NOVEMBER NUGGETS.

Our Daily Clean-up From In and About the City.

He searched his pockets through and through. Yet felt no jealous thrill. Though she found some lines from an old, old name, A great unpaid gas bill.

In connection with the entertainment on the 19th of December there will be Kris Kringle doings.

Will the party who got the wrong "Derby" hat at the ball please return it to Garretson's jewelry store.

A number of friends of Miss Lizzie Schoelling surprised that young lady last night at the residence of Mrs. Fowler. A very enjoyable evening was passed by those present with games and refreshments.

The new piece of road on Union street is likely to be washed away this winter by the rivulets of water which are already making it sippy. It does no good to build a road without providing a place at the side for water to run off.

A late edition of Webster's dictionary has just been received at this office. It is the most complete instructor upon the English language ever published. Webster keeps up with the times and the language which undergoes daily changes. It should be the standard with schools and families, and after purchasing it, you are sure of having "got the best."

Mr. A. McCorkle, a young man about 20 years of age, was killed in Sherman county near Kent. His body was found Sunday evening and it is supposed he was run over by a wheat wagon upon which he was seated, and driving four horses, the inequality of the road at that point throwing him out. His father, Mr. W. M. McCorkle, is well known in the Tygh valley section, and his son's violent death will be deeply mourned.

Improving Second Street.

According to a notice published elsewhere, Second street is to be improved from Union to the brewery hill grade. If properly made, this improvement will be a great blessing to farmers and teamsters generally. After the street is once fixed everyone will realize the great benefit and none will begrudge the necessary expense. This will also, probably, make the way easy for improving Ninth street in the same manner to the wagon bridge, and thus help out the great number of teamsters who use that thoroughfare.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

No More Democratic Presidents.

Dr. D. Siddall, who has just returned from an extensive eastern tour, has had a good opportunity during his absence to note the political pulse. He says that throughout the states the feeling against the administration is intense and that he will never live to see another democratic president. In Canada, where he has also been, the people closely watch the politics of the United States, becoming almost as much interested in them as those across the border. They are very bitter against the democratic management of affairs and while they have no vote, have an undoubted influence in political campaigns in New England and New York. In Colorado there are no democrats and no democratic newspapers can be purchased in Denver. The doctor speaks very highly of the world's fair and was present at its closing. He also visited himself of the opportunity of visiting many of the leading dentists and colleges in Canada and the United States, and obtained many new and useful appliances pertaining to dentistry, and brought with him an entirely new invention for making the cast aluminum plate work which is now all the rage in the east. The doctor has made a specialty of this beautiful work for the past four years, and claims to be the only one who has ever made a success of it on the Pacific coast.

A SHAKE-UP.

An Explosion at the Cascades Greater Than Anticipated.

Early this week a blast was set off at Cascades which resulted in considerable damage, and the discharge of the one who engineered it, though luckily no fatality occurred. One hundred and fifty pounds of giant powder had been placed in the canal, at different points which were set off simultaneously by electricity. A tremendous upheaval resulted. A body of earth and rocks containing many thousand cubic yards was thrown into the air and the whole vicinity shook with the force of the explosion. The glass was shattered in the commissary department, and one huge rock crashed through the roof of the engineer's house in the canal. It is thought by some that a part of the charge was placed in a natural crevice of which the operator was ignorant, rendering a much less quantity of powder sufficient for the purpose. At any rate the manager of the blast was discharged, and the general shaking up will render his successor more careful in the execution of this part of the work.

This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules periodically for over one year, and have very much pleasure in stating that they have always proved beneficial and have relieved me in from ten to fifteen minutes. I have been a sufferer from headache for many years, and have never found anything to do me as much good as Krause's Headache Capsules. Yours truly, LOUIS HEAMAN, 2418 Poplar St., Wichita, Kan.

Oregon at the Midwinter.

Senator Steiwer and others report to the Telegram that they are in favor of transferring the unexpended balance of money used for the world's fair to the use of the midwinter exposition at San Francisco.

Wishing to gain the opinion of our representatives, a CHRONICLE reporter conferred with Hon. E. N. Chandler upon the subject, who said: "Most assuredly, I am heartily in favor of spending the balance at the midwinter exposition, which is really but a continuation of the world's fair. I am in favor of spending every dollar of it at San Francisco."

Hon. T. R. Coon of Hood River has not yet been heard from, but it is very probable he will be of the same opinion. Those who are best acquainted with him here say there is no doubt but that he is of the same sentiment and will heartily endorse this use of the tied-up balance of the appropriation.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

THE MARKETS.

Better Prices Looked for After Thanksgiving.

FRIDAY, Nov. 24.—The snow storm, together with the first edition of the Thanksgiving season, has to some extent been the cause of a partial suspension of trade in the city. The principal business done is in the grocery and provision line. There has been no change of note in anything. Eggs are very scarce in the market, and 30 cts. per dozen cash is freely paid. The market is well stocked with fruit and all kinds of vegetables and former quotations are unchanged.

The grain market continues steady and presents no new phases worth noting.

Eastern markets have a better tone in the last few days. The bears have it all their own way, however, as the bulls seem too timid to attack the great den. Clapp & Co's. letter of the 17th inst. says that it has no doubt but prices will improve after the Thanksgiving season is over, and buyers will be more eager to discard the nebulous reports and try the field for handsome gains.
