. P. McInerney's.

The Ladies Aid society are making arrangements to give the finest entertainment of the season on the evening of the 19th of December. Our own local talent will be assisted by some outside, which are celebrated in this line.

Yee Hop & Co., who have been in business on First street, keeping a China store, about three years, have closed out to Chew Kee & Co. There is little social difference in the characterization of the firm, but it is a business change nevertheless.

It is so seldom that a tramp knocks at the door of any of our good people, requesting a hand-out, that it has come to be a rarity. The reason is owing to the vigilance of our marshal, who is more persistent when on the trail of one of those gentry, than a Jersey mosquito after the summer tourist.

Those who do not dance need not stay away on that account from the Mignonette dance this evening. There will be lots of spectators there just to hear the music and see the crowd. All arrangements have been completed for having a large crowd of dancers and spectators. The hall is beautifully decorated.

The public schools will observe Thanksgiving day, as designated by the governor tomorrow, also the one appointed by the president a week later. It has been customary with the schools heretofore to close Friday, as well as Saturday, but this year the schools will be in session both Fridays, as usual.

"Uncle Jerry" Rusk, whose death is reported in our telegraphic columns, was in The Dalles with President Harrison a few months prior to the last presidential election. Though he made no speech, he showed his genial countenance with others of the distinguished party, and answered good-natured repartee from some Wasco county admirers.

What a rascally set of officers they have in Multnomah county, to be sure, if we are to accept the grand jury findings as true. Our own grand jury have just adjourned, and it has been an exceptionally good one, and if anything was wrong with the Wasco county officers we know they would have said so. The latter are identical with Caesar's wife in one important particular.

Pleasant weather prevails here. Farmers in this vicinity are busy plowing and sowing.

The orchestra is practicing every evening for the coming social.

The chopper runs every Saturday which makes our lively town more lively in appearance.

Several new houses are being built and our town is growing, although Cleveland is our president.

The Delphian Literary society is to give a social on the 24th of November and a good time is anticipated.

A Revival of Good Times.

THE CHRONICLE has it from reliable authority that on the first of the month loaning agencies in Portland will have plenty of money to loan on good security. This will mainly come from the east, which is already experiencing easier times. Investment is being sought and money has come out from its hiding places and good city and county bonds are being eagerly sought as investment. This money will find ready employment, and will be used for improvements, payment of debts, etc., and thus reaching the channels of trade, our monetary stringency will soon be at an end. It is safe to say that spring will see a revival of good times, and the vast army of the idle will for the most part again find employment.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. T. M. Whitcomb of Lyle is in the city today.

Mr. E. B. McFarland, of the Oregon National Bank of Portland, is in the city visiting old friends.

News has just arrived that the Rev. Mr. McGuffey, pastor of the First Christian church of The Dalles, is lying very ill at his home in Kentucky.

Mr. J. B. Wheat of Sherman county called on THE CHRONICLE office today. He informs us that the farmers are not in the least discouraged on account of the severe loss sustained by the heavy rains and low prices of wheat, but are more industrious this fall than ever in sowing winter wheat, and it is his opinion that Sherman county will produce more grain the coming year than ever before in its history.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, as we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. There remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Snipes & Kinerly's druggists.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

The Multnomah county grand jury found true bills against three of the highest officers of the county. These are Treasurer Charles A. Malarky, Sheriff Penumbra Kelly, and County Clerk T. C. Powell. The bill against Malarky charges that he is guilty of "nonfeasance in office," for not filing a report of moneys received, etc., for the six months prior to his qualification as treasurer. The charges against T. C. Powell, the county clerk and the sheriff, Penumbra Kelly, are substantially the same.

About 4 o'clock Monday afternoon some laborers on Union avenue in Upper Albina saw a woman throw a bundle from a window. Investigating they found it to contain a still-born infant. The matter was at once reported to Officer Hunter, of the Albina police district, who took charge of the child's remains and sent them to the West Side station. Here City Physician Wheeler's attention was called to it, and he went to the house from the window of which it was thrown. He found it to be the child of a domestic employed in the family, and she had thrown the lifeless body of the infant into the street thinking thereby to conceal her shame.

A FORBIDDEN SONG.

The Only Tune It Was Not Permissible to Play in the Dance Hall.

I recall an interesting scene in Arbour's old dance hall in Silver Cliff in the winter of 1878-79, writes a Denver correspondent. The Silver Cliff excitement then ranked only second to that of Leadville, and thousands were rushing to the new Eldorado. The great dance hall was crowded with miners, prospectors and tenderfeet. Two sets of dances had been on the floor all evening. Two long rows of gaming tables had also been running at full blast, and at midnight there came a lull in the dancing for lunch. Some of the boys took possession of the platform, and a young fellow dressed in jacket and overalls threw his slouch hat back on his head and struck up some familiar tune on the piano. There were about a dozen in the party who joined in the singing. Suddenly one of the boys started up "Home, Sweet Home." The young man at the piano struck in with an accompaniment, and that old-time song of loved ones and home association began to fill the great hall. "Pop" Arbour was soon seen rushing toward the orchestra platform. He had no objection to Gospel hymns, but entered a protest at "Home, Sweet Home."

"Don't, boys; don't sing that song here."

"Why not?" asked one of the boys.

"You will make all of the girls homesick and break up the dance hall. Sing any song you want to, but not 'Home, Sweet Home.'"

She Had It All Planned.

Whoever has seen a Cornish funeral knows how "Ilka lassie" has her laddie in the melancholy procession, and not only are there lads and lasses, but more mature couples. It is a matter not only of ceremony, but choice. A clergyman was ministering the other day to a parishioner whose end was approaching, when the voice of the sick man's wife, who was something of a virago, made itself heard through the open window: "I don't care what comes or goes, but I will not follow the corpse with a little man."
