DECEMBER DOTS.

Spicy Newslets Garnered from a Reporter's Note Book.

Thanksgiving was generally observed in this city yesterday.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Snipes & Kinerly's for "A Celebrated Case."

Look out for a Japanese tea to be given in Chrysanthemum hall December 20th and 21st.

The Corvallis Nursery Co. will deliver fruit trees at the Ward & Kerns (Joe Robinson's) livery stable, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 5th.

The A. O. U. W. initiated seven members into their order last night. It is reported they were ambitious and took all the degrees and when 2 o'clock rolled around they were glad of it.

The Chrysanthemum club gave a very pleasant party at their hall on "Cleveland's Thanksgiving" eve. The programme of dances was well arranged and greatly enjoyed by all present.

The meeting of the Mignonette Dancing Club this evening will be an important one for the future of the club. Let all the members be present at 8 o'clock at M. S. Jameson's office.

Mr. Johns, while recently sawing timber in the woods, struck six nails with three inches of solid timber grown over them, which is a very good companion piece to Surveyor Sharp's marks in solid oak find.

Jacob Wettle, a boy about 12 years of age, living near Mill creek bridge, was kicked in the abdomen by a mule last night. Dr. Hollister was hastily summoned, who believes that with care, the boy will pull through all right.

Frank Maloney and Clint Thomas indulged in a fistcuff today at the corner of Court and Second streets. A gentleman pulled Clint off from Frank, when the latter sailed in again and the third party pulled Frank off from Clint.

Mr. Wan. H. McAtee returned this morning after a fruitless search for his father. The last known of him was on the morning of November 4th, Mr. J. C. Lucky saw him board the train from La Grande, designing to go to Union.

Remember the Leaf social to be given by the Missionary Sunbeams this evening at the reading room, at 7:30 o'clock. A short programme will be rendered, after which refreshments will be served. This is a home missionary society and should be well patronized. Admission only ten cents.

The recorder kept Fuller from 2 o'clock until 7 Wednesday in cross-examination. On this occasion Mr. Dufur exhibited a genius for asking questions which is phenomenal, and covered the world of science, art, history and literature from 4004 B. C. till 1900 A. D. In 300 minutes he asked 1200 questions. People expecting to get fruit trees from the Corvallis Nursery Co. will not get the trees as soon as the time set. On account of the railroad failing to deliver the trees to the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s boat at Portland on time, A. V. Underwood cannot reach Dufur and Boyd before Monday morning. Trees will be delivered at both places Monday afternoon.

The entertainment at St. Mary's Academy was a success in every particular. The hall was beautifully decorated with potted plants, and draperies of the national colors were artistically arranged about the stage. The instrumental music was exceptionally well rendered, and the vocal duet, "Hope Beyond," ended in a tableau which was beautiful beyond description. The band rendered some fine selections at intervals, and the whole programme gave evidence of the careful training noticeable in every entertainment given by the Sisters.

DIED.

In this city this morning, Mrs. Leader M. Brown, of pneumonia, aged 36 years.

Mrs. Brown, with her husband and family of several children, arrived in the city a week ago from Arcadia, Neb. She contracted the disease on the cars en route to Oregon. The family have the sympathy of the people in this sad time of affliction. Though they are among strangers in a strange land, to them, they are among friends who will have a tender regard for them.

The funeral will take place from the house at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Comparative Precipitation.

The table below gives the comparative precipitation for the month of November for the following years:

Table with 5 columns of years and precipitation amounts.

The Populist Butcher.

The populist butcher had a very wet day on the 29th delivering beef. He has a good patronage from the citizens of The Dalles, and they are well pleased with quality, quantity and price. I think the retailer's price should be in accordance with the producer's price.

Card of Thanks.

The sisters of St. Mary's Academy return sincere thanks to the members of the band, to Messrs. Maier, Herbring, FitzGerald and others whose efficient services contributed so much to the success of the entertainment given at the Academy last evening.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Snipes & Kinerly.

The Stutz Company.

Through an accident The Dalles will be entertained every night next week by a first-class theatrical company, well-known to every theater-goer in The Dalles—the J. G. and Alma Stutz company. This company proposes to go to Portland on the 11th and will stay indefinitely, occupying the old established Cordray theater, which closes on that date. The Stutz company comprises sixteen members and has a repertoire of thirty-five plays. Perhaps no other company in the United States has so large a variety as they can play for six weeks, no two nights alike. Mr. J. G. Stutz is a veteran. He has been continuously on the stage for thirty-five years, playing in America ever since 1867. The company have with them the youngest actress in the United States, little Alberta Belden, 4 years old and a marvel of genius. She is the child of a well-known New York actress and knows nothing else than the stage. She may be judged Monday night in "A Celebrated Case," where there is ample scope for the display of her ability. Mr. Stutz' little girl, who formerly assumed this role, is now in school.

Mr. J. C. Luckey and Mr. Samuel Lister of Warm Springs came into the city last night. They report the roads as being badly washed and in places as almost impassable.

Prof. Thos. H. Roberts, of Eugene City State University, was at home over the Thanksgiving season. The Prof. informs us the rains in the Willamette have been very copious, so much so that the whole country is quite inundated and all streams and rivers are in full flood, and much damage is being done by it.

NEARER HOME.

Cleveland Sent Some Blount-Shaped Commissioners to Wasco County Once.

The Blount commissioner business is but a repetition of the act played by Cleveland in 1887 in Wasco county concerning the Military Road company. In that year he sent out three commissioners with instructions to gather proof that this road was never built. They performed well their master's bidding, and as a result of their report a suit was ordered against the road company, looking to a forfeiture of their lands. Of course the road was built, and built by them, and of course the road company won the suit against the government in every court where it was brought up.

Blount-like, these commissioners established themselves in friendly quarters, dismissing all witnesses who gave evidence contrary to what they desired. They started out from the Dalles and followed the road and whenever they could find a blackleg or irresponsible party who would swear falsely or ignorantly concerning who built the road, they were careful to take down every word of evidence. The best citizens in The Dalles, whose evidence would tend to prove that the road company built it, they as carefully renounced. In the latter category was the evidence of Emil Schanno, who testified that he went all the way on this road from The Dalles to Boise. Dick Closter and a number of others testified to the same facts, and other reputable men along the route showed that the Military Road company fulfilled their agreement with the government. However, none of the evidence ever saw the light of day in Washington. The commissioners were not after facts, but falsehoods, and judging from a remark made at the time by the lamented Judge Caleb N. Thornbury, they must have succeeded. Mr. Thornbury said: "In their report I cannot recognize anything familiar, so full is it of false statements."

The findings of my commissioner in Hawaii were on the same line of conduct. Blount went to the camp of the royalists, and took the evidence of whatever persons he could find who would give him what he wanted. Mr. T. A. Hudson, of this city was in Honolulu for eight months some years ago and got acquainted with many of the leading men of the city, and knew all at least by reputation. He informs a CHRONICLE representative that not one of the men mentioned as witnesses in Blount's report are known to him, whereas Mr. Stevens' letter contains the names of men who are thoroughly reliable and known by him to be so. Dr. Bishop, mentioned by Stevens, a banker in Honolulu, has a reputation for veracity unquestioned, says Mr. Hudson, and his word is at all times as good as his bond.
