DECEMBER DOTS.

Spicy Newslets Garnered from a Reporter's Note Book.

We are reliably informed that Josiah Allen's wife, the noted personage, will be in The Dalles on the 19th inst.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve clam chowder on Wednesday evening at the vacant store next door to the First National bank.

Mrs. Helen Stafford's class in physical culture for ladies will begin Saturday at 3 p. m., at the court house. Gents class, 7:30 p. m. same place.

J. Mullen, the photographer, will be at Tygh Valley until the 20th. He requests that those desiring pictures of superior finish give him a call.

Every young man and his best girl with have the opportunity to take a lesson in love-making from Timothy Trott and the fair Matilda at the Kris Kringle entertainment Dec. 19th.

During the heavy blow yesterday Capt. Kennedy's steamer Inland Star dragged her anchor and drifted across the river, and lies today moored on the Washington shore near the ferry landing.

A number of boys were arrested by Marshal Frank Maloney Saturday night for stoning a Chinaman. After promise of better conduct they were released. This should serve as a lesson to them.

A preacher who came out west to Idaho was shot dead by a cowboy recently. During a revival meeting he turned suddenly on the cowboy and asked him if he was prepared to die.

"What is the lesson taught us in the parable of the seven wise virgins?" asked an Izee Sunday school teacher of her pupils. "That we should always be on the lookout for a bridegroom," said the smallest girl in the class.

Joe Bates, of Prairie City, while felling a tree came near killing his boy. The boy became frightened when the tree fell and ran under it, and was struck by a limb, which broke his thigh and threw his knee out of place.

The large audiences which greeted the Stutz company last week have shown that an opera house would be a profitable investment in The Dalles, given good troupes. Considering the dull times no better patronage could be expected even in cities twice the size of The Dalles.

The total amount of county funds on deposit in the Oregon National bank is $100,117.88, as stated in the indictment. Besides this the county has $168,977.24 in the Northwest Loan & Trust Company, an allied institution, for the recovery of which Judge Moreland and Commissioners Holbrook and Stone began a suit in the state circuit court last Monday.

A Texas editor advises the following method: Find out all you can about yourself; if your life is as good and upright at eleven o'clock at night as it is at noon; if you are as good a temperance man at a fishing excursion as you are at a Sunday school picnic, if, in short, you are really the sort of a man your father hopes you are and your sweetheart believes you to be.

Apart from the grand jury, who have indicted Markle, Sherman and Kelley, there is a committee of 100 citizens appointed to investigate the condition of the finances of the county. The committee finds that the money deposited in the bank cannot be recovered. In one instance where Sheriff Kelly deposited $50,000 only $5,000 can be recovered and this even was not a part of the original deposit.

Yesterday was one of the most changeable days imaginable. The sun shone out bright and warm, with spasmodic gusts of wind, attaining a velocity of about forty miles an hour, accompanied with sharp sprinkles of rain. The temperature fell from a maximum of 54 to 40 degrees within a few hours, and Kansasites, as well as those from the Dakotas, began to feel that the old blizzard was following them to Oregon's gentle clime. But before the sun had disappeared behind the hills in the west, a calm set in, and all that was left to tell of the storm's visit was a fine covering of snow on the Klickitat mountains, north of the city.

For a sore throat there is nothing better than a flannel bandage dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will nearly always effect a cure in one night's time. This remedy is also a favorite for rheumatism and has cured very severe cases. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

MITCHELL NEWS.

Weather very pleasant with cool nights.

The average attendance of scholars at the Mitchell school is about 25.

Mrs. Estes, wife of our school teacher, has been quite ill the past few days.

Measles in a light form are harassing several in the neighborhood at present.

The sheriff at Prineville reports the jail at that place to be empty. Something unusual.

Miss Boardman, sister of the proprietor of the Central Hotel, has been ill quite seriously the past three weeks.

The mail carrier's schedule of time has been changed to one day later than heretofore. He has also abandoned his wagons for a pack horse.

S. F. Allen reported snow to be about one foot and a half deep as he returned from Prineville the 28th of last month. That is on the mountains between that place and Mitchell.

Last Sunday night recorded an accident that proved almost fatal to a citizen of our town. James Chamberlain and Bud Edmunson were seriously disturbing the peace by their drunken spells when the marshal made an attempt to arrest them. Resistance was made by Chamberlain, when a scuffle ensued. The marshal had his revolver in his hand, and in some way it went off, shooting Chamberlain in the right leg just above the knee, breaking the bone square off. His case is very painful, but at present date he is doing very well. Drs. Honck and Hemlock attended the case. Bud Edmunson was fined $10 and warned to do so no more.

THE DALLES, Dec. 5, 1893.

Wants a Public Meeting Called.

HARTLAND, Wash., Dec. 9, 1893.

EDITOR CHRONICLE—I have read with interest the articles in your columns concerning extension of time for paying for forfeited railroad lands, also the $2.50 paid by settlers for the double minimum lands within limit of the proposed Northern Pacific railway. The United States gave the homeseekers choice of going beyond railroad limits to pre-empt land at $1.25 per acre or settle within the proposed limits and pay $2.50 per acre in consideration of the benefits that would necessarily follow. The settlers performed their part of the contract in good faith. The government has not furnished the proposed railroad. The settlers are thus swindled out of one-half of the purchase price of their land.

The Northern Pacific has been given land in lieu of every alternate section, but the settler has not been remunerated for his loss. He has received neither lieu land nor the return of his money and interest thereon. This great wrong demands such legislation as will place this class of settlers equal financially with all more recent pre-emptors in the same locality.

If the treasury is so depleted that this just claim cannot be refunded, the United States should immediately issue land warrants to such claimants, said warrants transferable. In case an extension of time is not granted for paying for forfeited lands, these warrants could be made to serve the purpose of the money which is not to be had.

I suggest that all such claimants hold a meeting in The Dalles in the near future to adopt some plan for redress.

WILLIAM L. LEE.

Mr. Lee is deputy master of the Washington state grange, which body petitioned congress on the foregoing subject, which petition was disregarded. He further says: "Such claimants are continually receiving propositions from law firms in Washington, D. C., proposing to collect said claims for 25 per cent. of the amount. If all parties concerned unite, as one man, and procure competent counsel, they could collect the entire sum with interest."

When you have tried so-called remedies for dyspepsia, headache and biliousness, with no benefit, let your next trial be Simmons Liver Regulator. It has never failed in relieving and curing.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Snipes & Kinersly.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawaba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Snipes & Kinersly.
