THE NEW TARIFF BILL
Free List Will Satisfy the Most Radical.
A REPUDIATION OF RECIPROCITY
Wool, Coal, Lumber, Salt and Iron Ore on the Free List—Agricultural Implements Free.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The new democratic tariff bill is given out. Its provisions fulfill every expectation of those who predicted it would be a measure of radical reform. In many respects it is a surprise even to democrats, as it is unprecedented in many provisions. The free list is of liberal scope, sufficient to satisfy the most radical advocates of reform, and the repudiation of the principle of reciprocity is decisive and emphatic. Thus the bill, in addition to tariff reforms, will, if passed, necessitate the readjustment of treaties with South American countries, which enjoy practical or theoretical reciprocity with the United States. The bounty on sugar, instead of being repealed at once, will be repealed by easy gradations and will not reach the full effect till after the close of the present century. Beginning March 1 next, the following articles are added to the free list:
Bacon, hams, beef, mutton, pork, meats of all kinds, prepared or preserved, not otherwise provided for; baryta, binding twine made in whole or part ofistle or tannic fiber, manilla, sisal or sunn, single ply, measuring not more than 600 feet to a pound; millinery, bird skins prepared for preservation; blue vitriol, bone, car coal, bituminous and shale and slack or cut; coke, coal tar; colors or dyes not specially provided for; oxide of cobalt, copper ores, old copper, clippings of new copper, all compositions of which copper is the chief component of value, regains and black copper, and copper cement, copper plates, bars, ingots, pigs, other forms; coppers, cotton ties; diamonds, dust or bort, jewels used in the manufacture of watches and clocks; yolks of eggs of birds, fish and insects; crude down, fresh fish, undressed furs, iodine; resublimated iron ore, including magniferous iron, dross of burnt pyrites, sulphur pyrites in natural state; lard, lemon juice; mica and crude metallic minerals and unwrought metals, ochre and ochrey earths, sienna and sienna earths, amber and amber earths, cottonseed oil, paintings and statuary, plows, tools, disc harrows, harvesters, rapers, drills, mowers, horse rakes, cultivators, threshing machines, cotton gins, plush black for making men's hats, quicksilver, salt, silk not further advanced in manufacture than carding of combing, soap, not otherwise provided for, sulphate of soda, or salt cake or nitrate cake, sulphuric acid, tallow and wool grease, straw, burrstone bound into millstones, freestone, granite, sandstone, limestone and other building or monumental stone, except marble undressed, all wearing apparel and other personal effects on identity being established under regulations to be established by the treasury, timber, sawed boards, planks, deals, other lumber, lath, palings, shingles, staves, manufactured wood, provided the same duties as now exist shall obtain in all cases in which an export duty is laid on any article in the above schedule; chair cane or reeds, woods, namely cedar, lignum vitæ, lancewood, ebony, box, granadilla, mahogany, rosewood, rattan, wood, all forms of cabinet woods, in the log, rough or hewn, manufactured bamboo and rattan, manufactured brier-root or brierwood, reeds and sticks of partridge, hairwood, pimento, orange, myrtle or other woods in the rough; all wool of sheep, hair of camel, goat, alpaca and other like animals; wool and hair on skin, nolle, yarn, waste, card waste, burr waste, rags and flogs, including all waste or rags composed wholly or in part of wool.
From the Governor of South Dakota.
GENTLEMEN—Enclosed please find postal note for $1.00 for Krause's Headache Capsules; never failed to cure my headaches and save me a world of suffering. I am recommending them everywhere. The druggists of Aberdeen, Hecla and Britton, Marshall county, all promised me to get them and keep them in stock. I am going to Colorado in June, and I shall do you good there among the miners, nearly all of whom suffer from headaches in that high altitude.

