Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:
S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.

Gentlemen:
On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, Mr. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.

THE WARSHIP MOHICAN

Ordered to go to the Sandwich Islands.

IS LOOKED UPON AS SUGGESTIVE
Capt. Picking of the Charleston Centured-A Draft Ordered by Peixoto.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24.—It was learned here today that the United States man-of-war Mohican is to be dispatched to Honolulu Wednesday. Sailing orders have already been received and there is unusual activity at Mare Island preparing the cruiser for sea. The vessel has been ordered to take a deckload of coal in addition to the usual supply, and it is evident an effort will be made to force the Mohican's old engines to make time. Coal heaters at Mare Island are to have no Christmas holiday, so positive is the order to equip the Mohican for sea without loss of time. Inasmuch as the steamship Australia sailed for Honolulu yesterday and could have carried all the necessary supplies to Minister Willis, the inference is there must be some urgent reason for strengthening the United States naval force at Honolulu.

Brazil News.
New York, Dec. 24.—The Herald prints the following from Montevideo: Captain Picking's refusal to give American vessels in Rio harbor all the protection they desired from rebel fire while landing cargoes is asserted by aggrieved shipmasters to be a virtual recognition of the insurgents as belligerents, and their views are evidently shared by the American merchants in the city. These persons say Captain Picking's reports of the situation to Secretary of Navy Herbert have been so vague as to be absolutely misleading, and they declare that a firm stand taken just now by the American naval officers would be of material aid in bringing about a satisfactory ending to the revolution.

Peixoto's Orders.
New York, Dec. 24.—A Herald dispatch from Bahia says the report has reached there that the government forces available for actual service, having been allowed to suffer serious depletions from one cause and another, Peixoto has now determined to raise the strength of the National Guard at once to a high standard in several provinces. Accordingly he has issued an order that drafts shall immediately be made for slightly more than 12,000 men in each of the following provinces: Parahibuna, Sao Paulo, Parahiba and Pernambuco.

NEWS NOTES.
General John W. Sprague of Tacoma, Wash., died Sunday last. He was born at White Creek, New York, April 4th, 1817. Gen. Sprague was a brave soldier and withal one of God's noblemen.

The Salvation Army of San Francisco on Christmas day fed 8,000 hungry men and women at a former dive, changed to an army station. They also gave away 1,000 baskets of food of the value of $2.50 each and sheltered over 300 homeless. They had accumulated a fund of $8,000.

The crank, Joseph Donjan, who has sent threatening letters to the executive and Vice President Stevenson and others, has been caught. From a conversation with him he evidently is one of the anarchists and socialist imports, as he is from Selesia, Austria and is 26 years of age.

The board appointed to examine the sites for the branch asylum in Eastern Oregon has completed its labors, finishing up with The Dalles Wednesday. What their report will be cannot of course be told, but we feel that an honest one will be in favor of The Dalles. The Dalles has the most equable climate of any point in Eastern Oregon. It has an abundance of water under sufficient pressure to afford perfect protection against fire. Fuel is cheaper than at any of the other places, and spring comes earlier than anywhere in the state. Besides these advantages, it is the nearest and most convenient place for the class of patients that will be sent to it; for the intention is not to supply a place for the insane of Eastern Oregon, but for those of the western portion of the state. The change of climate is the thing desired, and The Dalles has every advantage in furnishing the proper climate at the smallest expenditure for transportation. The interest of the unfortunate ones, as well as the interest of the state demand the location of the branch asylum at The Dalles.—Hood River Glacier.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22, 1893.
Senator Hoar's arraignment of Mr. Cleveland for his unconstitutional assumption of authority in dealing with Hawaii, as admitted in his special message to congress, was terrible, but strictly in accordance with facts. The memory of his burning words, as well as those used by Representative Boutelle, of Maine, in a speech in the house, will linger long with Mr. Cleveland, who has already expressed himself to a friend as being sick of the whole business. He will be sicker than that before congress gets through with it, as the democrats have not shown any great desire to either shield or defend him. The following extract from Mr. Hoar's speech is both true and pertinent: "If Mr. Willis went out instructed to reinstate the old government, absolutely or upon conditions, could little Hawaii help herself, if the American people had been behind the act? No, Mr. President, this administration has been hurried into this transaction, not by any sense of justice to Hawaii, not by any desire to vindicate the national honor, but for the sake of making what has turned out to be a weak, impotent attack on its predecessor. The great name and fame of Benjamin Harrison are a source of envy and discontent in some bosoms."

