A DELIGHTFUL MEETING.

The Loving Kindness Often Noticeable Between Women.

They met in the calm of a lovely day. Soft breezes whispered sweet messages to the budding trees and even the salesman at the bargain counter wore a more charitable look.

They met and greeted.
"Oh, dear," exclaimed the lady in green and white with gilt trimmings, "it's an age since I saw you."

"Yes, indeed," ecstatically rejoined the lady in white organdie with pale-blue flowers wrought in the fabric, "it was getting almost insupportable."

A pause of one-sixteenth of a second ensued.

"Well, I declare, if—" The lady in green and white was gazing fixedly at the lady in organdie.

"Gray hair is positively becoming to you. Isn't it perfectly delightful? I am so glad gray hair is such a trial to many."

"Yes, to be sure."

There was another pause.

"I'm so glad—"

The lady in organdie was earnestly contemplating the lady in green and white.

"You are still able to make your dresses fit in spite of your getting so fleshy. Isn't it fortunate? Fat is such a thorn to most people."

"Yes."

There was a little more silence.

"Well, good-by," chirped the lady in green and white.

"By," cooed the lady in organdie.

"I hope it won't be so long till we meet again."

"Oh, my, yes. I couldn't endure it. Really."

That was all.—Detroit Tribune.

WINANS

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large, slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil and pure water, with shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 100 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse-power in its dashing streams and water falls, easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufacturing factories will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
