DULL Times makes it all the more necessary to advertise. That is what the most progressive of our business men think, and these same business men are the most prosperous at all times. If you wish to reach all the people in this neighborhood you can't do better than talk to them through the columns of the DALLIES CHRONICLE. This more than double the circulation of any other paper, and advertising in it pays big.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted to the Congress of the United States Today.

DUNBAR GUILTY OF SMUGGLING

The Jury Decides Against Him on Six Counts—Big Fire in Baltimore.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—The president submitted his message to congress today. It is a very lengthy document, covering a wider range of subjects than the one submitted to the special congress in September. Of paramount interest is his attitude on the Hawaiian question. He stoutly maintains his former position taken, and intimates that developments will vindicate all his actions. Of special importance is his advocacy of the abolishment of all fees pertaining to federal courts. He is antagonistic to the fee system and urges congress to formulate the necessary legislation looking to its abolishment. The subject promises to become fruitful.

Dunbar Convicted.

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 3.—William Dunbar has been convicted on six of fourteen counts contained in the first two indictments against him for opium smuggling. His case went to the jury at 9:30 o'clock last evening, and an hour and a half later the verdict was returned. Elaborate arguments, both for the prosecution and defense, were made Saturday, and the judge gave his charge to the jury, concerning the evidence and what to do with it. McGinn for the defense, set up a claim of great respectability for Dunbar, and exhausted the vocabulary of approbrious epithets in his search for synonyms to apply to Blum.

BIG FIRE IN BALTIMORE.

The Loss is Estimated at Nearly Half a Million Dollars.

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 2.—Fire consumed $400,000 worth of property in West Baltimore tonight. A general alarm was sent in from Lombard and Paca streets about 5 o'clock. Within two hours the commercial world was bereft of some of its stellar enterprises, and a locality renowned for its historic surroundings and imposing edifices was wiped out by the dreadful fire. Hundreds of wage-earners had just been dismissed for the day when the cry of fire rang through the six-story double building at South Paca street and Cedar alley. Number 34 South Paca street was occupied by three firms, the Deutsche Lithograph company, the drawers and overall factory of John & Co., and the shoe factory of Charles Heiser. Nearly all the employees had departed before the fire alarm had been sounded, but when the flames were discovered eating their way along the ceiling Annie Taylor became frenzied and leaped from a second story window to the ground. She is dangerously injured. The firemen worked hard to save the Langfelder building, but were battling against so much tinder. The flames spread to 36 South Paca and that building was doomed. Sheet after sheet of flame swept in the direction of the university of Maryland buildings, but were fought back each time until the rear walls of the Heiser building fell upon the roof of the dissecting building with a crash. This decided the fate of the laboratory, and in a short time the entire building was gutted. For five hours the city was illuminated by the blaze. The four-story double warehouse and factory of M. S. Levy & Son, manufacturers and wholesalers of straw hats, Lombard street, was partly damaged by fire, while the stock is also injured by water. The rear part of John Dotterweiche's three-story saloon and dwelling was crushed by falling walls. Several other adjacent buildings were more or less badly damaged. The total loss is estimated at $400,000, with insurance of $250,000.

MELLO AGAIN TALKS.

The Rebel Brazilian Admiral Issues Still Another Manifesto.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The Herald this (Sunday) morning prints a communication received through Senator Ruy Barbosa, the exiled Brazilian, who is the leader and recognized mouthpiece of the Brazilian insurgents. It is from Mello, the rebel admiral, and was written on board the Aquidaban, just before leaving the harbor of Rio. It reached the Herald through that paper's correspondent at Buenos Ayres. The communication defines, in Admiral Mello's own words, the exact purpose of the revolution, and is written at the request of the Herald. The communication says:

able intention, as already stated in my last manifesto, is to establish the republican constitutional government, which was destroyed by Peixoto; to promote national peace in all the states of Brazil, and to substitute a civil government for militarism and the awful system developed by an actual dictator, who prepares for our country in this way the tremendous misfortune common to Spanish commonwealths. All reports about monarchial plans as to the navy revolution are absolutely false."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. P. H. McGuffey arrived last night with his family, consisting of eight persons.

Mr. N. G. Blalock of Walla Walla is in the city attending the contest case in the will office.

Mr. Wilbur Hendricks of Dufur called on THE CHRONICLE today. He says the full rains have been unusually copious and the ground is thoroughly saturated. Stock is doing fine and the farmers have put in a great deal of fall grain.

Ladies Must Remove Their Hats.

It will seem strange to the American woman, with her Declaration of Independence traditions, to hear that the director of the French opera has assumed the authority to make a hard and fast rule with respect to ladies' bonnets. Even small bonnets are forbidden altogether for the occupants of the pit stalls on Saturdays, that being the only night when ladies are admitted to this part of the house. Formerly the stalls at the French theaters were invariably reserved for men only, but one after another their rules have relaxed until the only one where it is retained absolutely is the Theater Francaise. Ever since the question of bonnets has been constantly mooted, but hitherto without any actual result, it being so much against the habit for ladies to appear in evening dress in such places that no one under the rank of an opera director could have ventured on their adopting it.

THE ORIENT.

The Chinese have an academy of manners that prescribes etiquette for the whole empire.

There are over six thousand persons fed three times a day at Dolma Bagtch palace while the sultan of Turkey is there.

The ordinary folding fan is supposed to have been invented in Japan, in the seventh century, by a native artist, who derived the idea from the way in which the bat closes its wings.

It has hitherto been the law in Japan that if a woman was not married by a certain age the authorities picked out a man and compelled him to marry her. The mikado has just abolished this usage.

NOTED IN OTHER COUNTRIES.

ROSE-LEAF jam is a common dish in Roumania, where roses are grown by the million.

The roofs of Egyptian temples are composed of huge blocks of stone laid from column to column.

The smallest republic in the world is Franceville, one of the islands of the New Hebrides. The inhabitants consist of forty Europeans and five hundred black workmen employed by a French company.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of Iowa during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day he was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
