"LA BASTILLE."

A Very Successful Historical Drama Last Night.

It is not too much to say that "La Bastille," as presented by the Stuttz company last night, is as tine a play as has ever been presented in The Dailes. It is of great historic interest, gives ample scope for the dramatic abilities of any other kind. the leading roles, and has just the proper equipoise of comedy. ## Mrs. Stafford's Lecture.

The lecture at the court house should be well attended. Mrs. Stafford will appear on the rostrum with a dress made upon hygienic principles, the same as now worn by Mrs. Potter Palmer and other dress reformers in Chicago. Corsets are not a part of this costume, nor stays of any kind, though the dress is made to partly fit. The injury that women are doing themselves and their children through tight lacing will be exposed, and the methods of muscular effort to effect a cure advocated by argument. Mrs. Stafford also gives a private lecture to women which concerns that vast number who suffer from female weakness.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks and gratitude to the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our affliction during the sickness and death of our dear mother. May the blessings of God ever attend you.

Yours in grateful remembrance, MRS. MORGAN AND MCDANIEL. CARRIE AND HENRY BOWMAN.