Secretary Herbert has got into hot water by adopting the royal methods of Mr. Cleveland. Not long ago there was a vacancy at the naval academy, which should have properly been filled from the fifth congressional district of S. C. Representative Strait, who represents that district in the house, wrote to Secretary Herbert concerning the vacancy but received no reply. When he came to the extra session he called at the navy department and was coolly informed that Secretary Herbert had filled the vacancy by appointing a youth of his own state, Alabama. Mr. Strait has introduced a resolution in the house calling upon Secretary Herbert for his authority for making the appointment.

One would suppose from the frequency of the slaps in the face which the administration gives the democratic senators that it had no need of their support. The latest slap was the nomination of Wayne MacVeagh, of Pennsylvania, to be ambassador to Italy. The democratic senators smile and try to pretend that they like it, but it is plain to all that they do not. There was no difficulty about the confirmation of Mr. MacVeagh's nomination by the senate. He is thoroughly competent to creditably fill the position and if Mr. Cleveland preferred to give one of the highest honors at his disposal to a renegade republican rather than to a democrat, republican senators had no objection, so the nomination was promptly confirmed.

The adoption of the following amendment to the urgency deficiency bill in the house by a vote of 123 to 46 was a practical reprimand of Mr. Cleveland and Hoke Smith, for their wholesale suspension of pensioners: "That any pension heretofore or that may hereafter be granted to any applicant therefor under any law of the United States authorizing the granting of any payment of pensions or application adjudicated upon shall be deemed and held by all officers of the United States to be a vested right in the grantee to that extent that payment thereof shall not be withheld or suspended until after due notice to the grantee of less than thirty days, the commissioner of pensions after hearing all the evidence, shall decide to annul, vacate and modify or set aside the decision upon which such pension was granted. Such notice to grantee must contain a full and true statement of any charges or allegations upon which such decision granting such pension shall be based."

The administration men are alarmed by the statement of Senator Murphy concerning the Cleveland tariff bill. They know that if he lives up to that statement—"I will endeavor, so far as lies in my power, to see that no injustice is done to the interests of my native city and state"—it means another democratic vote against the Cleveland tariff bill in the senate, where they have few votes to spare.

The majority report in favor of the Cleveland tariff bill is not calculated to make any votes for that measure. It is not much of a Christmas present for the democratic congressman to take home to their unemployed constituents; its fine talk about future prosperity will not buy groceries or pay house rent for those who have already been brought to want by the prospects of that which it so highly lauds.

Secretary Carlisle's long delayed annual report was submitted to congress this week. The most noteworthy recommendation it contains is that asking congress for authority to issue $200,000,000 in bonds. This is just what Senator Sherman said during the silver fight that the administration would have to do sooner or later. CAS

RECORD MAKERS.
The greatest speed attained by sailing ships, according to Mulhal, was by the James Baines, 430 miles in twenty-four hours, and Flying Cloud, 412. The Red Jacket ran 3,280 miles in seven days, averaging 325 miles a day.

The appearance of a ladies' eight on the Thames has attracted considerable attention. The craft in which they row is a light one, and the members of the crew are all neatly attired in white, with ties and handbags of Leander cerise.

The duchess of Fife (Princess Louise) has succeeded in maintaining her reputation as an expert angler. She has taken thirty salmon the past season, and on one day she landed as many as seven, which ranged from nine to fourteen pounds in weight.

RECENTLY the Cunard steamer Lucania reduced the Cunard steamer Campania's eastward record by one hour and twenty-five minutes, and the Campania reduced the Lucania's westward record by twenty minutes. The two records now stand: Eastward, Lucania, 5:13.30; westward, Campania, 5:13.23.

FACTORY, MILL AND MINE.
The average annual production of the precious metals in the world from 1870 to 1890 was: Gold, $119,975,000; silver, $112,500,000.

At a Kansas City packing house a few days ago, in eleven hours, 3,218 cattle were killed and prepared for the beef market, an average of about five a minute.

Twenty years ago there were but two or three manufacturers of horse-hide leather in this country. The consumption of this leather is large and rapidly increasing.

It is undoubtedly profitable to keep a cow. A census report shows that the average yield of milk per cow for the whole United States in 1890 was 2,082 pounds, or 1,303 quarts.

In 1892 the bituminous coal mines of the United States employed 212,893 persons. The average number of working days was 219. The grand total of employes of coal mines was 341,743.

PERTAINING TO PLANTS.
THERE are carnivorous plants which capture and eat insects.

A CERTAIN forest plant in Japan grows to be about six feet high in three weeks.

The most singular plant is the sensitive plant. Some of this family are so delicate that the passing of a cloud over the sun will cause their leaves to curl up.

FRANCOIS Goss, who has been inspecting the California vineyards as a representative of the French government, is taking back samples of what he regards as high grades of wines he found produced there.

When on a visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton of Luray, Russell county, Kan., called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six-year-old boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the Remedy. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
