WEDNESDAY, - - - DEC. 20, 1893. The president extricates himself from the Hawaiian mess in much the same picturesque manner as one does from the mucky tara beds of the island realm of the Pacific.

The president extricates himself from the Hawaiian mess in much the same picturesque manner as one does from the mucky tara beds of the island realm of the Pacific.

For the present state of the flying machine the public is referred to McClure's Magazine for January.

The preachers of New York have now started upon a crusade that will be wished Godspeed by everyone—the abolition of the insanitary and overcrowded tenement houses of that city.

Water is being successfully brought to the surface of the apparently dry streams of Colorado, Western Kansas and Nebraska and applied to the purpose of irrigation.

Katherine E. Rand, wishing to impress parents with the fact that boys and girls of fourteen to eighteen are not infants, but try to flirt, love and hate each other, suffer from jealousy, and, in a word, live out the comedy and tragedy of life in juvenile fashion, has written, 'The Childhood of an Affinity.'

The gospel of protection according to McKim is: 'It protects our own products against those of the alien and the stranger, while the domestic consumer is secured reasonable prices through domestic competition.'

'There is no use in going back of the returns,' is a maxim that may fairly be applied to its opening statements: 'A glance at the tariff legislation of our own country ought to satisfy every intelligent student that protection has always shown its falsity as a system of economy by its absolute failure to bring a healthy and stable prosperity to manufacturers.'

It will show a prosperity on every hand which would have existed yet, but for the fear which has closed so many manufacturing. It will not only show that the United States has thousands of millionaire manufacturers, but will show hundreds of thousands of workmen working for the best wages in Christendom. There is no use in going behind the returns.

CURRENT PRESS COMMENT.

The machine for separating the flour gold from sand on the Columbia river placers 'does not work just right.'

It doesn't pay to economize on Christmas cheer. Even if times have been hard, that is all the greater reason for a few days of holiday prosperity. The odds are that there will never be another period in your life when the spending of a little money would give you greater pleasure and be so productive of thankfulness and joy.

Chastened by bitter experience the president says 'the' commissioner now, referring to Blount.

HUNTING AND FISHING.

ABOUT 25,000 people are killed every year in India by wild beasts and reptiles.

DEER are numerous in northwestern Maine and annoy the farmers whose lands are near the forests.

A SNAKE just discovered in Brazil, has tusks like a boar, and a two-foot horn ornaments its forehead.

SALMON fishing is prohibited in the state of Washington between six p. m. on Saturday and the same hour on Sunday.

A QUAIL almost pure white was lately shot near Atlanta, Ga. The only part not white was the tip of the tail, and this was of the usual hue.

A HUGE lobster, thirty-five inches in length, was lately caught by Everett Smith, at the edge of the surf, in Patchogue, N. Y. One of its claws is twelve inches long.

GEORGE JAMISON, of Bath, Me., had just warned Michael Nelson to handle his gun carefully when he (Jamison) tripped and fell, and received a death-wound from the discharge of his own gun.

THE largest fish caught in the Columbia river so far this season was a sturgeon measuring 11 feet 5 inches long and weighing 755 pounds, which was landed at Knappton, Wash., a week or so ago. The head alone weighed 151 pounds, and the fish yielded 427 pounds of edible meat.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of Iowa during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day he was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
