J. F. FORD, Evangelist,
Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.

Gentlemen:

On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously awaiting. My little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 28 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, ME. & Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse your system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses each week.

Sold under a positive guarantee.

THE REBEL ADMIRAL
Mystery as to the Whereabouts of Mello.

A BIG SQAIRE IN AN OPERA HOUSE

Audience Frightened by Anarchists and the Place Hurriedly Emptied.

PERNAMBUCO, Dec. 27.—The greatest mystery surrounds the movements of the rebel admiral, Mello. Nothing has been seen of him since he sailed north on the 20th, presumably to show fight to the new government cruisers Nietheroy and America.

The Spanish warship Cristobal Colon, which arrived from Rio, reports that on Christmas eve there was a heavy engagement between the rebel warships and the forts. Both sides are said to have suffered severely.

Later in the day there was great excitement caused by the news that Admiral Mello had arrived at Bahia, and the men on board the Nietheroy began with alacrity to put things in readiness to meet the enemy. The rebel warships are reported coaling at Bahia, preparatory to starting for Pernambuco to capture or destroy the Nietheroy, after which, if successful, it will give the America a drubbing. Mello is expected here tomorrow. It is not expected he will attack in broad daylight. It is now said the Nietheroy will steam out to meet him.

A Theater Deserted.
MADRID, Dec. 27.—A large audience gathered in the Royal opera house last night. While waiting for the performance a rumor began to circulate that anarchists were present and intended to commit a bomb outrage. In less time than it takes to tell it the whole audience hurried in a semi-panic-stricken state from the house. The hurried and excited manner in which the people fled caused a report to circulate that the explosion had occurred. As the news spread the population of the whole city was intensely excited, and many flocked to the vicinity of the opera house, and soon the streets in that locality were congested. Finally it developed that the report was a canard and the people dispersed.

Answer to Pennoyer's Letter.
SALEM, OR., Dec. 27.—At a meeting of the board of trade and citizens of Salem, held in the parlors of the Willamette hotel, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, The governor of the state of Oregon has abused the official position conferred upon him by the people by addressing the president of the United States a letter containing certain statements injurious to the commonwealth, and calculated to create an erroneous impression in the minds of those not acquainted with the facts, thereby deferring those who might contemplate engaging in productive industries here; therefore,

"Resolved, That we, the board of trade and business men of Salem, most emphatically deny the assertions of the governor and brand his statements as false, and aver that, notwithstanding the prevailing depression, there is no widespread destitution or actual want in Oregon, and that the governor, in claiming that two-thirds of our people are without employment, while one-third are without the means of sustenance, was guilty of gross misrepresentation; and we request our representatives in congress to present these resolutions to the president of the United States, and to deny in both senate and house the truth of the governor's statements. While admitting that Oregon is suffering from the prevailing hard times, we confidently claim that there is less poverty here in proportion to the population than in any other state in the union, and the prospects for the future are excellent."

Bismarck is reported to be suffering from his old complaint of neuralgia in the arm. His condition is complicated by indigestion.

Educational Work.
The Oregonian thus reports Prof. Gavin's talk on "Results to be Aimed At in School Instruction and Discipline." He said that the "purpose to be aimed at in school instruction is the combination of the acquirement and culture of ideas so far as they are capable of being combined—which combination is the study and presentation of any given branch in its most orderly and logical manner. It should be the aim so to instruct that the learner's enthusiasm will be aroused, and that he will do for himself all that he can do, and will look to the teacher for guidance and help only when he has reached the limit of his own powers. It should be the aim of the class discussion to cause the student to see the subject in the proper light and to correct wrong ideas that he may formed. When this is done, the drills, repetitions and reviews should aim to fix permanently in the mind what the student has previously acquired. On the question of discipline the speaker showed that it may be necessary at times to allow discipline in school to supersede the work of instruction. These cases are exceptional, and need the teacher's utmost caution and good judgment.

Signing the Homestead Scale.
PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 27.—The signing of the new scale at the Homestead Carnegie steel works began today. It was not officially made public, but from what could be learned of it through men employed in the various departments the cuts in wages run from 10 to 65 per cent and fare among the heaviest ever known in the iron trade of this locality. It is likely to be accepted by the men.

PENNOYER'S LETTER.
Oregon Republicans at Washington Having Trouble to Explain.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The Oregon republicans expressed regret that Pennoyer has broken out again, especially as his screed was printed under headings, "Poverty-Stricken Oregon," "A Pauper State," and similar disagreeable captions in the eastern papers. Senator Mitchell said:

"While I agree with the governor on the question of free coinage, I know that Oregon people are in no worse condition than other sections of the country, which is due to the threatened democratic tariff more than anything else. I am exceedingly sorry because of the impression it leaves on the minds of those who cannot know Pennoyer. Such things hurt the state and can do no possible good. The democratic office-seekers who are here from Oregon were almost stampeded." "Is not this the man you people have been voting for and supporting for years?" asked a close friend of Cleveland of one of them.

This and similar questions they get around as best they can. But any person convicted of being a Pennoyer man is doomed.

LITTLE CENS.
THERE is a great difference between having to say something and having something to say.—Dr. A. T. Pierson.

We know not how much we love the world, till we find pain and difficulty in parting with its good things.—Wilson.

WHEN one has enough light to perceive that one is mistaken, and too much vanity to own it, and instead of turning back one goes still deeper into one's errors, it is the progress and the consolation of pride.—Chateaubriand.

WHEN what you read elevates your mind and inspires you with high and noble feelings, do not seek for any other rule by which to judge the composition; it is good, made by the hand of an experienced workman.—La Bruyere.

SHARPSBURG, Pa., Jan. 27, 1892.
MR. J. J. KEIL,
Sharpsburg, Pa.
DEAR SIR—I have used Krause's Headache Capsules for some time and want to testify to their value. I tried various well recommended medicines, but got no relief until I used these, and now would not be without them for ten times their cost.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES T. SEDGWICK.
