THE DALLES OREGON

PUNISHMENTS FOR CRIME.

Of the 1,400 prisoners in the Illinois state prison at Joliet, one-third are reported to be suffering from consumption.

The Salic law had in all 348 penal articles 150 relating to robbery, 74 of which referred to the stealing of animals; 113 relating to crimes against the person.

This rack, thumbscrew and other modes of torture were used by European courts until 1550, not only as a punishment, but also as a means of obtaining evidence.

Some tribes of North American Indians punished matricides by hanging them by their hands to the limbs of a tree at a height just sufficient to permit the wolves to reach them from the ground. They were left to be eaten alive.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.
