DECEMBER DOTS.

Spicy Newslets Garnered from a Reporter's Note Book.

The turkey's lot is very sad. His chance is very slim. For if Thanksgiving lets him slip, Then Christmas catches him.

Testimony is being taken today in the Model school district case for final adjudication.

A marriage license was granted today to Oscar Kahaussen to wed Miss Clara Augusta Antoine of Germany.

Prof. Rork will lecture some evening next week on the political issues of the day from a populist standpoint.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild will furnish pies and cakes tomorrow in center window of Pease & Mays.

Over sixty incandescents will illuminate the tower at Pease & Mays' tonight. The arrangement was made by Mr. J. M. McArthur, electrician.

All articles for sale at the Kris Kringle party, given by the ladies of the Congregational church at the armory on the 19th inst., will be on exhibition. A specialty will be made of 25-cent purchases.

The report on the streets yesterday that a new register of the land office, in this city, had been appointed, was founded, evidently, upon the fact that Collector Geo. Weidler, of the Portland district, had been asked to resign.

Wild geese and ducks show knowledge as to the resistance of the atmosphere and sagacity in overcoming it when flocks of them have to go long distances to form a triangle to cleave the air more easily, and the more courageous bird takes position at the forward angle. As this is a fatiguing post another bird ere long takes the place of the exhausted leader. Thus they place their available strength at the service of the society. The state educational school board have added to the school fund of The Dalles $638. This amount, as we understand it, was back funds due this district and at this time is very opportune as the treasury is almost bare.

A rival telephone line is talked of in Spokane to compete with the Inland Telephone Co., under a new patent which the present company have tried in vain to secure. Rates are to be $2.50 per month and the "hello girl" is to be done away with.

Work on Second street is progressing finely. A great deal of the mud has been carted off and rock put in its place. Now that work is progressing so well there are few enemies of the improvement. Property owners realize that the cost is comparatively trifling and the good to be derived more than commensurate for all probable expense.

The Baker City Democrat announces a death rate of less than one per cent in a year. Inquiry into the death rate in Wasco county for the past year reveals seven twelfths of 1 per cent, and for the two precincts of East and West Dalles, more than the town proper, and containing a population of 4,500, there have been 35 deaths from disease among residents.

Forty Sunday schools of Portland have established a Sunday school choral union. Over 600 boys and girls are already in training and the songs they sing are said to be something grand. The swelling volume of music from the hundreds of throats of the children has such pathos and power that many are induced to shed tears from emotion. The receipts are devoted to charitable purposes.

Mr. E. Y. Judd of San Francisco, a prominent wool man of the east, is in the city today. It is understood he is here for the purpose of putting in a scurrying mill. It would be a very judicious move indeed. The Dalles ships about 6,000,000 pounds of wool every year, 50 per cent. of which is dirt. There is really little sense in paying freight on 3,000,000 pounds of dirt annually.

Pease & Mays exhibit tonight a miniature reproduction of the Eiffel tower, reaching from the floor to the ceiling. It will be ablaze with incandescents lights, and the magnificent height of the original will be partially realized by placing dolls upon the platforms, to represent people. To properly represent the great height by comparison the dolls should be about an inch and a quarter in height, the tower being nearly 16 feet high.

The Harney Times reaches our table with its usual weekly quota of local news, consisting of 24 lines of reading matter in type the size of brickbats. It is one of the most readable papers in that section, being, we believe, the only one. There is no reason why the Harney Times should not be nearly as valuable as the New York Sun to the inhabitants of Mauna Loa, Aehantee and Sahara desert. The Sun is but a trifle larger and not near so black.

MARKET REPORT.

FRIDAY, Dec. 15.—December this far, with the temperature mild and the farmers busy with the plow, the business among merchants is light. Locally it is quiet; trade is carried on from hand to mouth, and purchases are only on account for immediate demand. Prices continue without any material change. Some dealers are making specialties on some articles for the purpose of inviting trade, which is having its desired effect.

In country produce it cannot be said that there is any improvement in the market. Prices are steady in everything except eggs, which are in better supply, and dealers speak of a tendency downward in the product.

The grain market is as lifeless as reported a week ago. The Clapp company weekly market letter of the 8th says: "We look for a continual demand after January 8th. French country markets indicate strength. English millers and speculators are more anxious to buy, and from a crop of 100,000,000 less than in 1892, evidently our surplus is in the 'show case' with millers and flour jobbers. The domestic demand for consumption, and export demand for wheat and flour will likely soon be a big factor, and cause much higher prices to prevail. The stock of flour is nearly one eighth less than a year ago.

The wool market at home and abroad is flat and will continue so until the tariff question is settled.

Fattening Qualities of Wheat.

A number of tests have been made recently, by experimental stations in the eastern states on the value of wheat as a profitable fattening food for hogs, and they indicate that one bushel of wheat will make fourteen pounds of pork, and is much more profitable than corn and further the cost of production is less.

Attention.

The Dalles Lodge No. 2, I. O. G. T. will give an entertainment Saturday evening Dec. 16th at the K. of P. hall, at 8 o'clock. A good literary programme has been prepared and refreshments will be served all for the small sum of 15 cents.

Wamic Happenings.

Special Correspondence of THE CHRONICLE.] Having refrained my pen thus long, waiting for some more leading mind to chronicle the important events that are transpiring almost every day in this little busy town of Wamic, but have been disappointed, it occurred to me that perhaps they are waiting for the biggest ignoramus in town to show his weakness. If so, here goes.

This place is noted for its healthy location but at this time la grippe seems to be trumps, as a very large part of the people are suffering from its effects. Some cases are being treated by the Tygh doctor, who is very successful in his practice.

The graded school here is under the management of Prof. P. P. Underwood of the higher grade and Miss Ward of the little kid department. We think we have one of the best schools in Wasco county. There is enrolled in the higher grades 42 and lower 39, making 81. We are very proud of our school.

There is a literary society held in the hall over head, where every Saturday evening there is a grand display of oratory and wit.

The citizens begin to talk Christmas holidays. It is not determined yet whether we will have a Christmas tree or not. The announcement was made last Sunday from the pulpit that the good people of Wamic will hold a watch-night service conducted by Eld. Bonney and Rev. Underwood. All are invited to attend.

We are glad to note that E. C. Pratt is on his pins again after going through a long spell of sickness.

We now have a good blacksmith that adds another convenience to our town.

We can see additional improvement in our town. Al. Lake has built a fine residence, barn and out buildings which looks homelike. But city life does not suit him. Since he left the mill, where he smelled the sweet odor of the pine and settled down to a city life, he begins to look thin in flesh but still retains his pleasing smiles.

Money is scarce here as elsewhere, but the people are well supplied with eatables and a fair quality of clothing.

A Good Word.

Mr. J. J. Keil, Sherrburg, Pa. Dear Sir— I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia, which seemed to battle the efforts of several of our best physicians you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules. Gratefully Yours, Mrs. F. R. HOLMES, Montrose, Pa.