WASHINGTON LETTER.
How the Hawaiian Matter is Viewed at the Capital.
From our Regular Correspondent.]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24, 1893.
"Support my tariff bill or you will get nothing from the administration," is the ultimatum which Mr. Cleveland has given to those democratic congressmen who are disposed to protest against the wholesale crippling of various industries in their districts that the new tariff bill will bring about, should the schedules as prepared by the direction of Mr. Cleveland be allowed to stand. The number of democratic protestors is large and as the result will probably decide the renomination and election of most of them it will not be surprising should many decide that the welfare of their constituents that is endangered by the Cleveland tariff bill is of more importance to them than any favors that Mr. Cleveland has to give out, and be found carrying out the threats now being made of uniting with the republicans for the purpose of securing protection of their constituents. One of the arguments advanced by some of the Cleveland men is characteristically democratic—"Support the bill as it is; the senate will be certain to amend it according to your wishes." The same sort of argument got votes for the Wilson repeal bill at the extra session.
Nobody need be surprised to hear that Secretary Gresham has resigned. His position is now anything but a desirable one. Instead of the vindication he thought the publication of Blount's report would bring him and the administration, he finds the public much more disposed to accept the answer to that report made by the Hawaiian Minister—Mr. Thurston—as a correct story of the Hawaiian revolution. Secretary Gresham is so chagrined that he hardly gives those who come in contact with him a civil answer to the most trivial question. It is understood that he wanted to send Mr. Thurston his passports because he made public his answer to Blount's report, but that Mr. Cleveland forbid it.
Senator Cullom, of Illinois, does not mince words in expressing his opinion of the Hawaiian policy of the administration. He says: "The president has overstepped the bounds of American patriotism and the authority vested in his office. It is the most un-American and unpatriotic step ever proposed by any administration, and congress, although it is democratic in both branches, will, in my opinion, take the first opportunity to administer a severe reprimand. I know of no man in congress who has endorsed the action of President Cleveland in regard to Hawaii or who has spoken a word in behalf of his unpatriotic effort to restore the monarchy. The act already committed by the administration is clearly without authority. The action of President Johnson, whom congress moved to impeach, was not half so reprehensible as that taken by Mr. Cleveland and his secretary of state. It is a most humiliating spectacle to any true American citizen, and I might add that it appears to be the most senseless exhibition of combined mendacity, malice, viciousness and outrageous exercise of official power that the world has witnessed in modern times."
There is one paragraph in Secretary Carlisle's New York chamber of commerce speech that, in view of the methods of Mr. Cleveland, is really amusing, particularly to democratic congressmen not on good terms with the administration. They are in doubt as to whether the secretary intended to be delicately sarcastic at Mr. Cleveland's expense, or was preparing the way to shift the blame for the lack of a financial policy from the administration to congress. Here are the words of Secretary Carlisle: "It must be remembered, however, that it is the function and duty of the legislative department to establish the policy of the government upon this and all other subjects, and to clothe the executive with the necessary authority and means to carry it out. When the authority and means are granted the executive department is responsible for the manner in which the law is executed, but beyond this it has no power to act, and consequently no duty to perform."

Hon. Jos. N. Manley of Maine, was here early in the week making preparations for the opening of permanent headquarters for the national republican committee in Washington, from which the distribution of republican literature and other educational matter will be continuously made, without interfering with the work done in that line by the congressional committee or the League of Republican clubs. Gen. Harrison wished the national committee to do this four years ago, but a majority of the committee did not agree with him and it was not done.
Speaking of the national committee, I have it on good authority that when the committee issues the call for the next national nominating convention it will include therein an edict reducing the representation in the convention of those southern states in which the republican party practically has no organization to about two delegates each. The idea being that the states from which the electoral votes must come should be allowed to name the party candidates. CAS.

NEWS OF THE STATE.
A quartz ledge assaying $30 to the ton has been struck in Sprague river valley.
A big thanksgiving dinner is to be given the newsboys and messenger boys of Portland.

An Italian Republic.
ROME, Nov. 27.—In the highest and most reserved circles it is said to be well known that the present dream of the vatican is the establishment of a federal Italian republic. This idea is the only real explanation of the extraordinary language adopted by vatican organs in speaking of the mission of France and Russia with relation to the papacy.

Laughed Himself to Death.
LAUREL, Md., Nov. 27.—Wesley Persons, an aged and well-known farmer, while joking with friends yesterday, was seized with a spell of laughing, being unable to stop. He laughed for nearly an hour, when he began hiccupping, and two hours later he died from exhaustion.

From Head to Foot
You feel the good that is done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system.
In recovering from "La Grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.
For every disease that comes from a torpid liver or impure blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Bilioousness and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so certain that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.
