NOVEMBER NUGGETS.

Our Daily Clean-up From In and About the City.

Here's a motto, just your fit—
 Laugh a little bit.
 When you think you're trouble fit,
 Laugh a little bit.
 Look misfortune in the face,
 Brave the Bohemian's rude grimace.
 Ten to one 'twill yield its place,
 If you have the wit and wit
 Just to laugh a little bit.

The Yakima Republic has moved its quarters into a handsome new building. THE CHRONICLE is under obligation to Senator Mitchell for part 2d of the census of 1890.

Between the hours of 7 o'clock last night and 1 o'clock today there has been 1.35 inches of rainfall. It has been almost a steady downpour.

The rains are beginning to affect the country roads, which are getting soft and washing badly. The new Sherar grade is affected considerably by the steady downpour.

Tomorrow being Thanksgiving, THE CHRONICLE will not issue its usual daily publication, and the force will give thanks and eat turkey, in accordance with the time-honored custom.

The Missionary Sunbeams will give a social at the reading room next Friday evening, Dec. 1st, at 7:30 o'clock. A short programme will be rendered after which refreshments will be served. Admission ten cents.

The entertainment in St. Mary's academy Nov. 30th, will doubtless be one of the finest musical as well as amusement events of the season. The program published in yesterday's CHRONICLE gives rich promise of what it will be.

A telegram to Evanston concerning the capture of the murderer will bring a response in a day or two, containing full particulars of the murderer. Fuller was quite voluble, when first arrested yesterday morning, he supposing he was being arrested as a hobo. As soon as he found he was arrested as a murderer he would not talk, except in monosyllables.

A GENUINE HOBO.

Fuller Shows up as a Tramp Better Than Anything Else.

Fuller was given another cross examination at 2 o'clock today by the recorder. His own story convicts him more than anything else of being a genuine hobo, with no other aim or object in life than to beat trains and beg food. He claims to have been in Evanston but a few hours. This morning the recorder found a piece of paper dated Evanston, as near as could be deciphered, being apparently a recommendation or time check for work done, and signed Jerry Sullivan. This the prisoner claimed was dated Englewood, but it did not look like that word, and more nearly resembled Evanston. If Fuller is not the man he shows a greater anxiety to evade and contradict than is really consistent, for if he is innocent he should not care what theory or facts is presented to him. The marshal had his photograph taken today, and this, with a piece of his pants and a statement of whatever facts the recorder can glean will be sent tonight to the sheriff at Evanston.

Thanksgiving Services.

There will be a union Thanksgiving service at the Congregational church, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. A contribution will be taken up for the poor among us. All are cordially invited. There will be no meeting Thursday evening at the Congregational church.

A Good Plan.

It is a good plan to subscribe for and read carefully your own home paper, as it is the aim of this paper to make it an educational factor in the community. Besides that, if you are out of a job, or wish to increase your income, then here is the place to find it. In another column you will find an advertisement of B. F. Johnson & Co., of Richmond, Va., for workers, that may interest you.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

MARKET REPORT.

TUESDAY, NOV. 28.—Trade in the local market continues quiet and receipts of general produce is less free. Eggs, owing to the continued warm weather, are more plentiful and a light decline is noted, 27½ cash is the top offering and should conditions continue a further decline will be the result. Butter is, to use the common phrase, a drug on the market.

Vegetables are in good supply, and present prices are the same as of a week ago.

Poultry, as the Thanksgiving season is at hand, is in fair demand but there is no improvement in the market for chickens and turkeys.

Portland quotations are about the same as in The Dalles market, while turkeys are reported dull at 12½ cts. per lb. live and 10 cts. dressed.

The grain market is quite and deliveries have fallen off to a large extent. Wheat ranges in price from 46 cts. per bushel for No. 1, to 42 for No. 2. The large quantity of damaged wheat reported, and what is offered for sale, does not fetch over 50 cts. per sack.

The wool market is dull as ever. The declaration of the committee on the new tariff law, has been arbitrary and wool, as all other native products has been put on the free list. The session of congress which convenes on Monday next will, undoubtedly fathom the question of free products and protect the wool husbandry after its careful deliberation.

The live stock market is unchanged, excepting hogs which are slightly off, owing to a decline in smoked meats. Quotations of fat hogs on foot are 4¾ and 5 cts.

DUFUR NEWS NOTES.

The Adelpia Club—Rev. Jenkins—New Store Signs, etc.

DUFUR, Nov. 27, 1893.

ED. CHRONICLE: Pardon me for not writing sooner but have been up in the bush prospecting for better times and dropped back to our beautiful city just in time to see the Adelpia Literary club give an elegant literary entertainment assisted by the Dufur orchestra, (W. J. Vanderpool director,) which rendered some excellent music. The entertainment consisted of essays and declamations rendered by the scholars of Dufur public school, which are equal to any in the country. The march rendered by the scholars from Prof. Hinman's class showed marks of vigorous training by the professor, for which he deserves great praise. After the literary part was disposed of a bountiful supper was served, of which everyone partook as if they had been saving up for the occasion. The balance of the evening was spent in games and amusements of all kinds. On my second night's visit to the city I was induced to attend church and hear Rev. Mr. Jenkins of The Dalles deliver an eloquent sermon. He has been holding a series of successful meetings here for the past two weeks and his departure will be keenly felt in this community.

During my short stay in the city I have visited all of the merchants and friends and find posted all over the stores "Goods sold for cash only;" "Positively no credit," etc. That lets me out, so if I come to your office in a starved condition, don't ask me what is the matter, but dig up. However, I am getting quite political and will try to turn to a subject more adapted to the times. During my rounds I find that John Johnston and W. L. Vanderpool have about completed their residences which are ornaments to the city. Still we travel the streets and learn of the marriage of Frank Bartlett to Mrs. Covey, both of this city. I, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Quinn, near Dufur. Owing to the abundance of rain and the amount of snow that has fallen here the past week I am compelled to return to the bush. Wishing you a good, fat turkey for Thanksgiving, I remain,
 Yours Respectfully,
 JACK.
